

March 2003

My Brother,

While going through some Masonic material that I have saved over the years, I came across this poem that I thought was kind of interesting. Maybe it reminds you of yourself or someone you know. Either way I thought that it was worthy of being printed in our trestleboard.

“Let’s Go to Lodge Tonight”

Say, Son, let’s go to Lodge tonight; We haven’t been for years. Let’s don our little apron white And sit among the peers. I feel a kind of longing, Boy, to climb up those old stairs; I know we’d get a thrill of joy and lay aside the care. I’d like to get out on the floor-- Come on, let’s get in the line; I’d like to face the East once more And give the same old sign. I want to hear the gavel ring, To hear the organ play; I want to hear the Craftsmen sing I think the Tyler’d let us in, That old familiar lay. Although he’d hesitate, And then we’d see that same old grin. Come on, or we’ll be late. Pass up your bridge or picture show, Your wrestling bout or fight; Switch off that darned old TV set-- Let’s go to Lodge tonight.

(by Unknown)

On our next regular communication we will be having an agent from the United States Secret Service as a guest speaker, I am sure they will have an interesting presentation for us. April 5th is the date of our annual visit to Phoenixville come on out and travel with us as we enjoy the fellowship of our Pennsylvania brethren.
