From the East

Brethren,

Fall has arrived. Everywhere you look there are signs. There are pumpkins, mums, and cornstalks all around. September was a busy month. First, we had our Official Visit by RW Russell E. Mitchell, Sr. As most of you know this made me very nervous, but we all did a great job. Congratulations on a job well done. We then had two new Brothers complete their Master Mason examination. Let's remember to make our new brothers feel welcome in our Lodge. Beverly-Riverside Lodge also, raised five more members to Sublime Master Mason. Remember to reach out to all our new Brothers. This is so important. After all, would you come back if you didn't feel welcome?

On October 5, the DLI will be in Pemberton. It is very important that ALL OFFICERS attend. DLI stands for District Lodge of Instruction. I don't feel everyone really understands the importance of attending these meetings. These meetings are to help all of us in our ritual work. Mark your calendar now. If there is anyone who would like to attend and would like to car pool just let me know. We can all meet at the Lodge and ride together.

October 9 is our Oktoberfest. Riverside Chapter OES and the Fellowcraft Club are hosting this event together. There will be lots of good food and fellowship. This is for all ages. The doors open at 4:00 PM. Come on out and see some of your old friends and make some new friends. I have tickets, so just give me a call.

October 14th Beverly-Riverside Lodge is hosting a Reception for our Grand Officers. We will be honoring RW Lucian D. Craig – Grand Sword Bearer and RW Raymond C. Flynn, Jr. – Grand Tyler. All officers are required to attend. It would be great if many of our members would attend also. The Grand Master and his Line Officers will be present. There will be a dinner before. For reservations please contact me. Wouldn't it be nice to have many of our members present to support our Grand Officers?

October 21 will be our Past Masters Night. There will be a dinner before our meeting. I would like Past Masters to fill chairs and run the meeting for the night. This will be fun for them to remember how much work and time it takes to make a good lodge great. We will also be discussing dues for next year and suspensions of brothers for NPD.

The Lodge room has six new ceiling fans to keep us cool on those hot nights. It makes a big difference. W. Brother Parzyck with the help of others worked in the heat to get them up and running. Thank you Vince!!

W. Brother Matt Korang has been working hard in the Fellowcraft Room but, he still needs help. When this room is finished it will be a place to go and have fellowship and to enjoy the library.

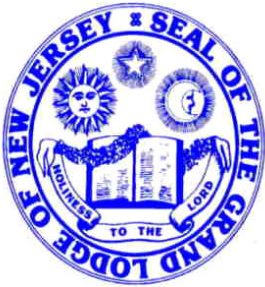

Come out and see what's new in your lodge – We'd love to see you.

The Traveling Man's Corner – Antique Collecting

WB Matthew Korang, PM

Do you have anything old that you cherish? I was listening to the radio the other day and the radio hosts were speaking about a piece of baseball memorabilia. They spoke about the value of such an item and how much it meant for that person to actually hold and “own” an item that was used by a past famous athlete.

This led me to think about antiques and valuable items that I own. I have a few, but I am not classified as an antique collector by any means. I have collected things in the past. Things that I thought would be valuable one day. These range from things like beer cans to fossils to comic books.

I was cruising ebay the other day. For those of you not Internet savvy, ebay is an online auction house where ordinary folk and business people sell items of all kinds of interests. I have purchased many Masonic items on ebay. Anyway, I was bored and decide to check out what kind of price some of my old comic books would fetch. Needless to say, I thought they would command a much higher price. What a disappointment.

But I did find an object I would have loved to own. It was a hand drawn piece of art from one of my favorite artists. It was a quick sketch of a character on what looked like a napkin. Something trivial, but since it was something that I enjoyed years ago and the artist had recently passed, I thought “wouldn't that be neat to own.” I would have really enjoyed owning that piece of something from that “famous” person.

I thought recently, how exciting it would be to own a letter written by one of our founding fathers. Something written by Patrick Henry or John Paul Jones. A piece of metal work created by Paul Revere. An original printing of a work from Franklin.

What if you had the chance to own something that was used or owned by someone famous or historic? What if you could own a piece of history? Something used or owned by someone like Washington or Jefferson. Maybe a letter written by Hamilton, Adams, or Lincoln. Would you cherish such an item?

If you had something that was owned and used by someone the likes of Washington, you would probably consider it a real treasure. You would make sure it was kept safe and secure. Maybe you would proudly show it once in a while to special people. Perhaps you would create a special holder or display case for your cherished item. No matter what the circumstance, you would take the utmost care with the item to make sure it was safe.

