Chairman's Message

My Brothers,

The summer is over and I hope everyone had a fun filled and a great one. The children have gone back to school, and we are all going back to our normal routines. We have several months left in this year, so we have to make the best of it to accomplish our goals that we have not yet achieved. Our first goal is to make the business directory a success, I have the utmost faith in our Masters that they will make this a success. Every Master said that they would get at least 8 cards for the directory. The next function would be the Grand Masters visit on Oct 23. So Masters we need you to impress on the members to come out for this event to support our DDGM RW James Park. We also need another fund raiser for the presents for the Masonic Home. You need to start thinking about who will be the Officers for the 2010 Masters & Wardens. I'm NOT running for anything. For those of you that are interested or new members who haven't been to a Grand Master's visit, there is one this Friday August 28, at Lakeworth Scottish Rite Masonic Center, District 32. Reg. is at 5:30 PM, Dinner 6:30 pm, Tyled meeting 7:30 PM.

Fraternally,
RH Harry Kienzle
Chairman of Master's & Wardens

My Brethren All,

Summer is almost over and the Lodges will again see familiar faces back on the side lines. I hope those that had vacations are well rested and ready to get back to work for their Lodge and our fraternity. Your knowledge and expertise is needed with the many new Brothers joining our Great fraternity. Come out and share this with them.

My committee and myself were well received this past month at Doric Lodge and Eureka-North Shore Lodge. Doric Lodge is to be commended on their Masonic association with the Cooperative Feeding Program in Broward. This is headed up by W\Bob Holland and has the overwhelming support of W\'\'Ricky\'\' Montero and all the Brothers of the Lodge. If any Brother in the District would like to help in this endeavor feel free to contact either of these Brothers. W\Armondo Foronda and the Brothers of Eureka-North Shore are also busy promoting Masonry and have helped the Mahi Shrine Transportation fund by working with them and presenting them with a check to continue their "Road Runner" trips from both Dade and Broward County each week, for those children needing this wonderful care found in the Shrine Hospitals. Brothers this is "Unity in Masonry" and everyone can and should be proud of your efforts.

Our Grand Masters visit is October 23rd. and will be here before we know it. I hope you all are planning to attend. It will be at the American Legion Hall next door to J. Dewey Hawkins Lodge and a flyer will be out within the month with all the details. If you or your Lodge plan on making a presentation to the Grand Master for his charity or the First Ladies charity, see me at Masters & Wardens or contact me at the address above, for the necessary forms to be filled out for these presentations.

My Brother's don't forget our Business Card Directory. Time is running out to place your Business card ad. We need your support for our Grand Masters visit and the Christmas Party for our Brother's and Sisters in our Masonic Home.

I want to thank those Brother's from our District who attended the Junior Grand Wardens Homecoming at the Azan Shriners Center, in Melbourne. R\W\Jorge Aladro is a supporter of our District and a revered mason throughout the state, whom we can and will be proud to have as our Grand Master in the near future.

In closing Brothers if I can be of any service to you or your Lodge, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Please keep our Brother's and their families, that are sick or have lost loved ones, in your prayers and our Men and Women serving in our Armed Forces.

Fraternally,
R\W\James E. Park
District Deputy Grand Master

Doric Lodge No 140 F&AM

Greetings My Brothers,

This was the second month that we had the books opened and we are seeing more Brothers taking advantage of the books. The schools of Instructions was well attended, I still would like to see more brothers from others lodges participating. The same Lodges have Brothers attending every time, we need more brothers from our New Lodge North Broward, West Broward, Eureka-Northshore. This is a good opportunity for your newly raised Master Mason's to study their proficiency by using the written catechism, and those brothers learning the lectures or any part of the degrees. We ALL are always continuing learning in masonry so I encourage our Brothers to come out and join in the wonderful evening of education.

Fraternally,
RH Harry Kienzle
District Instructor of 33rd
