From the East

One step closer to spring and a quarter of the way through the 2002 Masonic year and to date, this has not been a good year for the Lodge. We have lost two brothers. One was a Past Master and very active member. WB Robert L. Beard had recently received his 50 year gold token. He attend almost every meeting and even traveled to other local lodges to visit. He will be sorely missed by myself and the brethren of this lodge.

We have also had two floods in the lower level of our building; the most recent coming this past weekend (2/24). This would have been much less of a problem if the flood was just rain water, but it was not; it was raw sewage coming up through the drain bowl in our kitchen. So far, the two floods will cost in excess of ten thousand dollars in clean up fees. We will be pursuing reparations from the township. We hope it doesn't come down to legal action. We may also be placing a claim to our insurance company for damages once they reveal themselves.

All of this has me worried with our upcoming Table Lodge. The date of our event is March 15th. If you haven't gotten your tickets yet, hesitate no longer as they are going fast. We could still use help serving food and in the kitchen if you feel you don't want to pay to attend. Please contact me if you can help.

I had the pleasure of attending the constituting of a new lodge on February 23rd, The New Jersey Lodge of Research and Education No. 1786. The purpose of this lodge will be to foster research, discussion, and education of the Craft at large regarding topics of Masonic history, symbolism, philosophy, and current events. If any of these things interest you, I encourage you to think about joining me in becoming a member of this lodge and taking part in it activities. There are not many new lodges coming into existence at this period of time, so it was a pleasure to witness the constitution ceremony. This is a new and exciting endeavor.

If you missed our last meeting, you missed an entertaining evening. Our Masonic Quiz Night was both fun and educational. Everyone in attendance participated except one (who insisted on playing solitaire on a laptop). WB Bernard Berkowitz won the contest and was declared the "most knowledgeable Mason" in our Lodge. WB Berkowitz got 21 out of 30 questions correct on a pretty tough test. Congrats, Brother Bernie!

Unfortunately, we could not review the results of our survey because of a problem with the projection equipment. We will go over the results at a future meeting.

Important Dates:

- March 5, 2002
DLI at Medford Lodge
- March 15, 2002
Table Lodge!!!
- March 21, 2002
Communication
- April 2, 2002
DLI at Burlington

One of our Entered Apprentices will not be receiving his final two degrees at this time. Although unfortunate, this will allow us to have only one emergent communication for the Fellowcraft and Master Mason degrees. We will be needing non-speaking craftsmen for the upcoming MM degree in early April. Please contact me if you can help.

Be sure to come out to our next meeting. We will be having a "Rededication to Freemasonry" Night. This program will re-invigorate your dedication to the Craft by explaining the meaning of the degree work and explaining the symbolism in Masonry. Many questions will be answered by our guest speakers.

Have a great month and see you on the 21st.

Matthew Korang, Worshipful Master

From the West

Brother Ronald Stubbs, Senior Warden

I would like to take a moment to thank all the brethren for their vote of confidence in electing me Senior Warden for the year 2002. I look forward to working with the new line of officers and meeting/greeting those brethren who are able to make it out to upcoming meetings and events. I consider your input to be of great importance to me and to the lodge as a whole and assure you that my ear will always be available to you.

This is a very busy and exciting time for the Lodge with 5 candidates currently awaiting the completion of their degrees. I, too, am looking forward to attending my very first Table Lodge, which we (along with Mt. Holly Lodge #14) will be hosting here on Friday, March 15th. I hope to see as many of you there as is possible. Our Lodge is once again hosting the Hospitality Room for the 19th District at Grand Lodge in Atlantic City on April 23, 24 & 25. We all had a great time last year and look forward to a repeat performance of the same this year, so please make plans to come on down for the opportunity to greet your fellow brethren of the 19th Masonic District.

*Fraternally,
Brother Ron Stubbs*

Change

Timothy L. Cole, Past Master

Throughout my life, I have often heard this phrase - "There are only two things in life you have to do, one is pay taxes and the other is die". I believe there is also one more thing that we must do, and that is change!! Change happens to us everyday in all facets of our lives, and we are powerless to stop it. With these changes we can do two things; run away from them or accept and use them for the benefit of ourselves and those around us. If we choose to run away from change, it will soon catch up with us. But, if we embrace the change and use it for our benefit, we can achieve great things.

