My Brothers:

Initially, I would like to again congratulate all the officers who have been elected to serve their respective lodges this year. I look forward to working with all of you and having the opportunity to visit each of the lodges before stepping down as your District Deputy Grand Master.

Our Grand Lodge is only four months away and I am awaiting the dates from our Grandmaster as to the legislative meetings, which will be distributed through our District calendar. I urge each lodge to insure adequate representation at these meetings, in order that the lodges may be made aware of what the proposed legislation entails, as well as the recommendations of the jurisprudence committee. Remember, the Master and Wardens are the lodge representatives at the Grand Lodge Session and are to vote the "will of the craft".

W Al McDonald as volunteered to man the visual-aid calendar at each Masters and Wardens meeting. When you look at the calendar and the various dates already set, including those of the appendant bodies who have been kind enough to give us their lists, you will see there are not as many dates available as one would like. I again urge lodges to forward proposed dates to me or alternatively, put them on our District website themselves as early as possible. This will enable other lodges and individuals to advise of any potential conflicts, with the dates ultimately reviewed and set at the next Masters and Wardens meeting. Thereafter, R W Jim Ewart can update our District calendar on the website. I believe a strict adherence to this will insure the best attendance for your respective events.

As always, in the event I can be of service to any Brother or Lodge, please do not hesitate to contact me.
