YE GRAND TALL SEZ!

Brother Cedars:

I would like to extend to our new members a great big welcome; I hope all of you will become interested in one of our units as we can use your help. My congratulations to the fellows of the Degree Team and the Sidonian Team, I am sure it was enjoyed by all present.

Please don't forget our May meeting will be held one week early (May 14th) due to Convention falling on our regular meeting night. This meeting will be Junior Deputy Night also Sport Shirt Night. I understand "Jim" has a very nice evening planned for us so come on out and give our Junior Deputy your support.

I hope by this time all of you are ready for Convention, the units have been practicing and I am sure they will bring home some ribbons as they look and sound very good as always.

"Gin" and I are looking forward to seeing you in Atlantic City. We sincerely hope each and everyone of you have a good time. Please drive safely and do come and visit with us at the Galaxie Motel. While in Atlantic City — let us remember our MOTTO — FUN, - FROLIC, - and FELLOWSHIP.

Cedarly,

Bud

Here is hoping that the Grand Tall has some soda!!!

"Are you the bridegroom?"

"No ma'am, I was eliminated in the semi-finals."

MAY meeting is May 14th due to Convention.

JUNE meeting will be June 15th due to our DANCE.

2/
THE SENIOR DEPUTY

Cedars All:

Well fellows, we had one heck of a Ceremonial, everyone should be congratulated. The Prologue and Royal Court was very impressive. I'm sure the candidates left with a sincere appreciation for our degree team led by Preceptor, Carl Green. As always, our Sidonian degree was hilarious. I'm sure the candidates left with a sincere appreciation of the finer points of this degree also.

But the person who should receive all our accolades is G.T.C. Masenheimer for his untiring efforts in assuring that we had a fine group of candidates. No one knows better than I, how much effort he expended in this direction. I take my pyramid off to you "Bud" - I'm sure the Forest joins me in thanking you.

On April 30th at the Bethesda Bowling Lanes, our Forest sponsored a benefit match (duckpins) for the benefit of our National Charitable Objective, Muscular Dystrophy Research. Some of the best bowlers in the Washington Area and in the nation participated. It was well attended and proved to be an entertaining evening.

See you at the May meeting.

Cedarly,

One of our former members and now a member of Nor-Va Forest, "Ray" Foster is slowly improving and it is understood that he will probably be home when this issue of the Echo reaches your home. "Ray" was a pretty sick fellow and we are glad he is on the way to recovery.

Small boy, washing for supper, to mother, "Gee whiz! I'm only going to eat -- not operate on somebody's brain."

Don't Forget --- May meeting moved up to the 14th.

Brothers:

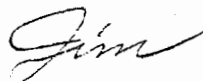

I want to first thank Junior Deputy "Bob" Smith for allowing me to hold down his spot at Prince Georges Forest meeting in March. It was a lot of fun and a real pleasure.

Just a word about our Ceremonial in April. The Degree teams did themselves proud and it sure was great to see those candidates standing there. I hope the Brothers will excuse me for saying so, but all I could see was medium rare steaks, courtesy of G.T. C. "Tom" Marlow of Prince Georges Forest and his Officers.

Well, the May meeting is when "Deputy Dog" gets his feet wet -- it's Junior Deputy Night. Remember also, it is sport shirt night and bring the Mrs. We have arranged with Southern Maryland Forest to bring the films they made of last year's Convention. It's in color and sound and I understand it's an outstanding film.

Last, but not least, DON'T forget May 19-20-21st: It's Convention time again and we will see you there at Atlantic City.

Cedarly,

The policeman asked the dazed man sitting at the wheel of a wrecked automobile: "How'd this happen?"

The man sat stunned for a few minutes, then pointing to the back seat, answered: "My wife fell asleep!"

A spendthrift young lady went into a bank and announced that she would like to open a joint bank account. "With whom?" asked the teller.

"That's a silly question," answered the gal. "With someone who has money naturally!"

CONVENTION TIME - ATLANTIC CITY - May 19-20-21-22.