Well, we all have something that was owned by Washington, Franklin, Revere, and Hancock. We use something used by Patrick Henry, Lafayette, Teddy Roosevelt and Andrew Jackson. Something cherished by Neil Armstrong, Harry Truman, Arnold Palmer and Ty Cobb. That something is our ritual.

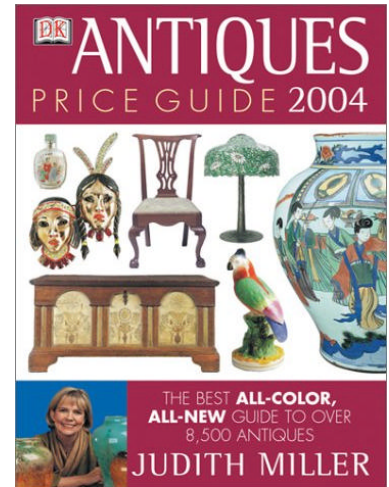

These founding fathers and famous men all used the same ritual we use today. When our officers take a candidate into the Lodge for the first time, you can only imagine that Washington was taken into the old Lodge at Fredericksburg in essentially the same way. When a candidate kneels at our altar you can all but picture Hamilton, Revere, Jones, Lafayette, Truman, Cobb, and Armstrong all kneeling and taking an oath that is basically the same as we give our new brothers today.

All of these great thinkers and leaders saw our ritual for what it is - a great truth. They saw it as a series of life rules that if practiced, would only lead to good things and their personal betterment. They saw that it must not only be practiced, it must be handled and kept whole and pure.

Our ritual is something that is priceless to us. It is an item from antiquity. It has been lovingly cared for and passed down from Mason to Mason through the generations. An antique heirloom that we are entrusted to hold and pass on to the next generation.

As officers and members of a Masonic Lodge, it is imperative that we take the utmost care with our ritual. We have all heard the mumbles and murmurs coming from the sidelines when a mistake is made by an officer on the Lodge Floor. Is this criticism? For some maybe, but it also shows that the sideliners, be they Past Masters or White Aprons, care for the ritual being performed. Grand Lodge takes great steps to ensure that our ritual remains pure. We have District Deputies and District Ritual Instructors that drill each Lodge every month to make sure the ritual is performed and passed on correctly. We all have to make sure we care for this priceless item. Luckily, we don't only have to care for it, we get to use it!

When you come out to our next meeting or degree night, take another look at our ritual. Look at it in a different light. It is something that was very important to many great people through the centuries and is something that should be priceless to you. It is something we all need to make sure is kept pure for the next generation to have and care for.

Brother Ellis writes, "I have taken ideas from poems which I have seen in various Lodges and developed them to form this one which is presented to a Candidate after receiving his Third Degree."

TO BE A BROTHER

By Jim Ellis

*Some Brothers keep their Lodges strong
While others join and just belong
Some dig right in and serve with pride
Some go along just for the ride.*

*Some volunteer to do their share
While some lie back and jus don't care
On meeting nights some always show
While others are those who just don't go.*

*Some are proud to be involved
And work to get our problems solved
Some do their best, some build, some make
Some never give but always take.*

*Some lag behind, some let thins go
Some never help their Lodge to grow
Some drag, some pull, some don't, and some do
Consider which of these you are.*

*You've had your Third in 827
You really have been made in Heaven.
You're one of us, we'll have a laugh
But keep this Lodge on its straight path.*

*One thing I'll say and it is Please
Don't disappear now you've had Three Degrees
You're too important to this Lodge
Your duties you must never dodge.*

*You're a Master Mason from Armadale
I hope that that later you'll tell the tale
Of how you did your very best
To keep this Lodge up with the rest.*

The Old Past Master – Understanding

Carl H. Claudy, 33°

"I have been a Mason for a year now," remarked the Young Brother to the Old Past Master. "While I find a great deal in Masonry to enjoy and like the fellows and all that, I am more or less in the dark as to what good Masonry really is in the world. I don't mean I can't appreciate its charity or its fellowship, but it seems to me that I don't get much out of it. I can't really see why it has any function outside of the relationship we enjoy in the Lodge and the charitable acts we do.

"I think I could win an argument about you" smiled the Past Master.

"An argument about me?"

