MESSAGE FROM THE CEDARETTE PRESIDENT;

Dear Cedarettes,

Spring is about to be sprung, and day light saving time is only days away. As you do your spring cleaning save the good stuff for our Chinese auction at our May meeting. I will be away from March 7th to April 14th, but I can always be reach by my cell phone 410-303-3972 if needed.

If you can help at the wreath laying on March 10th, please call Linda. Please patronize the Cedarettes walking in the Muscle Walk to earn money for MD.

If you need an article to go in the Cedarettes news letter please get your info to Sheila by April 1st.

Hope you all have a wonderful religious holiday.

See you in April.

Gerry Tynan

GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

Greetings everyone

Wow We are starting off this New Year with a lot on the positive side. All the elected officers attended the mid-winter conference in Ocean City and were participants. We even brought our wives and at least one brought his family. Fellowship was abounding. When we saw our group, they were what the Tall Cedars represent – family, fun and frolic. The various programs from ritual to fund raising were all covered by at least one of our members. The support of the Cedarettes was also a plus for our Forest. The only negative was the poor sound system for the banquet.

Due to health issues your GTC missed a couple of the meeting in Feb., and the meeting in March. This was due to a 2 year planning cruise on the Celebrity. Our Senior Deputy GTC very ably covered all the issues that were previously discussed via e-mail circuit at the meetings, Chris great job. I understand that he was very strongly supported by the PGTCs, Al, Marshall and Norman, as well as Romain, Tom, and others. We have a great team. Oh, it looks like a new member would like to take a office. Your two senior officers Chris and Romain have now visited all the lodges in Montgomery County with a terrific presentation. The responses have been very promising.

See you Royce

Scribes Corner

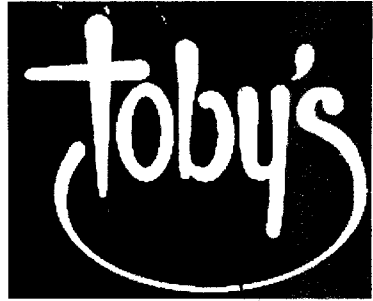

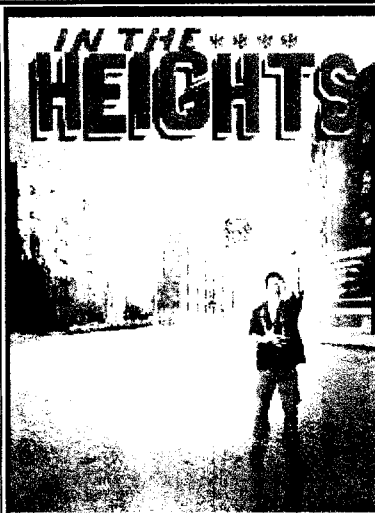

I will update of the 365, boosters, and memorium listings in the next issue of the Echo. At that time I will eliminate all of the names who do not have a sponsor from the Memorium Listing except for those who has passed away in the past year. The cost is $3.00 which goes to the Foundation for MD.

GTC Royce is planning a trip to see N.V. Heights Musical at Toby's Dinner Theatre in May. Montgomery Forest and Montgomery Cedarettes and their significant other will be half price. (See flyer in this issue} At this point we are hoping to attend on the 19th of May. Contact Marshall Gevinson or myself for additional information.

The Forest participated in the District Twenty annual Celebration at George Washington Tomb at Mt Vernon, which was attended by the Grand Lodge of Maryland, Washington, D., C. , and Virginia (see photos in this issue). PGM G. Lee Ferguson, Washington, D.C. and DDSTC Marshall Gevinson worked hard putting this program together and Brother Gevinson worked very hard putty together a luncheon after the Ceremony. He was assisted by the District twenty Cedarettes chaired by Past President Lindy Gevinson.
Cedarly, Norm