Have you paid your reservations in full?

Let us make it a real big weekend at the GALAXIE!!!

BOWLING

The bowling tournament covered in the last issue of the Echo was held at the Bethesda Bowling Lanes on Saturday, April 30th as scheduled. The tournament was a complete success and the thanks go to none other than our own Al Fleisher. He organized this tournament for the purpose of raising money for the Tall Cedars National Charitable Objective, Muscular Dystrophy Research. Other thanks go to Mr. Troiana for the donations of the games, the bowling bag and the gift of $25.00 toward the Muscular Dystrophy Fund.

I would like to thank the Tulford's All Star Ladies' team who were the winners and the Pepsi-Cola All Star Ladies' team, the loser; also the shortest mens' team who won and the tallest mens' team for doing a great job toward the fund raising project. Last, but not least what would we have done without our Clowns, who also did a wonderful job.

It was great to see so many out attending the bowling tournament. It was due to these many things that made it such a success.

Over $134.00 was collected for Muscular Dystrophy. There were two prizes drawn and guess who the winners were; Grand Tall Cedar's, Tay Marlow of Prince Georges Forest won the bowling balls and the wife of our own Deputy Dog, Shirley Forder won the bowling bag.

Your Muscular Dystrophy Chairman

Edna B.

We were saddened to hear of the death of Brother Domchick's Father. The Forest expresses their sympathy to those bereaved.

CEGAR DIGEST

The Cedar Digest devoted the Front page of this issue to Montgomery Forest and Prince Georges Forest for their entertainment of the retarded children of Prince Georges and Montgomery Counties.

UNIFORMED BODIES

Brother Cedars:

I want to remind you of the coming events planned by the Uniformed Bodies of your Forest. The first will be a costume Dance on June 18th at the K of C Hall, Rosensteel Council, Forest Glen Road, Silver Spring. The theme will be the "Big Top". More of this in the June Echo.

On July 4th, after the Takoma Park Parade, we will have our annual Beef Roast at the American Legion on Powder Mill Road. August 20th, the same place will be the scene of the Crab Feast and following that, an Oyster Roast on October 1st. Get yourself all set for these affairs and help make them a success.

All new members coming into the Forest during 1966 will receive a paid up Uniform Bodies dues card.

Our next meeting is May 12th, second Thursday at 8:00 p.m. at "Pop" Dietles. Hope you can make it. I would like to see the new Forest members there. The address is in the Montgomery Hills shopping center.

Cedarly,

Ed-----
MONTGOMERY CEDAR CLUB, INC.

The Board of Directors of the newly revived Montgomery Cedar Club, Inc. have had regular meetings with the newly elected President, J. Winston Blacklock. It is proposed to have a brochure issued in the near future outlining the organization and its plans for the future.

Two drunks wandered into a zoo and stopped in front of the lion's cage. They stood watching and suddenly the animal let out a roar.

"G'mon, let's go," said one of the men.

"Go ahead if you want," replied the other. "I'm gonna stay for the movie."

ATTEND YOU FOREST MEETINGS

Montgomery Forest #134 was presented with a check in the amount of $50.00 for a Life Membership in the name of Bethel #27, JOB's Daughters of Gaithersburg. Thanks a lot for the donation. It surely goes to a worthy cause.

-365- CLUB

Here are the members to date:

The 365 Club is growing--is your name on the List?

A penny a day for a year or 365 pennies or $3.65 places your name on this list for 1966. Send your money to the Scribe or to the Muscular Dystrophy Chairman, Eddie Berardi.

FLASH!!

FLASH!!!

FLASH!!!

