

My Brothers:

It is with pleasure I open this months message with an announcement of the appointment of WB Richard Panas as head instructor and examiner for the Fellow Craft Degree, he will work closely with WB George Carty to insure our candidates will perform a good degree. I have to bring to your attention again the fact that our general fund, as last year, is below the reserve point and ask that you will help in anyway you can. The lodge still has approximately sixty chairs to be sold at $125.00 each. Please consider this act of support if you are able to. Also, we again are asking for your support at refreshment time in making a donation of $5.00 or more, if possible, for your meal. Please, for those brethren who have not been out for a while, I ask that you try to get out in the near future and again be a working part of your lodge. Finally brethren I need help from any of you who are well versed in the ritual of the EA or FC degree to help with instructing even if you can't help full time let me know please. I also need to compile a list of the brothers who can do any kind of ritual work, let me know which piece i.e.: 1st/2nd section of any degree, lectures, charge or address, craftsman etc. and specify how much time would be required before you could do each piece of work. This is required by grand lodge. This is your lodge and each of you form a piece of it's backbone, help us to stand straight and tall.

Fraternally
