

June 2001

Dear Brother:

From the official procedure for a Table Lodge for the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, I have learned that Freemasonry has two great festivals. These are the traditional Feasts of Saint John the Baptist and Saint John the Evangelist. They are observed at the time of the summer and winter solstices, June 24th and December 27th, and predate Christianity.

We take the opportunity to have our Feast of Sts. John to honor the widows of past brethren while enjoying an evening with family, friends and our brethren.

We should remain proud of our traditions, belief in brotherhood, country, acts of charity and compassion.

During our leisure hours of summer, take time to reflect on Masonry today and why it continues because of the square and compasses, the trowel, plumb and level which remind us of our firm ethical and moral values. Our goal remains with the individual Mason, building his character and that contributes to the Fraternity and our future.

Fraternally,
Bruce Ferguson
Worshipful Master
