GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

.Brethren:

Well, our February 21, 2009 stated communication and our Memorial Service is over, and wish to thank PGTC Doug Stadler for a job well done on the Memorial Service. Most of all, it was gratifying to see a large number of Cedars and Cedarettes in attendance. However, remember, coming to the Forest once in awhile is good, but to keep a viable Forest, it's important to attend as often as Possible

Hoping to see you all on March 21, 2009 as we will celebrate St. Patrick's Day with dinner of Corn Beef and Cabbage.

So all I can say is G-D Bless and keep the Faith.

Cedarly,
Sol Zeidman, GTC

The Scribe's Corner

At Saturdays meeting there were five PGTCs of Temple Forest who are now members of Montgomery Forest present. They were all recognized as past GTC's of Montgomery Forest and welcome by GTC Zeidman. STC Jim Reed, his wife Shirley and ST Bud Willard and his wife Nancy also were in attendance. All attendees enjoyed a delicious beef dinner before the meeting.

My new computer is working fine, but someone entered our home and stole my new 22 inch Monitor. Talking about bad luck.

The Executive Committee approved subsidizing Montgomery Forest Members, Cedarettes and significant others who will be attending the Officers and Past Officers Association and the Cedarettes Officers and Past Officers Association of District 20 Toby Theater Dinner (Okhoma) on July 12th. Further information will be provided at the March meeting.

I have updated the Memorium, 365 Club and Booster listings. If your donation was not listed in this issue, please contact me and I will make sure it is in the next issue. I have received fewer donations for the latter two listings than in the past.

Cedarly, Norm

MDA SUMMER CAMP

Montgomery Forest currently sends 4 young people to camp at Leonardtown, Md every year. It is next to a beautiful river with an outdoor pool, cafeteria and wonderful cabins.

For young people, camp offers a fun and safe outdoor experience and the opportunity to develop important life skills such as confidence; independence and social ability. The camp experience also promotes a great sense of self esteem and achievement. Campers often leave with a more positive outlook on life and take with them lasting friendships and memories.

Safety is the number one priority of camp staff and counselors, who all receive training in the special needs of children with neuromuscular diseases. All activities are strictly monitored to accommodate camper's unique needs and abilities.

For parents/guardians, camp is a brief respite for caregivers. MDA staff and trained volunteers assume all campers care, including physical and emotional support, allowing caregivers a little time to attend to their own needs.

MESSAGE FROM THE CEDARETTE
PRESIDENT;

So glad to see so many of you at our last meeting and hope that we will see you all again real soon. It was nice to have the Supreme Grand Tall's lady , and Shirley Willard join us.

In March we are having corned beef and cabbage for dinner and hope all of you will join us.

In April we will be having Vice President night and our Vice Presidents will be inviting the Vice Presidents of the other Cedarettes, to join us. Lets make them welcome.

Charlotte Zeidman, President
