From the East

I am happy to report that the Zoning Board granted approval for the lodge to finally construct its sign. A formal resolution was passed at their regularly scheduled meeting in April; hopefully construction will begin shortly.

The Craftsmen's Club is beginning to make headway as well. Our pool table was recently recovered and new balls purchased. As soon as we can re-tip the pool cues the pool table will be operative. Those interested in joining the Craftsmen's Club, which is still in its formative stages, should contact WB Matt Korang.

Our 2nd Annual Table Lodge, held jointly with Mt. Holly Lodge #14, was convened on Friday, April 11th. There were over 100 of our Brethren in attendance including 3 of our newest Entered Apprentice Masons and WB Tim Goss, Worshipful Master of Foster Military Lodge, Prince Hall Masons. I would like to thank all of those who were in attendance and hope that they had an enjoyable evening. Also, I would like to thank those who worked in the kitchen and/or served the meal and prepared the toasts that evening; special thanks to Bros. Norm Fortner, Jerry Williams and WB Vince Parczyk for their tireless efforts in the kitchen throughout the day and evening. In addition, thank you to RW F. Gerry Spence who once again served as Toastmaster, WB Matt Korang for his help and guidance, WB Lou Craig for making the DVD raffle a success, WB Paul Doerr for his musical accompaniment and WB Rick Manall and Mt. Holly Lodge #14 for their effort with regard to ticket sales.

Grand Lodge was held in Atlantic City from April 28-30. Once again Beverly-Riverside Lodge hosted the Hospitality Room for the 19th District. I would like to thank all of those who helped out in making that endeavor enjoyable and successful; in particular WB Matt Korang and WB Lou Craig. I would also like to thank the 19th District Past Masters & Wardens Association and each of the lodges for their support and funding to provide this fellowship opportunity for our Brethren. I hope that the Brethren of the 19th District and visitors enjoyed this opportunity to share Masonic fellowship with their Brethren.

The 19th District is planning an Open House to be hosted by Burlington Lodge #32. The date for this event is Friday, May 30, 2003 at 7:00 p.m. If you know of qualified individuals whom you would like to see be made a mason, please use the form contained in this Trestleboard to recommend them. We will of course expect you to attend along with your nominees. Please get your nominations in ASAP.

Mark your calendars. Saturday, June 7th we will be painting the exterior of our building. The Hall Trustees will make arrangements for scaffolding as well as paint and supplies. All we need is YOU! Representatives of our various organizations are expected and if bodies are plentiful we hope to finish in one day. If necessary, we will finish up on Sunday, June 8th. So put on your coveralls and hats and come on out.

Ronald S. Stubbs, Worshipful Master

Masonic Light

Have you ever looked upon a friend, relative, neighbor or co-worker and thought to yourself, gee, he would make a great Mason. I am sure that we have all encountered such a person whose qualifications for the Fraternity were quite evident.

We however, in accordance with the customs of the Fraternity, find that our hands are tied, as we are not permitted to ask him that all-important question. For it is asked of the candidate several times during each of the degrees “Is this an act of Your Own free will and accord?”. Thus, we are left with nothing but feelings of frustration, which reoccur each and every time that we are in the company of that individual. We sit there thinking “Come on, Ask Me how you become a Mason” or if he doesn’t ask, “Should I cross the line...NO!” We wonder why he does not ask? He knows I am a Mason, does he not want to be a Mason too?

Each of us should first look within ourselves for the answer, and ask ourselves, “Are we everything that we as Freemasons could or should be”? Our actions and words should speak to our qualifications for the Fraternity. If our words and deeds display those qualities we look for in a Mason, then maybe he would be more likely to “ask the question”.

Along those lines, I offer the following poem by Brother Anse Cates for your consideration:

How True

*Oh, yes, we are all Craftsmen and very proud to be;
We wear our pins and rings for everyone to see.
But let us pose the question, even though the thought may sting-
Would you know me for a Mason, if you did not see the ring?
True we show Tenets of our ancient hallowed Creed.
Not just on coat and finger, but by words and deeds.
There's one thing to remember, if I've learned my lesson well
My deeds do more convincing than my finger or lapel.*

Well my brothers, the 19th Masonic District of NJ is planning an “Open House” for prospective qualified individuals for Freemasonry. It will be held on Friday, May 30, 2003 and will be hosted by Burlington Lodge #32, which is located on Rt. 541 in Burlington Township, just off of Rt. 295.

