From the East

Brethren,

September is here and it is hard to believe that the summer is coming to an end.

I hope everyone had a happy and healthy summer. Our Masonic year is coming to an end also.

In July, we had our first annual "Pig-Nic". A terrific time was had by all who attended. We had Jerry Williams and Lou Craig at the grills cooking hamburgers and hot dogs. Tim Cole and I were in the kitchen carving the pig. The food was delicious. A big thank you to the Eastern Star for the delicious potato salad and to all those who brought desserts. Many of the guys were playing horseshoes while the ladies got to know each other. All the kids had a great time, too. Just ask one how they like swimming in the coolers. BRRRRRRRRRR. Let's make this an annual event!!

This summer many of the lodge members have been working hard cleaning up our building and getting everything ready for the fall. New fans are being installed in the lodge room, some painting has been done, and many other jobs are in the works. Extra hands are always welcome. A great big THANK-YOU to everyone who helped with the all the work. We have to keep our building in tip top shape.

The Fellowcraft Room is coming along nicely. We are in the process of painting, hanging new lights, and installing new ceiling fans. Members of the Fellowcraft Club spent a day cleaning out – getting rid of stuff that had just found it's way into the Fellowcraft Room. This room, when finished, will be used by the Fellowcraft Club for fellowship and ritual instruction. Anyone interested in joining the Fellowcraft Club is welcome. Just ask one of its members!!

On October 14th Beverly-Riverside Lodge will be hosting a reception honoring our Grand Officers. Our lodge is very fortunate to have two Grand Officers this year.

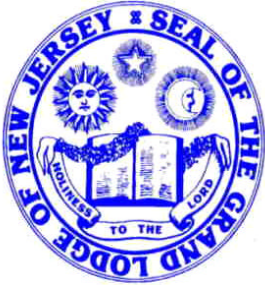

Grand Sword Bearer: Lucian D. Craig and Grand Tyler: Raymond C. Flynn, Jr. I hope everyone will try and attend this event. Let's support our own members. Beverly-Riverside Lodge is also home to the 19th Districts Ritual Instructor – RW Firman H. Abdill, Jr.

We have five new brethren who will be raised to become a Master Mason this month. How about extending the hand of friendship to all these men as they become part of our family. That's a total of 12 new brothers this year – isn't that great!!

On October 9th, Eastern Star and the Fellowcraft Club will be hosting an Octoberfest.

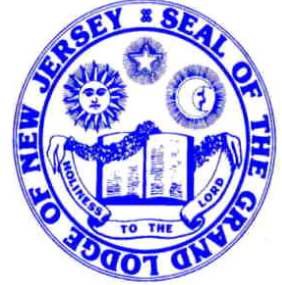

Mark your calendar now. We all had a great time last March; let's make this event even better. Bring your family and friends!!

The Traveling Man's Corner

WB Bernard Berkowitz, PM

WHERE HAVE ALL THE BROTHERS GONE????????????????

When I joined the LODGE it was known as Riverside Lodge #187 F & AM. There are others who joined Beverly Lodge #107 F & AM. In the year 2000, the two LODGES merged into ONE LODGE known as BEVERLY-RIVERSIDE LODGE #107 F & AM.

This move enabled the two LODGES to continue to function and remain a part of the two communities. The new LODGE continues to grow, but a major problem still exists.

WHERE HAVE ALL THE BROTHERS GONE????????????????

I know that we all can't make every meeting, but we should be able to come out once in awhile. It's a shame to see our new members being entered, passed and raised and only meeting less than 10% of our BROTHERS. My BROTHER this is a problem that can only be corrected by YOU.

Remember why you joined your LODGE in the first place. Hopefully it was for the BROTHERHOOD, the FELLOWSHIP and to be known as a MASON.

A MASON is a man of good character, a man of honor, a man who travels on the level and a man who will travel and supports his LODGE however he can.

Remember the only difference in the LODGE today for the former RIVERSIDE members is the name. The building is the same and still located on Chester Ave. in Riverside. The number remains 107 for the former BEVERLY members, but meetings are held in the LODGE building in RIVERSIDE.

The combining of the two LODGES has been a plus as it has allowed us to keep our LODGES alive. But YOU are needed to keep it growing. The only way to the LODGE will survive is for you to attend a few meetings and help out when you can and not ignore the LODGE because its name is different or not in the old building.

Please answer my Question. WHERE HAVE ALL THE BROTHERS GONE???

I am now a PROUD member of BEVERLY-RIVERSIDE LODGE #107 F & AM.

2004 Pig-Nic was a HUGE success! See more pictures on page 7.

Masonic Light

William Ewan, Worshipful Master

David Wilford, the Worshipful Master of Pangbourne Lodge # 4381 in the province of Berkshire, England writes:

“The following was in a Masonic News Letter in the Autumn of 1988 and whilst it is not strictly poetry, it sums up Freemasonry in a very poetic way – at least for me.”

WHAT IS FREEMASONRY

I am the past, present and future – I belong to all ages.

I circle the globe and I stand at the crossroads of the world.

I am steeped in tradition and I tread the page of history.

I have rites and words that have beauty, sympathy and rhythm.

I have knowledge, wisdom and secrets locked in my bosom, which I give to men who come desiring me in their hearts.

I place upon my pedestal holy writ and I turn to God in prayer.

I speculate with all the tools of operative masonry and I translate their use into moral and spiritual building.

I await free men of mature age, sound judgment and strict morals, and of good report – but I solicit none.

I admit them of their own free will and accord and teach them brotherhood and charity.

I travel the roads of peace and harmony and I walk in the ways of charity.

I render aid to the poor, the sick and the distressed.

I answer the cry of the orphan and sustain the widow and the aged.

I am a way of life which teaches immortality.

I lead men from darkness to light.

I AM FREEMASONRY!!
