From the East

Brethren,

We recently lost two of our brothers. First, Brother Joseph Libhart Raphael, who was retired in Texas, passed February 16, 2004. Also, Brother Harry Myers, Jr., who was always there when we needed his help, passed March 11, 2004. Harry was recently one of the twelve craftsmen in the raising of two brethren. Both will be sadly missed.

March 11, 2004, we had our first Beef-N-Beverage. It was a huge success!! The food was great (how about those Beans) and the fellowship was even better. A good time was had by all. I was very proud to be part it. A big thank-you to everyone who helped out – lets do it again!!!

On March 20th, the Senior Warden, Junior Warden, and I attended an education seminar at Grand Lodge. The incoming Grandmaster spoke on what he wishes to do this next year. Example, a one day class consisting of all 32 degrees in one day. He has many new ideas.

Back at home, April brings a busy calendar – rehearsals, meetings, and Grand Lodge in Atlantic City. Please note we are moving the Master Mason Degree to May 13, 2004. This will give our five new brothers time to absorb all they have learned so far.

Important Dates:

- April 6 – DLI Central 7:30 pm
- April 8 Rehearsal M.M. 7:30 pm
- April 15 – Reg Communication 7:30 pm
- April 18 – Wheel Chair Push 8:30 am
- April 22 – Rehearsal M.M. 7:30 pm
- April 28 & 29 – Grand Lodge AC
- May DLI Burlington 7:30 pm

In our Grand Lodge communication there will be two new Grand officers from our lodge:

WB Lucian D. Craig – Grand Sword Bearer
WB Raymond C. Flynn – Grand Tyler.

This is a great honor for both of these brothers and to our lodge. Congratulations to both of you.

Being an officer and/or committee member in a lodge takes a lot of time and hard work. It is a COMMITMENT. We need men who can up hold to their commitment. As Master, I need all officers to attend rehearsals, meetings, degree work, and DLI's. We owe this to our lodge to keep it growing and successful. This is a great lodge and it is getting better all the time. We have some of the hardest workers in the state and I am very proud to be part of it. It's time to step up and say "I am a Master Mason" and be proud of it. I am – are you???

Worshipful Master

In Remembrance . . .

Brother Harry Myers Jr.

Brother Joseph Libhart Raphael

You will be missed Brothers.

Fellowcraft Club/BRMA News

The BRMA/FC Club would like to thank the Riverside Chapter OES for all their help and effort in making the St. Patty's Day Beef & Beverage a huge success. Also thanks to all who attended. It was a fun evening for all.

We are already in talks with the Star Chapter about a fall event. Perhaps an Oktoberfest of some sort. We let everyone know when something is formalized.

At our last meeting we discussed some possible improvements to the FC Club Room. Items discussed were:

- Lighting Changes
- Painting
- Possible addition of two windows.
- Addition of an exhaust fan.

The final item discussed was the addition of Cable TV to the Hall. The FC Club voted to look into and provide Cable TV for the Hall within the next Month or two. We are in the process of getting a cost and setting an install date.

We will be replacing the lock of the FC Club Room soon. All members will have access to the combination as will select personnel from the other organizations.

The Two Pillars

H. Jordan Rosoce, 32° - The New Age – January 1964

The Fellow-Craft is introduced to the wonders of his world of art and science through portals flanked by two massive pillars. Detailed description of these pillars in the Books of Kings indicates a style of design common to Egyptian architecture, where a pillar terminates in a capital representing a conventionalized lotus blossom, or the seed pod of that sacred lily. Such twin pillars are frequently found among Egyptian and Sumerian archaeological remains.

The pillars of King Solomon's Temple, and in fact that entire group of structures, were the work of Phoenician artists, according to the Biblical account. From other sources we gather that these same designers and craftsmen, initiated Dionysiac architects, were responsible for the magnificent palaces and temples at Byblos, the cultural and esthetic center of ancient Phoenicia. The Phoenician realm occupied an area roughly the same as that of modern Syria and Lebanon, and in Biblical accounts is usually called Tyre, from the name of its then capital city. Byblos, also known as Gub'l or Gebal, the present-day village of Jebeil, was particularly famous for architects and sculptors.

The twin pillars symbolize the dual nature of life and death, positive and negative or rather active (establishment) and passive (endurance), male and female, light and dark, good and evil, uniting in a central point of equilibrium, the apex of an equilateral triangle; a circle between two parallel uprights. Isis represented standing between two pillars of opposing polarity, the Ark of the Covenant between two Cherubim, Christ crucified between two thieves, are all symbols of the same trinity, the completeness and perfection of Deity.

That the twin pillars resemble the conventional symbol for Gemini, third sign of the Zodiac, is no accident, but rather due to the common ancestry of the two apparently unrelated symbols.

In some lectures the pillars are said to be 35 cubits high, the height given in II Chronicles, King James Version. Another version of the same source gives the height as 120 cubits. Since the height of the first or outer chamber was probably no more than 30 cubits, the measurement given in I Kings: 18 cubits, seems more likely to be correct. The addition of map globes atop the pillars is a modern invention, with little Biblical or other authority and serving little purpose but to permit the lecturer to harp upon the advantages of studying astronomy, geography, etc., worthy pursuits but wholly unrelated to the symbolism of the pillars.

Whether the three chambers of the Temple were connected by stairs is debatable. The best-informed scholars believe the Temple roof was flat, in which case the successively decreasing heights of the chambers, plus the somewhat sloping configuration of the site, would require approach and connection by means of either stairways or of some sort of ladder and trapdoor arrangement. Certainly the fantastically elaborate many-storied versions of the Temple depicted by some well-intentioned but ill-informed Bible illustrators and Masonic artists are so illogical and at variance with the few known facts and testimony of both the Bible and history as to seem the figments of a disordered imagination. Josephus stated that the Temple was of Grecian style which implies entablature and consequently a flat roof, although he had the cart before the horse, since Greek architecture was derived from Phoenician, not the reverse.

In any case, the stairway of our lectures is purely symbolic, consisting as it does of the significant numbers 3, 5, and 7. In such a series, 3 symbolizes such qualities as peace, friendship, justice, piety, temperance, and virtue. 5 represents light, health, and vitality- 7 is a symbol of control, judgment, government, and religion.

Riverside Chapter #101,

Masonic Light

William D. Ewan, Worshipful Master

What Masonry is:

It is a voluntary association of men

It is a system of moral conduct

It is a way of life

It is a fraternal society

It is religious in its character

It teaches the Golden Rule

It seeks to make good men better men

It teaches morality through symbolism

It uses rites, and ceremonies to instruct its members

It is based on a firm belief in the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man, and the immortality of the soul.

What Masonry is not:

It does not solicit members

It is not an insurance or benefit society

It is neither a religion nor a creed nor a religious order

It is not a charity organization, but makes charity a duty

It is not organized for profit

It dictates to no man as to his beliefs, either religious or secular

It seeks no advantages for its member through business or politics

It is not a forum for discussion of religion, politics or other partisan affairs

It is not a secret society, as it does not conceal its existence or purposes.

Masonic Trivia

On March 31, 1732, at Rahrau, Austria-Hungary, was born the composer who became known as the "Father of the Symphony," Bro. Joseph Franz Haydn. During his career Bro. Haydn composed more than 120 symphonies, more than 100 works for chamber groups, a dozen operas, and hundreds of other musical works. Bro. Amadeus Mozart sponsored his entry into Freemasonry. Bro. Haydn became a Freemason in lodge Zur Wahrn Entracht at Vienna on February 4, 1785. Bro. Mozart was there to "raise" him.
