WE ARE ALL MANUFACTURERS

MAKE TROUBLE, AND STILL OTHERS MAKE EXCUSES

The Shrimp Feast / Sock-Hop will have come and gone by the time you-all read this article. I would like to thank P.G. #139 for coming out in force to support our affair, and the members of Trenton, N.J. who drove down to be at our Shrimp Feast. I hope those who attended enjoyed themselves.

Support from Montgomery, for this fund raiser was lacking, those who were in attendance showed me that there are Tall Cedars that still know what Brotherhood and Fraternalism stand for, and that in order to have Fun, Frolic and Fellowship, you have to attend functions with your brothers.

I would like to take up some space in this article for an expression of my appreciation for the efforts of some very special people that worked the Shrimp Feast, and without whose help it would have surly failed:

John Huff, Wayne Blackburn, Al Spadin, my Beermister, Bob Allen, and A job well done to: William Woodward, our Shrimp Cooker, and Dick Stevenson our Fifties Disk Jockey

I would also like to thank the following Cedarettes for their help: Diane Huff, Pearl Hunt, Beryl Moyer, Janet Clark, Ginny M., Yvonne Jerman, Nancy Smith, and Linda Gevinson

PROCEEDING THE MEETING IS THE CEDARETTES' ANNUAL STEAK DINNER.... THE MEETING WILL BE SPORT SHIRT NIGHT. FOLLOWING THE MEETING, ENJOY PIXIE (LINDA GEVINSON), MISS PEEP (NANCY SMITH), CRICKET (PEARL HUNT), CRACKERS (ALMA CARROLL) AND RED (BERYL MOYER) IN THE SKIT THAT TOOK 1ST PLACE AT CLOWN COMPETITION IN YORK, PA.

BEFORE THE NEXT ECHO COMES OUT, THE CRAB- FEAST WILL HAVE OCCURRED. SINCE THIS IS A FUND-RAISER FOR THE FOREST, IT IS VERY IMPORTANT FOR MEMBERS OF THE FOREST TO SUPPORT IT WITH THEIR PRESENCE AND SALE OF TICKETS. THIS HAS BEEN AN ENJOYABLE AND PROSPEROUS EVENT IN THE PAST AND WITH YOUR SUPPORT AND PARTICIPATION, IT WILL BE IN 1997. CONTACT AN OFFICER FOR TICKETS.

COME AND ENJOY THE FUN AND FELLOWSHIP

CEDARLY,

From The Junior Deputy

Charles Davis
Junior Deputy

This being my first article for the ECHO, I would like to thank all of our members for their past support of the Forest and for their support of our MD efforts. I would also like to ask for your increased participation in our Forest and MD activities.

The fun, and fellowship of the Forest can only continue with your help and participation. The good works of our Muscular Dystrophy fund raising activities can only be successful if you actively participate and provide your assistance.

The Montgomery Forest is a great Masonic organization with some of the best people I've ever met. I encourage all of those who do not regularly attend our meetings to do so. You'll have a good time and we need the benefit of your ideas and participation in our Forest activities.

Cedarly,

Chuck

From The Scribe

Norman T. Clark, P.G.C.C.
Scribe

I have updated the Booster, 365 Club and Memoriam listings in this issue of the Echo, from changes received since 15 February and hope that I have included everyone.

Congratulations to our Grand Tall Cedar (Marshall) and his committee on a fine Shrimp feast. The shrimp was hot, the beverages cold, the music sweet and everyone who attended appeared to have a good time. In addition to all the work involved in the Shrimp Feast, Marshall became a Grandfather (for the first time) the night before. Congratulations Marshall and Linda on their grandson.

Cedar,
Mar

From The Chaplain

Harry Annis, P.G.T.C.
Chaplain

Your chaplain is available, his schedule permitting, for any clergy duties. Funerals, counseling or just talking over your problems. Call him at 1-301-949-7294.

When Marge was a younger woman she had a baby. Her husband left her and she was all alone. She had no family unless you consider some who were cousins and did not know her. Marge was offered a good paying job but she decided not to take it and stay home and care for her son.

