

January 2004

My Brother,

I would like to thank you for allowing me to serve as your Worshipful Master. It is indeed an honor and pleasure to hold this position, and with your help we will move forward in a positive way.

As I sat and thought about the challenges of beginning a new masonic year in a new role, my mind naturally gravitated to the beginning of my masonic life. I remember as a young apprentice how nervous and lost I seemed, how alone in this journey I thought I was. At the same time I was anxious and excited. Anxious to learn more and excited to be apart of this fraternity. It was a very confusing time, but I soon realized that I was not alone. All of the brethren on the sidelines knew what I was going through and were behind me with support and guidance.

I have been told that it is a lonely place in the east as the Worshipful Master. I don't necessarily agree with that, because as I look out at the officers and the brethren on the sidelines, I see and feel that same support and guidance that I felt when I first entered that door. The fact is that... It is not about me, It is not about you, It is about us and the fraternal bond that holds us together and keeps us coming back for more.

Quote of the Month: "The world is blessed most by men who do things, and not by those who merely talk about them".
