From the East

Brethren,

The start of summer is here and we are looking forward to that first Jersey Tomato, corn, and fun in the sun. June still has a lot of work to be done. We have a Master Mason and Fellowcraft Degree, but the good news is that it will be in Grand Lodge room at the Fellowship Center in Burlington which is air conditioned. The Hall Trustees are working hard-painting and cleaning up the lodge. There are renters coming in wich will help us to pay the bills.

On Sunday May 16, the ARC walk was held at the Masonic home. There was a pretty good turn out. RW Charlie Gray from Mt. Holly worked very hard on this event. "Thank you Charlie!"

The Delaware Valley Chapter Order of DeMolay is honoring State Master Councilor Guillermo J. Gonzalez. We are all invited to attend. Brother Ray Flynn would like all our officers to wear their Tuxedos, Aprons, and Jewels. This will be on Tuesday June 8, 2004 at 7:30.

On June 27, 2004 Beverly-Riverside Lodge is scheduled to do the wheel chair push. Let's have a good turn out again. On July 31, 2004 the lodge is planning a Saturday Pig Roast for all the organizations-Masonic, Eastern Star, DeMolay, Rainbow, and there families. This is for everyone. There will be plenty of food and good times. Come out and have fun, for information call me.

Over the summer the Hall Trustees and the FC Club will be doing some work to our hall. Please offer to help if you can. Your Lodge Hall needs your hands.

The year is going fast and we start up again in September. The DLI will be in Pyramid; also Right Worshipful District Deputy Grand Master Russel E. Mitchell Sr. will make his yearly visit. This year it will be formal attire. Have a great summer and remember the Lodge.

The Traveling Man's Corner

Bro. Marcus Carroll, Senior Deacon

The best part about my job is the chance to meet some interesting people every day. Everyone has a story to tell and most will present themselves to an attentive listener. It is also an opportunity to practice and test some of the tenets of the Fraternity. Every once and awhile, I'll stumble across little gems like this one. It was given to me by a Prince Hall Mason, a resident from Willingboro. He was even kind enough to give me the illustrated laminated poster that contains the following message:

WHAT IS A MASON?

A MASON is a MAN and a BROTHER whose TRUST is in GOD. He meets you on the LEVEL and acts upon the SQUARE
 Truth is his COMPASS and he is ever PLUMB. He has a true GRIP on all that is RITE. He is loyal to his ORDER* and whatever his DEGREE he is MASTER of himself. In the LODGE of Life he wears unstained the white LAMB-SKIN of Innocence, From his INITIATION as an ENTERED APPRENTICE he travels ever EAST toward the LIGHT of WISDOM until he receives the final-the DIVINE
 PASSWORD that admits him into the
 INEFFABLE PRESENCE OF THE ETERNAL
 SUPREME GRAND MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE
 GOD

Good stuff. When the Fellowcraft room is finished, you might find this poster hanging on one of the walls, compliments of Bro. William Odom.

Bro. Irving Berlin America's Most Prolific Song Writer

Bro. Irving Berlin was born on May 11, 1888, in Tyumen, Russia as Israel Isidore Baline. He moved to New York City with his family at age 4 and had his name changed to Irving Berlin. After the death of his father he began singing in saloons and street corners to help the family finances and as a teenager, worked as a singing waiter. He became one of America's most prolific songwriters with such songs as: Alexander's Rag Time Band; White Christmas; God Bless America; There's No Business Like Show Business; Puttin' on the Ritz; Blue Skies, Oh, How I Hate to Get Up In The Morning and many others. He could neither read nor write music. Bro. Berlin died September 22, 1989 at New York City at age 101. He was made a Mason at Munn Lodge No. 190, New York City and was active in both the Scottish Rite and as a Shrine Mason. The entire royalties for God Bless America he gave to the Boy Scouts, and those from several other songs to a charity for deprived youth.

Masonic Light

William Ewan, Worshipful Master

The Craft

Are we perfect? No, we never were, nor will we ever be,
Yet our light has been a beacon for all the world to see.

Belonging to a brotherhood that shares a trust in God,
We've left our mark upon the world, wherever we have trod.

