GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

Brethren:

Time moves on and at our February Meeting, we held our Memorial Service. Although attendance was not what I had hoped for, we had enough to do the service and my thanks go out to all who came. But I especially want to thank Cynthia Tice, Marshall & Linda Gevinson, Warren Baker, John & Diane Huff, Marilyn Stadler and Norman Clark. All of you contributed so much and my heartfelt thanks go out to each and every one of you.

Cedarly, Sol Zeidman GTC

The Scribe's Corner

I am sorry to report that we have lost another Brother recently. PSD#2 and PGTC Bob Thomson passed to the Celestial Lodge on February 12, 2006. We have lost six Brother last year and two so far this year. They are all listed in the In Memorium and will be missed.

Brother Solomon Zeidman agreed to stay on as GTC for 2006. This Scribe really appreciates him staying on for another year. Of course, I did not give him any slack and indicate that he might get it right this year. Oh yes, Brothers, we are still having Fun, Frolic and Fellowship In Montgomery Forest. GTC Zeidman is still having dinners before each meeting starting at 6:00 PM. They are catered and are delicious.

CONVENTION-MAY 10-14,2006 – As indicated in the last ECHO, the Forest has reserved some rooms at the Waters Edge Motel in Wildwood, NJ. The reservations have been sent, but hopefully we can get some more rooms in anyone wishes to attend the Convention.

The Dues Notices have been sent out. Those members who have not sent in their dues, please do so ASAP. He 365 Club, Boosters and In Memorium for 2006 have been updated and hopefully are correct.

Cedarly,
Norm

The Tall Cedars of Lebanon are going back to Wildwood, NJ. As many of you know Montgomery Forest has used the Waters Edge Motel before and it is a very nice setting. What could be better than waking up to the sound of the surf rolling over the dunes. This plus a view of the ocean and the beach from your window. It has many amenities which are desirable for the Forest as well as for Matthew, his helper and his mother. If you remember, the motel has an elevated sun deck for relaxing and talking. It is close to Convention Center where the majority of the activities will be held. Six rooms have been requested so far. Marshall Gevinson is negotiating the room reservations with the management of the hotel and expects that one night's registration fee of $75.00 will be required in mid-February.

Cedarettes,

Our Cedarette group was well represented at Mid-Winter Ladies' Luncheon in January with six ladies in attendance. The tables were decorated with straw hats and each of us received a small hat (on a magnet) to go on our refrigerator in remembrance.

Our first meeting was held on February 18th and we had a nice turnout. The contest of monthly flowers and gems was won by Marilyn Stadler. There will be a new contest each month. Come and see if you can win! The prizes are nice.

Don't forget our CHINESE AUCTION in March. If we each contribute one or two items, it should be a success.

Congratulations to our Nancy L. Smith on her installation as the new COAPOA president. The luncheon was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Cedarettely,

Sue