She would get token amounts of money from her husband, just enough to get by.

Years go by and the son is a grown man. He has a good income, I recently visited Marge. She was now living in a rented room and her only income was from social security. I asked her about her son. She said "I don't hear from him much, he is so busy. He has a family now and I don't really know where he is." This is but one more case of an older woman being left all alone by her children.

When we get old no one really wants us, unless it is another old person. Older people should keep up with the young. You don't have to be at their every call but you should stay in touch.

Here this woman sacrificed her life for a son who does not even know her. How cruel we are as humans. This lady will live and die not knowing if her son even cares. We must all keep up with the world, don't let it go by.

"You are writing each day a letter to men take care that the writing is true.

'Tis the only gospel some men will read that gospel according to you.

Cedarly,
Harry

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

A new refrigerator has been purchased by the cedarettes for the kitchen at the Cedar club. It was put to good use already.

Please be generous with donations to the ladies who walk the Bay Bridge on May 4th. It will all be given to the Muscular Dystrophy. Remember to bring your favorite dish for the picnic afterwards. You do not have to walk the bridge to attend the picnic.

The May executive meeting will be held at the home of Lieselotte Allen on the 7th at 7:30 pm . Please note the place.

The regular meeting is on May 17th not May 15th as reported in the newsletter.

We hope the Cedarettes are busy making their crafts to be displayed at the steak dinner in June. They will be sold during that evening.

Your reservations for the Burn Brae Dinner Theatre should be made ASAP they are going fast and we only have a limited number. Call Pearl at 585-3827.

Sunshine--

Alex Aesimone and Jane have both been under the weather.

Katie Reiber will have a kidney biopsy at Holy Cross Hospital on April 24th.

Beverly Burns has been very uncomfortable with the shingles.

Bob Thompson has been in the hospital. He is home now.

Please keep these members in your prayers and remember them with cards.

Gossip Gossip Hush! Hush! Sh-shhhhh
As it goes around Montgomery

It sure is difficult keeping track of our latest "social lions". Popularity is everything. Are they spreading their wings?

We heard there is a cedarette with a small organ but not sure what that means. Maybe Pearl can explain.

Did you know that the word trousers is an uncommon noun? The reason, it is singular at the top and plural at the bottom.

Rumors spread fast- we heard Norm was estactic when he made his debut on the stage of the celebrity tying up a "georgeous" lady with nautical knots hoping to keep her forever. She proved more magical than he-she slipped that rope and was last seen working his blue sport coat before he could wink his eye. Did you really lock that coat up under glass?

True or False We were told Bob holds the record for consumming the largest amount of beer on a cruise ship. He says the hot sun made him thirsty--
Ha-Ha-

The Escort Service it appears is really blooming. Maybe She will have to take on an assistant. There are only so many days in a week and business is booming.

Be careful- the "gossip mungers" are out there listening and watching. You could be next in this column .

Who was at Kena's Hillbilly Dance and danced many dances. I wonder if Jack Daniels helped? We hear a person, not to be named, had not danced in 12 years, but had a dance master ask her and she danced many times.

I would, however, like to see a full bus in October for the Longwood Gardens trip. Deposit of $50.00 is due in July. NO INTEREST and this trip will be canceled also.

I had planned different Feasts and Trips to bring back the membership, but, I think more stayed away Suggestions from the members that do not attend meetings are solicited.

Clown Competition in York was a lot of fun., Paul Carroll, Norm Clark and your Grand Tall represented Motgomyery as the Montgomery Cedarettes brought home the following:

- 1st place Ladies Skit (traveling trophy)
Nancy, Pearl, Beryl, Alma and Linda
- 1st place Ladies Hobo/Tramp - Pearl
- 2nd place Ladies Aguste - Linda
- 2nd place Ladies Character - Nancy

York Forest was a gracious host, and Linda, Nancy and I were able to get acquainted with Skeeter and the gang from Trenton Forest, definitely a fun bunch of Clowns.

Don't forget that at our May meeting we will be having a Chinese Auction.
