From the East

First off, I want to thank WB Craig for a fine year as Worshipful Master. He led the Lodge with a firm hand and many things were accomplished. Foremost, our Lodge continues to become a premier Lodge in the nineteenth Masonic District. It has been a long time in coming and I thank last year's officers for continuing down the path of success.

I also want to thank all of the officers in the lower chairs for stepping up this year. We have some newcomers to the line, and I want you to know that you will always have my full support in all your endeavors. This is also true to the existing line officers that continue their path to the East. It is a wonderful journey. Please take time to enjoy each station and get the most out of your time in every office.

This is going to be a great year. I have many things planned for 2002. If we realize half of them, I will be proud of our accomplishments. One major program I will be implementing this year will be a Lodge Mentor Program. My hope is that using this proven program, we may retain active members after their third degree. We must not let new brothers drift away from the Lodge after their raising. Using this new program, we can properly educate our new members and form lasting friendships that will make active, vibrant Masons for years to come. I would like to thank my Education Committee for reviewing this program. They will be in charge of implementing it.

The new Mentor program will get a real test early this year. We have five candidates being initiated in January. This is the first time in years that our lodge has had five candidates coming in at the same time. We also have a Brother EA in the wings awaiting his passing to the Fellowcraft. We may actually have two classes for the Fellowcraft Degree in February. This will be tough on our officers, but I have confidence that we can perform our duties with the same degree of excellence to which we have all become accustom.

So confident is the District in our ritual abilities, that our Lodge will be hosting the first District Lodge of Instruction of 2002. This will be held Thursday, January 3, 2002. It will be our chance to make that first good impression on both our District Deputy, RW Russel E. Mitchell, Sr. and our District Ritual Instructor, RW Firman A. Abdill, Jr.

It is my hope that our Lodge will continue to prosper in the coming year. I have been encouraged by the increased number of side-liners at our recent meetings. I hope this will continue. I have many programs planned for our meetings this year. I am planning on having "something Masonic" at every meeting. I am a top opponent of business-only meetings.

It is my hope to see every seat filled with Lodge members sharing fellowship in Masonry. Happy New Year to all and see you in Lodge!

Matthew Korang, Worshipful Master

From the West

Brother Ronald S. Stubbs, Senior Warden

As our Annual Communication approached, and with the election of lodge officers for the year 2002 looming, I started to wonder do I have the knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to carry out the duties entrusted to the Senior Warden by the Lodge and the Worshipful Master. I started to think how did I get here? What have I done that will prepare me for what lies ahead? It suddenly dawned upon me that panic was about to set in.

Two days prior to the Annual Communication, being a member of the Advisory Board of the Delaware Valley Assembly #65 of Rainbow for Girls, I attended the Advisory Board meeting. Present at this meeting were the line officers of the assembly who were waiting to layout their plans for their upcoming terms. As these 14, 15 & 16 year olds presented their intentions and made their requests I wondered what had prepared THEM for this big step in THEIR lives.

The answer of course was Rainbow! The Order of Rainbow for Girls is a character-building organization designed to develop leadership and responsibility, that encourages good moral character and awakens the desire within to be of service to others. It was these lessons that proved so valuable to my own daughter, Amy, who was chosen as the Grand Worthy Advisor of the New Jersey Grand Assembly of Rainbow for Girls, for the year 1999-2000.

As I now think back to my youthful days, it had never occurred to me before, but what had prepared me for the challenge that awaits me were those lessons that I had learned as a DeMolay. Brethren, I heartily endorse both of these youth organizations and encourage you to recommend these organizations to those youths of today who display the proper moral values, so that they may also be the recipient of these valuable lessons which will serve them in all their future endeavors in life.

“We live in the present, we dream of the future, and we learn eternal

I also encourage you to sit in on one of their meetings, degrees, or Installations and see the good work that is being done by them. All Brethren and members of the Order of Eastern Star are always welcome.

Kitchens Updated

If you haven't been out to the hall lately, you have missed a big upgrade to our building. The Hall Trustees have worked hard to get our building up to code, so we can acquire our food prep certificate. Come on out and take a look at the results.

First off, I would like to thank all members for their help this past year. We have made several improvements to the Lodge in 2001:

- Finished installing new Windows.
- Added security screens to the lower level windows to prevent vandalism.
- Remodeled the kitchens, including all new sinks on both levels. New fire suppression system on the lower level. Installed a new commercial-grade dishwasher. Reworked plumbing in lower level storeroom. (We have our Health Certificate now).
- Installed Insulation in second floor attic.

Thanks to the 2001 Lodge Trustees for all their help and dedication. Also thanks to the Beverly-Riverside Masonic Association for their financial aid and support.

I look forward to working with everyone in 2002 to continue upgrading the lodge building.

Masonic Light

Matthew Korang, Worshipful Master

Carl H. Claudy wrote “Brotherly Love is not a tangible commodity. We cannot touch it or weigh it, smell it or taste it. Yet it is a reality; it can be creative, it can be fostered, it can be made a dynamic power.”

Brotherly love does not just come about. It must be cultivated.

In a Masonic Lodge, we are taught that friendship and brotherly love are paramount tenets of our Fraternity. From our first investigation we are taught, “that Masons take care of their own.” The teachings of Freemasonry plant the seeds of brotherly love in us the moment we step into the Masonic Hall. If you have ever traveled to another Lodge, you will always be greeted kindly and with great respect. This is Brotherly Love in action. Yet, it must still be cared for and “fostered” as Brother Claudy says above. If it is not cultivated and cared for, it can wither and die quickly. Many Masons leave their lodge either by drifting away indifferently or by demitting. The reason they leave is that they have lost the feeling of brotherly love that should be ever present in the Masonic Lodge.

Brethren, this month we have a great opportunity. Five new candidates will become initiated into the teachings of this great fraternity. They will be taught the first tenets of our institution. They know nothing of our organization. Maybe some of them know of Masons because they work with them or “know someone”. But they do not KNOW Freemasonry. They must be taught what Freemasonry is. That it is brotherly love in action. With brotherly love comes the want to help others. This includes all others – Masons and non-Masons alike. They may think they know brotherly love but, they have never experienced Masonic Brotherly Love.

It will be up to the members of Beverly-Riverside Lodge No. 107 to teach them not only their ritual tests, but the meaning of Freemasonry. We must help them understand what it means to be a Lodge brother. Not any Lodge brother but, a Masonic Lodge brother. This means caring about and for your brothers at all times.

Brethren, I ask each and everyone of you to have a hand in the initiation of these candidates into the Masonic Fraternity. Greet them, ask them about themselves, answer their questions and above all make them feel welcome. Come out and witness their first degree in to our world. Make them feel that it was the greatest decision they ever made. I know it was mine.

A Year Full Of Programs

Matthew Korang, Worshipful Master

Brethren, I have not been sitting on my hands for the last several months. I have been preparing for my coming year by doing a lot of research. It is amazing how much information is available to us on the Internet. But that is another article for another time.

Yes, I have been preparing. I have set up a year full of programs for you to look forward to in the coming months. Here is just a sampling of the programs and events for 2002:

- Masonic Quiz Night (with Prizes!)
- Rededication to Masonry Night
- Video Nights
- Past Masters Night (October)
- Bus Trip to Washington Memorial
- Table Lodge (March 15, 2002)

It will be a full year my brother. I hope you will come out and support these events and your Lodge.

“If you want to know where the future of Freemasonry will grow and prosper it’s simply in your heart, in my heart, and in the hearts