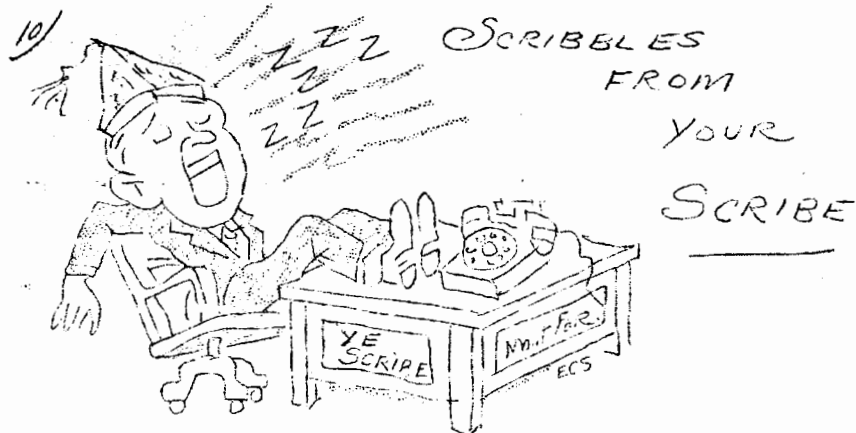

It doesn't pay to be a Scribe. Prince Georges has had three within a year, losing two by death. Now what happens, Montgomery Forest's Scribe Jack Scribble Arnold is in Suburban Hospital, Room 437 with a banged up hand which he caught in some machinery. --- as Jack would say -- Right hand at that. Come on jack, we are pulling for you.

VALVE OIL FROM THE PISTON BUGLE -----

Gee, we sure need some horn men. Only 5 horns will be marching at Convention with 4 snares, four tenors, three, maybe four bells, bass and cymbals.

Billy Wolfe is getting better, so let him hear from you.

We still meet at 8 p.m. the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays, with coffee and hot chocolate.

Oh Boy. Five new candidates. That's good. Welcome to the Forest, boys —

Billy Joe Walker, hailing from Liberty Lodge in Baltimore.

James F. Riddle, hailing from Warren G. Harding Lodge of Washington.

Miles D. Simmons, hailing from Justice Lodge of Washington.

Thomas J. Hardman, hailing from Animas Lodge of Farmington, N. Mexico.

Henry P. Wheeler III, hailing from William R. Singleton Lodge of Washington.

And that was a lot of degree work the new boys saw, too. Our first full form this year and very well performed. It's been passed to Scribbles that all the candidates got a real kick out of the evening. You bet.

Visited Capitol Forest and got a preview of the Sidonian work preparations for the Convention. Check out the Sidonian competition on your Convention program. It looks like a very good time. Best of LUCK Capitol Forest.

P.C.T.C. Engelhardt has announced "open house" by the Supreme Forest at the Traymore on Thursday evening at the Convention. You have to be registered for the Convention to get in, but it looks like a very good time with plenty to eat.

CONVENTION TIME

Harmony is a word we seldom hear or use in these days of loud discord and public demonstrations, so I looked it up. --agreement, accord, harmonious relations,-- a consistent, orderly or pleasing arrangements of parts; congruity. As seen in a musical harmony group, each player would mute or blend his play-in harmony with others to effect a better over-all musical arrangement. In life, a harmonious worker is satisfied that his own contribution is made more significant by the total group effort.

22/11/72

Observations by the Editor: Setting up the contribution from Scribbles, the Scribe reminded your Editor that the document was delivered by the Scribe in a brand new 1966 Dodge V-eight, with disc brakes, in fact fully equipped. It just seems that HISTORY repeats. Most of the other Officers accumulate enough to secure a new car or something equal upon their retiring from Office, Powers, Pelley, and Hockman to name a few, but Time is so speeded up that presently, you secured your heart's desire before you finish a second term. Apparently it won't be hard to locate a new Scribe after the present one has served his five years.

SICK

Jack Goodacre is up and around.

Heard that "Shorty" Ross is getting home occasionally.

Herbie Dietle was in Suburban Hospital.

Jean Carruthers was in the Hospital but is home now.

Gladys Nicholas has been on the sick list as was Morton Wolfe.

Heard that Enio Persion came back from Eastern Star Convention and was laid up with the virus.

Bobby Jones went into the Washington Hospital Center on April 25th.

Hope everyone recovers quickly.
