From the East

Well, here comes 2004. The year that was so far away for me, but is now here. It will be a good year because I follow good Past Masters and have a good line of officers to work with me.

There are a lot of jobs to do starting with getting and keeping a good working relationship with the Eastern Star, Demolay, and Rainbow. Most important though, is to keep our Lodge strong by keeping harmony with the Brethren.

On January 6, 2003, we will be hosting the District Lodge of Instruction. It is very important that all officers attend. We will be exemplifying an Opening of the Lodge for the District Deputy Grand Master and the District Ritual Instructor. It would be helpful if we could come out that Monday Night before (January 5th) to rehearse.

On January 8th, there will be a rehearsal for a Master Mason Degree. We will be stepping back one chair for the upcoming degree. Since everyone is new to their chairs, I do not want to place too much burden on the Lodge.

On January 15th, a Regular Communication will be held. All brethren are encouraged to attend.

On January 22nd, the Chinese New Year, will be holding an Emergent Communication for the purpose of conferring the Master Mason degree on Brother FC Hamelman and Brother FC Geoghan. Please come out and welcome our new Master Masons to our Lodge.

Important Dates:

- Jan. 6 – DLI at Beverly-Riverside Lodge, 7:30 pm
- Jan 8 – Rehearsal MM Degree, 7:30 pm
- Jan 15 – Regular Communication, 7:30 pm
- Jan 19 – FC Club/BMRA Meeting – 7:00 pm
- Jan 19 – Rehearsal MM Degree, 7:30 pm
- Jan 22 – MM Degree, 7:00 pm

Special congratulations are due to two brothers of our Lodge – WB Lucian D. Craig and WB Raymond C. Flynn, Jr. Both have been selected to serve in the Grand Line for RW Daniel M. Wilson DGM, in the event he is elected Grand Master in April. WB Craig will serve as Grand Sword Bearer. WB Flynn will serve as Grand Tyler. It is an honor for our Lodge that we have not one but two deserving brothers selected to serve the Grand Lodge. Well done Brothers!

I am looking forward to working with the new line of Officers and our Ritual Committee. I know that the District Deputy Grand Master and District Ritual Instructor are looking to Beverly-Riverside as an example of the way a lodge should be run, and I am also.

William D. Ewan
Worshipful Master

From the West

Louis E. Christou, Senior Warden

Greetings Brethren!

It is my hope that you have all been blessed with a happy and healthy holiday season. A new year is upon us, and along with it, a new Worshipful Master.

I would like to take this opportunity to appeal to each and every member of our Lodge. A Lodge is only as successful as the men who are a part of it. Everybody has their own agenda; their own families, friends, careers, and busy schedules. Not everyone may have the time to commit to being a Line Officer, or Hall Trustee. Many people do not have the inclination or desire to contribute a large portion of their leisure time to the Lodge. But I do believe that a large number of us could easily find the time to attend a Regular Meeting or Emergent Communication.

I have remarked on several occasions that if just the brethren who have been raised since I became a Mason came out to meetings, the Lodge Room would be more than half full; and I have been a Mason for less than five years! I take a great deal of pride in being a part of this Lodge.

I enjoy being a Line Officer, and truly feel that what we are doing is worthwhile both for ourselves as well as the community. I believe that I speak for the rest of my fellow officers when I say that what we do would seem even more worthwhile if we could look upon a Lodge Room full of brothers, especially for the Emergent Communications. Attracting new members is certainly important, but strong attendance is a true measure of a Lodge's success.

Brethren, join us in supporting our Lodge, as well as our new Worshipful Master, Bill Ewan. Come out and see what we are doing, and enjoy some fellowship. I look forward to seeing you. May God bless all of you,

Brother Louis Christou
Senior Warden

Fellowcraft Club News

In a move designed to streamline the two organizations, the Fellowcraft Club and the Beverly-Riverside Masonic Association have merged into one. New officers were elected at combined meeting in December. The officers are planning to meet and forge some new by-laws for the organization. Once the new By-Laws are decided upon, membership to the FC Club will be opened to all Members.

Our next meeting will be held on January 19th at 7:00 p.m. The new By-Laws will be discussed as well as the progress on the clean up of the Fellowcraft Room. Please plan on attending this meeting if you are interested in participating in Fellowcraft Club activities.

Hall Trustee News

Four new Hall Trustees were elected at the December Regular Communication. Welcome to WB Korang, WB Craig, WB Flynn, and Brother Carroll to the Committee.

The Hall Trustees have much work ahead of them this coming year. The Worshipful Master stated that he wanted more effort toward making the Trustees less dependant on funds from the Lodge and subordinate bodies.

We will be working toward that end, but we could use your help! We need you to talk up our lodge facilities to anyone you know may need a hall in the near future. We have a beautiful facility that can make some much needed funds for the Lodge. Tell your family and friends about our Hall and make an offer to give a tour.

Please contact WB Phipps if you have questions about renting our facility. We give members discounted rental fees for their personal events.

The Hall Trustees wish every member of Beverly-Riverside Lodge No. 107 a happy and healthy New Year!

Masonic Light

William D. Ewan, Worshipful Master

While reading a Trestleboard from out-of-state, I came across an article that caught my eye.

Freemasonry – Are we Elite?

The article made several points that, as members of the Masonic Family:

1. We seek self-improvement.
2. We try to improve the conditions of others.
3. We commit ourselves to higher ideals and hold ourselves to higher standards than most other fraternities.
4. We invest our time, effort, and money in charitable work.
5. We unite men of different faiths and from different walks of life.
6. We treat each other with dignity and respect even though we may have opposite opinions on given subjects

We may sound like an elite group and we may well be one. What is your opinion?

THE TWENTY-FOUR INCH GAUGE

A distressed brother is not always a brother in need of material assistance. To understand this is to understand the lesson of the twenty-four inch gauge. The very simplicity of a statement will often hide the meaning, and a great teaching will thereby escape our serious consideration.

So important is the study of the twenty-four inch gauge that from it a philosophy complete within itself is possible of attainment. Time cannot be saved, that is, you cannot save two hours from today and spend them tomorrow. Time can only be spent. Neither can we take four hours from one part of the gauge and use it advantageously by bringing it forward to an entirely different part and use.

The happiness derived from the study of the twenty-four inch gauge depends upon the application of the total into its proper and equal parts. In taking away from God and our brothers it may appear that we are very busy in our affairs, yet the fact remains that we are working against the Rule. God and man stand together as one part because unselfish service to man is the only true path to the service of God.

If the twenty-four inch gauge intended to teach that we must only administer to a brother's physical need, there would be an excess of hours to spend. The truth is that our brothers need us, not our material gifts, and we need our brothers. To give ourselves means to give "that" many hours daily.

The Rule is for our happiness. Service to God and man is a Divine Privilege.

(The Proceeding was written in 1953 by Bro. Dewey Wollstein for his "Rays of Masonry" column)
