My Brethren,

I want to thank everyone who attended the The First Ladies “Luau” at the Miami Scottish Rite and hope you had a wonderful time. Although this was a joint effort of the 33rd, 34th, and 35th Districts the real credit goes to W. : M. : Tali Atala and his crew of hard workers for the preparation of the food and decorations to make it possible. A special thank you also to the Miami Scottish Rite for the use of the Masonic Center. This Night was to help support the First Ladies Project, at the Masonic Home, to build closets in our Residence rooms. Approximately Two Thirds of the closets are completed and time is running out as we approach Grand Lodge. Funds are still needed to see this vision to completion and with your help this evening we have gotten closer to seeing this project become a success. The final total is not yet in but when all is turned in I will announce it to the Craft. If you missed this Event and would still like to contribute to this wonderful cause please see me and I will be glad to accept your donation on behalf of Lady Rebba.

We had a Great turnout for the Pembroke Pines Birthday Parade. Many Brothers from the entire 33rd District attended and were excited about Masonry getting out into the community as we walked with Dignity and Pride wearing our Aprons, Jewels and White Gloves. A special thank you goes out to W. : ”Bill” Barlow and all who helped him make this a success. Many photos were taken and we hope to see them in the near future published in the Florida Mason newsletter.

Lastly as a reminder to all the Masters and Wardens of our District. I hope you are planning on attending the Legislation meeting this Month at Boca-DelRay Lodge to get a better understanding of the important issues that will be presented at Grand Lodge for your vote. The future of Masonry depends on you.

My next visitations will be at J. Dewey Hawkins Lodge on April 22 followed by my Official Homecoming at West Broward Lodge on May 6th.

In closing Brothers if I can be of any service to you or your Lodge, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Please keep our Brother’s and their families, that are sick or have lost loved ones, in your prayers and our Men and Women serving in our Armed Forces.

Fraternally,

R. : W. : James E. Park

District Deputy Grand Master

My Brother's of the 33rd,

I am please to see so many brothers interested in doing their proficiency work for the various cards. I want to remind the brethren that if you are interested in getting with me to do any ritual work please call or E-mail me to give me a heads up. So far we have been getting quite a few brothers to come down and take a look at the books. Let me encourage you to make an effort to sit in with the District School of Instruction. The best time to ask questions and practice ANY specific ceremonies is during this class, but I NEED YOUR PARTICIPATION.

It is difficult to practice the forms and ceremonies with only a few brothers, please mark you calendars for the next class and join us. We can still have FUN while performing the various rituals that are what makes our Fraternity the Best in the World.

Look Forward to Seeing You,

R.:.H.: Troy Porter
