

December 2001

Dear Brother:

Hopefully I have applied myself for your Masonic as well as the Lodge's enlightenment. One of many definitions of enlightenment states "to shed the light of truth and knowledge upon...".

"There are two worlds; the world that we can measure with line and rule, and the world that we feel with our hearts and imaginations" says Leigh Hunt.

My Masonic knowledge has progressed with time, patience and application during this year. Thank you for allowing me to work in our profession as your Worshipful Master!

I wish you and your families an enjoyable holiday season.

Fraternally,
Bruce Ferguson
