The Grand Tall 3

Sez!

Dear Bro. Cedars:

(Please read carefully)

The four Forests in District #20 have been assigned to lead the 2nd Division in the parade at Atlantic City. There will be no waiting in line this time. We will form right on the Boardwalk and start to move as soon as the parade starts and we will be about the 4th Forest to finish first in the parade so that we will be able to see almost the entire parade. We will march as a district in the following order: 139 - 136 - 104 - 134. The parade will start promptly at 2:30 PM and all units must be in position at 2: PM

In this message, let's talk about new prospects. Without plenty of good prospects a Forest will not grow. How to get prospects is a problem for many of us. Have you noticed that the most successful are the Cedars who are well known? How do they know so many people? The answer is simple. They "CIRCULATE". They belong to citizens associations, church groups, they attend lodge meetings and other masonic clubs and activities. They ask every mason they meet, "Are you a Tall Cedar?" If his answer is no, they ask, "Why not?" The reply is usually, "I don't know." That is your cue. Show a real interest in him. Talk about our units, how good he would look in one of the uniforms. Give him a signed petition and tell him about our National Objective and the good times we have.

Next meeting will be Past Grand Tall's Night. Let's turn out and see how much of the work they still remember.

By the way -- What happened to my box of salt after the last meeting?

See you at the May 16th meeting and at Atlantic City.

"YOU BET"

Cedarly,

Myron.

MILLER FLIES AGAIN

The Echo has just learned that our old friend J. Melvin (Skinny) Miller, who was one of our first Trustees, has just finished a course in instrument flying. This along with his commercial pilots license has ment a lot of work for him and the Echo offers its congratulations. We know his wife, Jean, is glad it is all over and that she will be able to see her husband on week ends from now on.

HOORAY FOR THE SCRIBE'S WIFE!

The Echo wants to thank the Scribe and his wife, Peg, for doing all the folding etc. to get the last edition out. We also understand that Peg had all the covers folded for Ernie when he got home from work one night.

Fellows — Don't shoot your wife. Send her an orchid. Take her to dinner and a show. The shock will kill her!

A STRIKING SIDONIAN DEGREE

The following Cedars got everything that was coming to them at the last meeting: Brothers — Barker, Nicholas, Buhrmaster, Walter, Cole, Bolton, Parker, Stout, Broomall, Tate, Cain, Pudleiner, Miller, Annis and Smith.

Our very best wishes to you all. You were good sports.

"I noticed that your daughter didn't get home until 1:00 A.M. this morning. My Sally was in by eleven."

"I know, but you see, my daughter WALKED home!"

Take pages 4 & 5 with you to the convention.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE BY GOSH!

The Echo is going to use this little bit of space for a big pat on the back. There is a BIG job being done in the Forest in a BIG way an the Echo thinks it is about time it took time to tell about it. Much of the successful year the Forest has had so far is due to the hard work of our Grand Tall and to lots of assistance from his good wife, Margaret. Congratulations to a swell team!

New Arrivals 7

The following new members were initiated at the April meeting.

Harold G. Pudleiner, Jr.; Charles T. Smith
Harry G. Annis, Jr.; Alfred R. Robson,

Fun is like life insurance. The older you get, the more it costs.

SCRIBE'S CORNER

Don't forget, Brother Tall Cedars, in order to register at the Supreme Forest Convention (and you must register if you want to enjoy its many benefits and privileges) it is necessary to show your current Dues Card. Better check and see if you have your 1953 card. I still have a few in my files. Yours?