Founded in antiquity and lasting through the years,
A fraternity of friendship, a brotherhood of peers.

From the moment we are raised, until we are deceased,
We always have the memory of our journey to the East.

When I knelt before the altar and then was brought to light,
I looked upon the Bible and the brothers in my sight.

My brothers never left my side through many trying days.
They made my life much richer in so many different ways.

I've felt the grip of brotherhood while traveling o'er the land.
That grip of Master Mason that is passed from hand to hand.

I have felt the nervous handshake of a brother newly raised.
And the cold hand in a hospice on a brother's final days.

I have labored in the quarries for I felt the cause was just.
Now I wear this purple apron and I view it as a trust.

An apron's just a piece of cloth, although it's worn with pride.
It's what it represents that counts a brotherhood worldwide

By R. W. William E. Ogren
Wadsworth Lodge #417, Albany, NY

The poem was written for the occasion of his Apron presentation as Grand Rep. to the Grand Lodge of China for the Grand Lodge of New York.

Bros. Lewis and Clark Start Their Famed Cross-Country Expedition

ON May 14, 1804, Bro. Meriwether Lewis and Captain and Bro. William Clark left St. Louis, MO to begin their search for a route to the Pacific Ocean as charged by President Thomas Jefferson. They arrived at the Pacific coast of Oregon in November, 1805, and returned to St. Louis, September 23, 1806. Bro. Lewis was a member of Door to Virtue Lodge No. 44. Albemarle County, VA.. That Lodge went out of existence in 1801 and is believed that Bro. Lewis, along with many others, transferred to Widow's Son Lodge No. 60, Charlottesville, VA. He died of gunshot wounds, October 8, 1809. It is not known whether he was robbed, killed or had committed suicide. He had long been subject to attacks of depression and hypochondria. Bro. William Clark was a member of St. Louis Lodge No. 111 (under Pennsylvania Charter).; He died September 1, 1838, in St. Louis, and was buried in Bellfontaine Cemetery there with Masonic honors. A large monument with the square and compasses stands over his grave.

Hall Trustee News

Good News Brethren, the Hall rental business is beginning to pick up! We have just about every Saturday in June rented out. This is good news because, with more rentals, the Hall will become more self-sufficient and the burden on the Lodge and the OES will decrease.

With this increase in rentals will come a little more work and cooperation from the brethren. There is a hall usage calendar hanging in the office. If you require the use of the Hall for personal reasons, please consult this calendar. If the date appears to be free, please contact WB Tom Phipps or any of the Hall Trustees to inquire if the date is truly free. Bro. Tom keeps the official calendar.

If there is Hall usage on a particular day, please stay away! Our rental contract states that the Hall Trustees will ensure that the Hall is free from other use the day of the renter's event. Your cooperation is essential in this.

We will also need a number of brethren to act as sitters on days the event is held. Only one brother is required per event. The sitter would earn part of the rental free for his work that day. A sitter will be required to be there to answer any of the renter's questions or remedy problems.

Special thanks to the Worshipful Master and Bro. Cal Stevenson for installing the new toilets in the restrooms. I am sure that the new additions will make that bit of our lodge experience that much more pleasant!

Also thanks to Bro. John Flaherty for taking on the maintenance of our vast lawn. His help will aid the Trustees in trimming our budget for the year.

We have lots planned for the summer months. Renovation of the OES/Rainbow closet and moving of the Organ are just two of the projects. We can use your able bodies, so don't be shy and ask a Hall Trustee how you can help.

The Annihilation of Freemasonry

By Sven G. Lunden – The American Mercury, 1941

There is only one group of men whom the Nazis and the Fascists hate more than the Jews. They are the Freemasons.

In Italy, indeed, the anti-Jewish feeling is of recent vintage and largely artificial, whereas the blackshirt hatred of Freemasonry is old and deep. In their own countries Hitler and Mussolini inaugurated their respective reigns with outrages against Masons and Masonic institutions, and they have never relaxed the systematic persecution.

