Chairman's Message

Greetings My Brothers,

I do hope everyone has had a Happy Easter, and for our Jewish brothers, I hope you have had a Happy Purim. This is the season of giving to the children. Please remember donating towards our youth. The Magic Children's Evening on April 26th, has become a District function. I would encourage the masters of our lodges to sell as many tickets as possible. Last year we raised $10,000.00. We hope this year we can raise more. On April 12th we have the Oakland Park Youth Parade. This is also a district function. Breakfast will be served at J. Dewey Lodge between 7 – 8.15 a.m. The parade will set off from J. Dewey Lodge and end at Oakland Park.

The American Legion received a check from Feramo Grotto for purchasing 10 tables which they needed badly. They asked me to thank all the brothers in the district but especially the Grotto members. I do hope they will soon get a check for the remaining six that we promised them.

Please also remember the district directory, which is another way of raising money for our district. So far we have only had four contributors. I am hoping for at least 50 business cards before the end of April 2008..

Our dear brother Steve Cashera has passed to the Celestial Lodge. He was a good mason and was always supported the district. We shall definitely miss him. I wish to thank W. Rob Estell for keeping us informed.

Fraternally,
Sol. Goldenberg, PM.,
Chairman, Masters and Wardens. #33

2008-2009 BUSINESS CARD DIRECTORY

It is time for the third publication of our Business Card Directory. Our first two publications have brought in an average of $3,000.00 in net profits for the annual Masonic Home Holiday Party. The directory is also a part of our Masters and Wardens website, which makes your advertisement available to all subscribers. As in the past, we will be making available to the lodges additional copies of the directory for mailing to their members. I would ask the lodge secretaries or publishers of the monthly lodge trestle boards, as well as any lodge web masters, to include this message (or a portion perhaps) for next month. We need to make those that do not come to lodge or Masters and Wardens aware of this program. We are setting a deadline of the May Masters & Wardens meeting. I am intending on including those Brothers that were listed in our 2007-2008 publication, so if you do not intend to renew, please let me know

Please forward a quick e-mail to bocamason@earthlink.net or call R.:.W.:. Stephen Gladstone at (561) 394-0096 indicating your intention to place one or more business card advertisements in the directory at an annual cost of $100.00 per card or $400.00 per page.

Fraternally
Stephen R. Gladstone, PDDGM

GRAND LODGE ROOM RESERVATIONS

The headquarter hotel for Grand Lodge on May 26, 27, and 28, is the Rosen Plaza at 9700 International Drive in Orlando (407) 996-9700. The room rate is $80.00 per room for up to 4 people in a room – and should be registered with the hotel under the "Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida". The deadline to assure that rate is April 25, but the hotel could fill up before that, so make your reservation now.

To my Brothers of the 33rd:

UPCOMING LEGISLATION MEETINGS

The Deputy Grand Master, Joe Fleites will be conducting the Legislation Meetings for Zones 8, 9 and 10. The scheduled meeting for our area, Zone 9, will be held at: Lake Worth Scottish Rite Center, on April 30, 2008, at 6:30 PM for Districts 32 and 33. At that time he will be presenting the legislation and budget that will be voted on at Grand Lodge in May.

It is extremely important that all of the Lodges' voting delegates and past Masters attend this meeting so they can become informed about the upcoming legislation and relay that information to their Lodge Brothers. Also, any Brothers who plan to attend Grand Lodge should attend this meeting. If a Brother who needs to attend the legislation meeting has a conflict for Zone 9 date, he can attend the Zone 10 meeting on April 14, 2008, at 6:30 PM, at Mahi Shrine Center Oasis Room, Miami for Districts 34, 35 and 36.

On behalf of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master Joe Fleites made a plea to Lodges, Masters and Wardens and Brothers for donations to The Masonic Youth Association which supports DeMolay, Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters.

Brothers who are going to Grand Lodge should make reservations as soon as possible to be assured room availability. In past years those who waited too long were not able to obtain rooms at the Rosen Plaza which is where Grand Lodge Communication will be held. The reservation form and information is available at Broward Masons.

Thank you for your continued support. I am looking forward to seeing you at all the upcoming social events and DDGM visits.

Fraternally, Frederick H. Stoltzfus
District Deputy Grand Master

EVENING CLOTHING

There are basically two types of generic evening attires used in our western civilization today. The formal one is the tailcoat also called white tie, and it is used in high pomp ceremonies of head of states, grand balls, international symphonic orchestras etc. The semi formal is the tuxedo or black tie. They are proper to be worn after 6:00 PM.

Why do Masons use so formal attires?. It is out of mere vanity or hot air? The answer is an overwhelming not. Traditionally Masons have dinners and banquets to have our young Brothers acquainted with the socials skills necessary to his leadership position in our society to which we are preparing him. Morality, Intellectuality and Spirituality are his luggage; social skills his road of access. If Masons ever lost this concept, our fraternity would lose its consequence and sooner or later die.

Wearing a tuxedo and eating with his hands like a bum would be as ludicrous and improper as buying a Rolls Royce to carry bags of manure.

Our Brother President George Washington wrote a booklet called “Rules Of Civility And Decent Behavior In Company And Conversation” that is still good today.

Some simple rules to teach our young Brothers as they come in:

Dinner is not simply to feed but for enjoyment.

Table manners aim two objectives: Sanitary and Esthetics.

No personal items placed on the table.

Wash hands before meals and after using bathroom.

No double dipping or using your silverware to serve from font.

Fingers only to bread, crackers or dry foods.

Hands always apparent over the table, arms sometimes, and elbows never.

No burping, spitting, nose or tooth picking in public.

No shouting or abrupt movements at the table.

No speaking with full mouth.

Cut of food in small pieces to allow you to keep conversation.

Raise food to mouth; do not lower mouth to dish.

Do not reach over for food, ask to have it passed to you.

Wipe your lips before drinking. Keep napkin as neat as possible.

Keep conversation pleasant.

For multiple courses, start with outside silverware.

When finished, place fork and knife parallel at 4:00 o'clock.

No money over the table while food is still there.

Social skills and good manners do not make a man better but make him feel better.

Next school of instruction at Deerfield Lodge Wednesday April 23 at 6:30 for dinner.

LETS LEARN TOGETHER.

Fraternally,

Eduardo Brandao

District Instructor
