YOUR FOREST RANGERS

Ernie Riddle, Chief Ranger and Squad leaders C.V. Brown, J.D. Cook and Geo. MacKay have been meeting with a faithful group of Cedars each Wed. eve. in the Recreation Cabin at Hillandale and have been going through formations and drills to the stacato of "Halt" "To the rear march" "Attention" et al. ad infinitum and all that stuff.

In this group have been, F.A. Cisar, W.C. Clarke J.J. Degen, W.C. DeNeane, W.E. Disney, F.E. Floyd, C.E. Fink, O.H. Geedy, O.L. Hardesty, F.H. Heideck, H.H. Hobbs, W.O. Hill, W.E. Jeans, E.C. Johnson, C.H. Outten A.R. Williams and J.R. Britt.

We are all working hard to prepare ourselves for a creditable performance with the Prolog and Royal Court and for the parade at the Convention.

We thank our J.D.G.T.C. Geo. Heilman for his attendance, encouragement and advice at these meetings. Regular attendance of all Rangers is a necessity in order that we may be well prepared and trained for the coming June Ceremonial.

Colorful green and white uniforms and yellow pyramids are furnished to those Cedars, who by faithful and regular attendance have acquired proficiency in the drills and qualified as Rangers. We sincerely hope that every Cedar now a Ranger will remain in the squad and become a true and tried Ranger, standing upright, straight and loyal in the service of Montgomery Forest.

Any Cedar may volunteer for service by seeing Ernie Riddle at the meeting. J. Britt.