The evening will consist of a dinner, possibly a video about the Masonic Home, and a few words from members of our Craft. This will not be a high-pressure sales program, but rather an introduction to the purposes of Freemasonry and the various activities of some of the lodges. The guests will have an opportunity to ask questions and pursue potential membership at their own request.

SO, NOW is Your opportunity to rid yourselves of those frustrations. Submit the names and addresses of those qualified individuals to the Worshipful Master of your respective lodges. The Open House committee will send formal invitations to these individuals. We would of course expect you to attend along with any of your nominees. This is a real opportunity to get someone you know involved in Freemasonry without actually asking him to join. If he is properly impressed by the evening and the Fraternity, he will ask.

Freemason – Defined

As with many facets of the Fraternity, the origin of the term "Freemason" has been lost over the centuries and modern scholars are left with theories and speculation. One thing that we do know, is that the term "Freemason" was not used to describe a brick mason.

One theory, proposed by George F. Fort, was that the term was taken from the French "frere macon," meaning "brother mason," and which has been corrupted via English translation into Freemason. This theory has little support among current authorities.

A second, and more credible theory is that the term originated with the Scottish masons and that it meant that the mason in question had become free of the masons' guild or incorporation and had the freedom to practice throughout the burgh or countryside. This would be in keeping with a like practice to other guild artisans such as the free vintners, free fishermen, free linen weavers, free gardeners, free dredgers, etc. These terms were common place in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and persisted well into the eighteenth century when the Grand Lodge of England was formed in 1717. However, it should be noted that a guild of stone masons, as such, did not exist at that time in England. Therefore, it is doubtful that such a guild of builders was operating in Scotland. Indeed, there were builders in Scotland, but they also included members of other crafts or building trades and were not exclusive in association to those members who were stone masons.

Most authorities (i.e. Knoop and Jones in their Introduction to Freemasonry as well as Harold V. B. Voorhis, one of three editors of Coil's Masonic Encyclopedia) give the greatest credence and respect to a third theory. First of all, it is supportive of an origin from the operative era. It holds that the term came from the fact that the finest craftsmen of the gothic cathedral builders were those that carved and sculpted "free stone." Free stone was a limestone or fined grained sandstone which could be cut in any direction without splitting and which had been "cut free" of the mountain or quarry. It was then readily worked at the building site or the worker's shop (or perhaps the lodge) where it was sculpted to form arches for window and door frames, vaulting, capitals and other carved figures found in gothic stone structures and cathedrals.

The hewers of hard stone were ultimately called "hard hewers." The term "freemason" was reserved for the carving artisans to distinguish and separate them from the brick masons and their haulers, walling and setting crews, as well as the hard hewers of the stone masons.

The term first came into use around the middle of the 16th century. It appears in Charters granted by the King of England in 1604 and among the minutes of the Masons Company of London in the 1620. In Scotland, the usual form was for a "free man" or for a "free-man mason." However, the Lodge of Edinburgh's minutes of 1636 contains the term "frei masones" and in the Melrose version of the Ancient Charges, that term is repeatedly interchanged with the term "free- man mason." From the middle of the same century onward, the terms "mason" and "freemason" are used interchangeably. It is therefore of no surprise that Anderson used "Freemason" in the Constitutions of 1723 and 1738.

In summary, the term was, and hopefully still is used to distinguish those craftsmen who are true artisans, the most highly skilled and respected members of an ancient and honorable society.

Re: 19th District Renewal Night
“Masonic Open House”

Brethren,

The 19th Masonic District of New Jersey is planning on holding an Open House on Friday, May 30, 2003 at 7:00 p.m. Burlington Lodge #32, which is located on Rt. 541 in Burlington Township, just off of Rt. 295, will be the host lodge for this event.

The purpose of the Open House is to explain and impress upon qualified men the purposes and opportunities of Freemasonry. The program will consist of a dinner and presentation. This will not be a high-pressure sales program, but rather an introduction to the purposes of our organization. The guests will have an opportunity to ask questions and pursue potential membership at their own request.

The invited guests will be those names submitted by the general memberships of our lodges. This is your opportunity to recommend a friend, relative, neighbor or co-worker to be introduced to the Fraternity. Our committee will contact the guests with official invitations. We would also expect you to attend with your guests to assist in hosting them.

When speaking to friends about attending this event, please refer to it as an “Open House” and not a “Renewal Night”.

Please feel free to submit the names and addresses of your potential guests for this event using the form below. We look forward to your response.

Fraternally,
Ron Stubbs, Worshipful Master