Now Nazi conquests of other European nations -- whether by invasion of forcible "persuasion" -- are followed automatically by hostile measures against Freemasons. From Norway to the Balkans, the progress of the Swastika has brought outlawry, and often vandalism and death in its wake for all Masons. The anti-Semitic excesses have been widely reported, the anti-Catholic outrages have had considerable publicity, but the merciless totalitarian assaults on Freemasonry have not receive a tithe of the world-wide attention they richly merit. They are practically an unknown chapter.

Nazi and Fascist publications leave no doubt of their belief that all evil in the world, from the high mortality rate among the dinner guests of the Borgias down to the Versailles Treaty, has been the work of Freemasons, alone or with the help of Israel. In "Mein Kampf", Hitler merges his twin phobias:

"The general pacifistic paralyzation of the national instinct of self-preservation, introduced into the circles of the so-called 'intelligentsia' by Freemasonry, is transmitted to the great masses, but above all to the bourgeoisie, by the activity of the great press, which today is always Jewish."

And one of the first official statements made by Hermann Goering in his capacity as Prime Minister of Prussia, when the Nazis took over power in 1933, was that "in National Socialist Germany there is no place for Freemasonry." That view was not news. It had run through all the Nazi propaganda and had been an intrinsic part of the Fascist attitude in Mussolini's realm.

After the German debacle of 1918, the frustrated man who had been the virtual master of Germany's destinies, General Erich Ludendorff, sought an outlet for his bitterness in diatribes against Freemasonry. Right up to his death, Ludendorff devoted himself wholly to propaganda intended to prove that the war, the ensuing German revolution, and most other world ills had been the doing of the Masons. He published a pamphlet entitled "Annihilation of Freemasonry Through the Revelation of Its Secrets" wherein the so-called secrets of Freemasonry were "revealed" for the hundredth time since the foundation of the Order in 1717, without, however, annihilating Masonry.

The senile general's main thesis was that Freemasonry is a Jewish device intended to make "artificial Jews." On one page the hand that had led Germany to disaster in 1918 wrote: "It is cheating the people to fight the Jew while allowing his auxiliary troop, Freemasonry ... to function."

The Nazis continued where Ludendorff left off. But others had preceded them in Mason-baiting. In 1917, as one of their acts, the Bolsheviks dissolved all lodges in Russia. In 1919, when Bela Kun proclaimed the dictatorship of the proletariat in Hungary, one of his first decrees ordered the dissolution of Masonic lodges. In 1925, Spain's first dictator of this generation, General Primo de Rivera, ordered the abolition of Freemasonry in his country.

Benito Mussolini went about the same business more methodically. Having established his regime, Il Duce proceeded step by step to exterminate the lodges and the influence of Italian Freemasonry. Even the Nazi apostle, Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, has admitted in his book "Masonic World Policies" that the Freemasons had been the creators of the united democratic Kingdom of Italy. But this did not win them any mitigation of horrors at the hands of ultra-patriotic Fascists. In 1924, Mussolini decreed that every member of his Fascist Party who was a Mason must abandon one or the other organization. Thereupon General Cappello, one of the most prominent Fascists, who had held the post of Deputy Grand Master of Grande Oriente, Italy's leading Grand Lodge, gave up membership in Fascism rather than betray his Masonic ideals. He was to pay dearly for this loyalty. Less than a year later, he was charged with complicity in an attempt on Mussolini's life. It was a palpable frame-up by an OVRA stool pigeon name Quaglia, but General Cappello was sentenced to thirty years in prison, where he probably still lingers.

In the summer of 1925, Mussolini got around to dissolving Italian Freemasonry. In an open letter to Il Duce, the Grand Master of the Grande Oriente, Domizio Torrigiani, had the courage to stand up for democracy and freedom of thought. The price he paid was exile to the Lipari islands. After nearly going blind there, he died soon afterwards. Hundreds of other prominent Masons shared the harsh Lipari exile with him.

At the peak of the anti-Mason agitation, in 1925-27, blackshirt strong-arm squads looted the homes of well-known Masons in Milan, Florence and other cities, and murdered at least 100 of them.

Next Month....The Nazis Acted more Swiftly to Annihilate Freemasonry.
