CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Concerning our "Lady's Night"

Wow!!!!, we have we pulled together (again) as a district and proved to ourselves and other masons here in Florida that great success can be accomplished when lodges and brothers work as a team

We actually lowered our ticket prices more than 15% less than last year's ticket price for the event, we brought in almost 50% more in attendance (sold out) and produced a significant increase in profit over last year's event.....and everyone had a fantastic time..... Congratulations brotherswe did it!

Now that we have a successful rhythm going...let's see how good we can do with our Majic Children's Fund Charity Dance next month, our business card directory/ trestleboard, and our Halloween Bash in October. Lets stay motivated, brothers.

Brothers, remember this month on Saturday March 24th, we are participating as a district in the Oakland Park Youth Day Parade. We will start serving breakfast at J. Dewy Hawkins at 7 AM. Call myself or R.: W.: Al McDonald if you have any questions about this event.

To my Brothers of the Mighty 33rd:

I would like to remind ALL Lodges to not forget the plastic jugs that W.: Bob Holland gave you to fill with quarters (or bills) for our MH-100 Program. I will be at the Masonic Home on March 17 and 18th if you have any presentations for any of our M.:W.: Grand Master's programs. You will also have an opportunity for presentations at our Annual Grand Lodge Communication in May.

On Saturday March 17, there will be a Masonic Home celebration with different activities planned for the day beginning at 10 AM including a Chili Cook-off. Our Grand Master hopes that Brothers from around the State will attend. Hope you can make it.

March 24 is the date of the Oakland Park Youth Day and our chance to make a large showing to promote our fraternity with our Child I.D. booth. Wear your Lodge Shirts and come on out.

On April 28th, we have our opportunity to practice our charitable obligation by giving back to our community through our 9th annual Magic Children's Fund Charity Benefit. Lets fill the American Legion Hall with Brothers so we can raise money for the children of South Florida.

Fraternally,
R.:W.: Albert J. McDonald
