Montgomery Forest No. 134

The GRAND TALL SEA:

It looks as though we are coming into the home stretch. The summer months have slipped away and we are again ready to resume our fall activities with so many interesting events on our calander, I don't see why any Cedar will want to miss any of them. There are only four meetings left for the year and I would like to see a good turnout for all of them.

We are looking forward to our J.D.G.T.C. night and I know that Herman will do a bang up job. So come on out boys and get a preview of what is to come later.

Have you put your name on the Scotchman's list yet? We are planning big things for the Oct. Ceremonial. Now is the time to bring in that Mason friend of yours. We are looking for a big class.

The boat ride with Capitol Forest was a big success and everyone who went had a swell time. The committee on arrangements is to be congratulated.

In closing, I can think of no better way than to wish our S.D.G.T.C. Arthur Hart a hasty recovery and to say that our thoughts and prayers are with him. We are all very anxious to have him back on the job real soon. We have sure missed him.

Cedarly yours,

Myron

G.T.C.

Petitions! Petitions! Petitions!

WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE
THE SCRIBE SWAMPED WITH PETITIONS JUST LIKE THIS!

How many do you have for the September meeting?

Scout around and help us to reach the 100 mark before the first of the year.

WE ONLY NEED 61 TO REACH IT.

We have a big Ceremonial coming up in October with a visit from the Supreme Forest so let's get busy and get those petitions in the hands of our Mason friends.

ANYTIME YOU SIGN UP A NEW MEMBER -- -- BRING HIM WITH YOU TO THE NEXT MEETING.

OUR SYMPATHY

Dallas T. Heilman, Father of our Past Grand Tall Cedar, George T. Heilman, passed into the shades of the Eternal Forest on August 14, 1953. It is with the deepest sympathy that Montgomery Forest offers its condolence.

NEW BUGLE CORPS FORMED

A Bugle Corps has been formed
under the direction of Past Grand Tall Layton Miner and their progress will be in evidence at our next meeting. LET'S ALL
BE THERE AND HEAR THESE WINDY BROTHERS!

ANOTHER PARADE PRIZE WON BY YOUR FOREST

Were you in Takoma Park on July 4, 1953? The Officers together with Color Guard and the new Drum Corps and one lone Ranger, H. Lowell Simpser, participated.

Regardless, the appearance of our group in the Fraternal Order Division of the parade was so fine, that a cup was won. This is the second time we have won a cup in the Takoma Park parade.

Some of the thoughtful Brothers, who understood the heat, were awaiting with cooling refreshments for the weary paraders.

CRAB FEAST

June 27, 1953, at the home of Brother Joseph P. Fitzgerald, the Forest had its annual Crab Feast.

A large crowd attended necessitating the call for additional supplies. It is as usual true that not much money was made but one thing sure -- as always-- everyone had a good time.

We would be negligent if we did not publicly recognize the graciousness of our host and hostess the Fitzgeralds, for permitting us the use of their grounds.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR DUES HUH?

The Scribe says he still has a few 1953 dues cards to be picked up. Better check yours. Send $6.00 to him or come to the next meeting and pick it up yourself.

Brothers, we need this money to help pay for the affairs your Forest has had, current expenses etc. so cough up.

DANCES

Make your reservations for the coming dances October 10, and November 28. Open to all Cedars and their friends. Hot Shoppe, Colesville Rd., S.S., Md. See: Herman Engelhardt, the Jr. Depty Grand Tall.

SEPTEMBER 19 MEETING JR. DEPTY. NIGHT

The Jr. Deputy Grand Tall will preside at this meeting and it will be QUIZ NITE. If certain questions are answered correctly, you will receive a prize. There will be movies of the convention at Atlantic City last May and of Hawaii.

For the information of Jimmie Reese and Tom Havell as well as some others, there will be plenty of good REFRESHMENTS. So everybody come and help us to make it a big evening.

COME OUT AND SEE THE NEW UNITS.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE & PARTY

Did you always want to go to a big New Year's Eve party and find the cost prohibited it? Cheer Up! Montgomery Forest is going to sponsor one this year at the Hot Shoppe on Colesville Road. YES!!! You can afford to attend. The cost will be only $10.00 per COUPLE.

This will include dancing, refreshments and a good breakfast together with noise makers and the all the necessary things to bring in the New Year.

Reservations will be limited and they are open to all Cedars and their friends.

First come, first served is the policy, so, plunk your ten spot on the line and give it to our Jr. Deputy Grand Tall, Herman Engelhardt or mail it to him.

It will be a gala affair so a word to the wise should be sufficient.

SICK

SICK

Robert E. Harding, who has been elected to receive the degrees of Cedarism underwent an operation just prior to our June meeting and was unable to be initiated. It is hoped that he has successfully recovered and we will be able to greet him at our Sept. meeting.

James Rennie had a sick spell in June and we trust he has fully recovered by this time.

Our Sr. Depty. Grand Tall, Arthur Hart, has had another operation and is getting along fine in Garfield Memorial Hospital. He is able to receive visitors and would welcome any of the Brothers. He has a private room and can be seen at any time.
