CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to all of the newly elected and appointed lodge officers in the mighty 33rd!!! I look forward to working with all of you to make 2007 another banner year for our district. Brothers, please encourage all of your officers, as well as your members and your new EA and Fellowcraft brothers to attend our Masters and Wardens meetings. We really need their participation and their input. To you brothers who have not had the opportunity to attend these meetings, we really do have a lot of fun at Masters and Wardens !

Also, please remember that next month on Saturday, March 24th is the Oakland park youth day parade. Please call me or R.: W.: Al McDonald for more information on this event.

This coming Saturday evening is our annual "ladies night" at tropical acres. Thanks brothers, it looks like it will be another successful event for our district. See you there!

Mike Binder

To my Brothers of the Mighty 33rd:

Now that all of the installations are over it is time for all of us to continue our Most Worshipful Grand Master's goal for his year. He wants me to still deliver his message to our district of promoting our fraternity, increasing and maintaining membership in our particular Lodges, remembering our Masonic Home, and to reach his goal for Diabetes Research

My two official visits for the month of February will be at Eureka North Shore Lodge on Thursday, February 15, and at Doric Lodge on Tuesday February 20. I hope to see many of you there

My Brothers WE can make this the best year this district has ever had, but only by the support and encouragement of every Brother and each of the 9 great Lodges in the Mighty 33rd We might have disappointments, but we cannot allow ourselves to get discouraged..

Fraternally,
R.: W.: Albert J. McDonald
