Mid-Winter Conference is over. Those of us who attended enjoyed ourselves. The seminars provided a wealth of information, some of which I'm still trying to absorb.

Following the January meeting, we conducted our Memorial Service where we remembered our brothers who have gone to the Eternal Forest. I want to thank all who participated in our meeting and Memorial Service for a memorable night.

Our February meeting is around the corner. I have arranged for some of the Masonic youth to give presentations following our meeting. Come out and support our youth and your Forest.

On January 30 we had a Forest Equipment Restoration Day at the Cedar Club. We did not have a large turnout but we had a lively one. We were able to accomplish quite a bit. The storage area was revamped. We added some shelves and rearranged the storage of Forest equipment. We also replaced some lights in our meeting room, storage area, and upstairs. Thanks to all who helped. For those of you who were unable to attend--we still have more to do. Keep looking here for the announcement of another work day later this year.

Several of us represented you at the Rock-A-Thon held this year at Centennial Lodge in Upper Marlboro. Fifty-seven Jobies "rocked" all night. We had the first shift and provided refreshments to keep them (and us) going. Next year Montgomery Forest is the Host Forest and will make arrangements for the location.

With the Mid-Winter Conference out of the way, we can start with the leadership of our G.T.C. "Chuck" Ware with more and enlightening things. I think you will see that as we proceed into our year, we will enjoy a lot of Fun, Frolic, and Fellowship.

In our conversation at the Conference, Grand Tall Chuck said he will have to cancel his planned dance for February. But don't let that discourage you. Be prepared for what is planned for our March meeting. A dinner is planned before the meeting (details will appear in the March ECHO). It's also Charter Night and Master Mason Night.

Although it sounds like the same old broken record, JDGTC John O'Brien and I have PECANS to get rid of. Call either of us for the nuts. John can be reached at 963-2483 and I can be reached at 460-8910.

For those older members who are local and want pecans, call me and I will be more than happy to deliver them. This way I can kill two birds with one stone. Meeting you will put us on the same level. You, to me, will not be just a name; and, I, to you, will not be just a hideous looking person who is your SDGTC at the top of this ECHO page. Looking forward to that occasion.

Cedarly,

11 Peter 2:6-7 -- "God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, destroying them with fire, and made them an example of what will happen to the godless. He rescued Lot, a good man, who was distressed by the immoral conduct of lawless men."

Harry G. Annis, Jr
Chaplain

It was quite true, after his appearance, and as the audience applauded, Jack would stare at Bill who was in the audience. Jack would bow, not to the crowd, but instead to Bill. Many thought this was strange conduct on Jack's part. But when you know the story of Jack's life, it all makes sense.

Jack was from a divorced home. His education was lacking. Early in life at about seventeen, he fell in with a bad group. Jack probably committed more crimes than he was ever charged with. He was considered dangerous by the police; a really bad individual. He was in court many times and given every opportunity. One day during a robbery, he was charged with murder; a person was killed. Jack was given twenty-five years.

The time in jail goes by slowly. The chance to become a better criminal is present; many continue on this line of thought unless there is counseling that attracts them. The volunteer Christian counselors are scarce. The dangerous inmates are not likely to get the attention they need. It takes a lot of nerve; and, yes, a strong faith, to walk behind bars that are locked behind you. You are in the midst of about thirty inmates and anything could happen. Your conduct and appearance set the scene. You, the counselor, must direct the action. If you do, you can be of great help. I know firsthand.

It was in such a counseling session that Jack made a threat. He said if he wanted to, he could stick a shiv (a spoon made into a sharp point) into my side and kill me before anyone could come. I informed him it takes about twenty seconds to pass out and during

For your information, there are, as of this writing, about 65 of our members who have not yet paid 1988 dues.

The Supreme Forest constitution stipulates that in order to attend a Tall Cedar meeting your own or any other Forest, you must have a current TCL dues card and a current Blue Lodge dues card. So check your card case to be sure of your status. The TCL 1988 card is PINK and is dated.

This is at least my second request to you. If you move your place of residence, please send me a Change of Address notice as soon as possible. We mail the Echo to your last address of record under the provision of a Bulk Mailing Permit. They are not forwarded by the Post Office but are returned to me with an extra charge for the service. Remember, too, to remind your family to keep us informed if you should become ill; we cannot know unless we are told.

Good Luck and Good Wishes to each and every one of you for 1988. Come and join us at our meetings, the third Saturday of each month.

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

Month #2 and we're on our way through 1988 - the year of the Teddy Bear. We have a "bear-y" busy several weeks ahead now that Mid-Winter Conference is behind us.

A word about Mid-Winter. This was my first trip to Hershey. We stayed at the old Hotel Hershey and I wouldn't have missed it. What a lovely place! Everything about Conference was organized and very pleasant. Try it next time.

January meeting covered a lot of subjects. We went over plans for 1988, introduced Committee Chairmen, and held our annual Memorial Service. Everyone seemed pleased with the new look for the meeting room. Come on over and see how you like it.

January 30 was a busy day at the Cedar Club. Grand Tall Chuck had designated a maintenance and repair day. Sawdust and just plain "dust" filled the air as Cedars and Cedarettes worked to restore order to closets and storerooms.

Thanks to Beryl Moyer and Barbara Ware for helping me with the Cedarette closet. We emptied the closet, unpacked, washed, sorted, counted, discovered old treasures and declared some new ones, packaged and organized.

Thanks to Beryl Moyer for acquiring a five-drawer file cabinet. My sincere appreciation to George Moyer for rebuilding the shelves and providing a much-improved appearance, not to mention space.

Please plan to attend our "Open Closet" after our February meeting. Guides will be provided for large groups. Lite refreshments will be served; and, a souvenir dust ball presented to the first 100 persons attending. Don't miss this special event!

February meeting is Secret Pal Night. We finally get to know the source of all the pretty gifts we've those seconds I could make him a eunuch and he would sing like a soprano. He thought this funny. I had struck a chord. He said, "You ain't afraid of me, are you?" I assured him I wasn't and we now could get on with the session. After this exchange he seemed to be more interested in me.

My session was about an hour and I was with this group for about eight weeks. The day came when I was to say goodbye. It seems strange that you would feel as if you would miss these men, common criminals, but I did.

On the last day Jack came to me and said, "I want you to know I respect you. If I can get paroled, will you help me get a job as a musician." I assured him I would do all I could and told him to call me when he got out.

I did get a call and it turned out Jack could play the piano on a classical level. I encouraged him and got a teacher who polished him up. Today Jack is a featured player and has stayed out of trouble for years. But to this day if his sponsor, the one he relied on when he was out of control, is in the audience, he always bows to him. May God continue to bless this reformed man.

"Find out what God would have you do
and do that very well
For what is great and what is small
Only He can tell."