"Yes. You say you have been a Master Mason for a year. I think I could prove to the satisfaction of a jury of your peers, who would not need to be Master Masons, that while you are a Lodge member in good standing, you are not a Master Mason."

"I don't think I quite understand," puzzled the Young Mason. "I was quite surely initiated, passed, and raised. I have my certificate and my good standing card. I attend Lodge regularly. I do what work I am assigned. If that isn't being a Master Mason, what is?"

"You have the body but not the spirit," retorted the Old Past Master. "You eat the husks and disregard the kernel. You know the ritual and fail to understand its meaning. You carry the documents, but for you they attest but an empty form. You do not understand the first underlying principle, which makes Masonry the great force she is. And yet, in spite of it, you enjoy her blessings, which is one of her miracles. A man may love and profit by what he does not comprehend."

"I just don't understand you at all. I am sure I am a good Mason."

"No man is a good Mason who thinks the Fraternity has no function beyond pleasant association in the Lodge and charity. There are thousands of Masons who seldom see the inside of a Lodge and, therefore, miss the fellowship. There are thousands who never need or support her charity and so never come in contact with one of its many features. Yet these may take freely and largely from the treasure house which is Masonry."

"Masonry my young friend, is an opportunity. It gives a man a chance to do and to be, among the world of men, something he otherwise could not attain. No man kneels at the altar of Masonry and rises again the same man. At the altar, something is taken from him never to return-his feelings of living for himself alone. Be he ever so selfish, ever so self-centered, ever so much an individualist, at the altar he leaves behind him some of the dross of his purely profane make-up."

"No man kneels at the altar of Masonry and rises the same man because, in the place where the dross and selfish were, is put a little of the most Divine spark which men may see. Where was the self-interest is put an interest in others. Where was the egotism is put love for one's fellow man. You say that the 'Fraternity has no function'. Man, the Fraternity performs the greatest function of any institution at work among men in that it provides a common meeting ground where all of us--be our creed, our social position, our wealth, our ideas, our station in life what they may--may meet and understand one another."

"What caused the Civil War? Failure of one people to understand another and an inequality of men which this country could not endure. What caused the Great War? Class hatred. What is the greatest leveler of class in the world? Masonry. Where is the only place in which a capitalist and laborer, socialist and democrat, fundamentalist and modernist, Jew and Gentile, sophisticated and simple alike meet and forget their differences In a Masonic Lodge, through the influence of Masonry. Masonry, which opens her portals to men because they are men, not because they are wealthy or wise or foolish or great or small but because they seek the brotherhood which only she can give."

"Masonry has no function? Why, son, the function of charity, great as it is, is the least of the things Masonry does. The fellowship in the Lodge, beautiful as it is, is at best not much more than one can get in any good club, association, or organization. These are the beauties of Masonry, but they are also beauties of other organizations. The great fundamental beauty of Masonry is all her own. She, and only she, stretches a kindly and loving hand around the world, uniting millions in a bond too strong for breaking. Time has demonstrated that Masonry is too strong for war, too strong for hate, too strong for jealousy and fear. The worst of men have used the strongest of means and have but pushed Masonry to one side for the moment; not all their efforts have broken her, or ever will!"

"Masonry gives us all a chance to do and to be; to do a little, however humble the part, in making the world better; to be a little larger, a little fuller in our lives, a little nearer to the G.A.O.T.U. And unless a man understands this, believes it, takes it to his heart, and lives it in his daily life, and strives to show it forth to others in his every act-unless he live and love and labor in his Masonry-I say he is no Master Mason; aye, though he belong to all Rites and carry all cards, though he be hung as a Christmas tree with jewels and pins, though he be an officer in all Bodies. But the man who has it in his heart and sees in Masonry the chance to be in reality what he has sworn he would be, a brother to his fellow Masons, is a Master Mason though he be raised but tonight, belongs to no body but his Blue Lodge, and be too poor to buy and wear a single pin."

The Young Brother, looking down, unfastened the emblem from his coat lapel and handed it to the Old Past Master. "Of course, you are right" he said, lowly. "Here is my pin. Don't give it back to me until you think I am worthy to wear it."

The Old Past Master smiled. "I think you would better put it back now," he answered gently. "None are more fit to wear the Square and Compasses than those who know themselves unworthy, for they are those who strive to be real Masons."

Notice

The Lodge will be discussing Dues for the coming year and the suspension of brothers for non-payment of dues (NPD) at the October Regular Communication.