Our lodge is in the midst of a change. It is a change that could benefit all of its members for years to come or push the lodge into extinction. This change is the combining of two lodges into one. Both Riverside Lodge No. 187 and Beverly Lodge No. 107 had long and distinguished histories and both should be proud of this fact. But the time has come for all the brethren from both of these lodges to start thinking, acting and speaking as one! Whatever happened in each lodge leading up to the consolidation should be kept in the history of that lodge; however, it should not influence the new lodge.

Some of us agreed with the consolidation and some didn't. Most of us voted for the consolidation but some didn't. In the end, what was most important is that we all had a chance to voice our opinion about this change in the form of the ancient Masonic right of casting a ballot. Since the majority of the ballot was in favor of the consolidation, the wheels of change were set in motion. They have not stopped moving, brethren! The new lodge is heading into a future that is full of new and great things.

As this change continues to push us forward, let us look to the past and not use it for un-Masonic purposes. Instead, let us learn from past mistakes. Let us look to the future to set new and higher goals for our new lodge. Let us live in the present to build a bigger and stronger Masonic organization.

I bid Beverly Lodge and Riverside Lodge a fond adieu, and welcome Beverly-Riverside Lodge #107 as the newest and brightest lodge in the 19th Masonic District. I encourage all members of this new lodge to attend the meetings and the degrees. I also would like to send out a special invitation and welcome for those members who have not attended a lodge function in a while, come out and see the good changes that are happening in your lodge.

Fraternally,

Timothy L. Cole PM

Masonic Light

Matthew Korang, Worshipful Master

A funny thing happened to me the other day. I was in a local wholesale warehouse, you know, the kind with shelving rising up to the forty-foot ceiling. The ones were when you buy toilet paper; you have to buy 800 rolls at once. I can never seem to get out of these places without spending at least a hundred dollars.

Anyway, I had my daughters with me to pick up a few needed items. Even though my basket was only a quarter full, I knew somehow that the final amount would come to the magic number of one hundred dollars. It was inevitable! This led me to thoughts that plague many middle-aged married (and unmarried!) fathers; how the mortgage and car payments would be made in the coming weeks. I barely had enough cash in my wallet to get the slushie that my daughters would demand of me upon our exiting the store. You fathers know what I am talking about.

I was stirred out of my foggy thoughts by a discussion at the register in front of me. A young couple was attempting to purchase a new television. It was the only item in their cart; a feat that still manages to amaze me as I can never get out of there with only one item. They seemed to be discussing the final price of the TV with the cashier. As I eavesdropped, I came to understand that they had not accounted for tax on the item. The final price of the TV and tax was $139.91. They had handed the cashier a handful of cash that apparently added up to $139 even. I watched as the young man grasped at his pockets and pulled a few pennies from his jacket. His lady (I am not sure of the relationship, but I assumed they were newly married or engaged) shook her head indicating that she had no change.

The cashier was new and being attended by a manager. The manager spoke to the customers asking if they had the proper amount. They indicated that they were short by mere pennies. The manager told the cashier to void the sale and give the couple their money back. I watched as disappointment came across the couple's faces. I didn't hesitate...I asked the manager how much they were short. She said 91¢. I reached for my wallet and took one of my three remaining dollars and handed it to the cashier.

You would have thought I purchased the entire TV for the young couple. The manager said I was an angel. The young male customer couldn't thank me enough. This simple act of charity changed the day of the cashier and manager, and changed the lives of the young couple.

For me it was a no-brainer. It was something I would have done any time, any place. It is something I learned to do as a Mason. If they needed five dollars, I would have gone over to the MAC machine and gotten it for them. It was the right thing to do and as a Mason, it came naturally. I had time to think of this after it occurred. I felt good, the young couple felt good and the cashiers felt good. What a great thing!

As Masons, we don't always have a chance to behold first hand the work of our charity. Our Grand Lodge assessment and appeal donations go to help the Masonic Home, but when we go there, we don't see it as our charity at work. We see the good of the Shrine Hospitals and the Masonic Learning Centers, but again we don't feel the charity first hand.

First hand charity is simple and starts with you. If you see a person struggling to carry something, don't look away, go over and help. If you see someone is a dollar short, give them the dollar. If someone looks like they need help, go help them.

In this day and age, with the daily dose of horror stories given to us by the news media, it is easy to fall out of being charitable for fear of being abused or even physically harmed. Don't let this stop you from being a good charitable person. Charity doesn't always mean doling out money. It can mean helping your fellow man in little ways by performing small acts. These little acts can and will make the world a better place.
