

Brethren;

Remember back when you decided to ask for a petition to become a MASON? It was, with a nervous stomach, that you presented yourself to receive the EA degree. When you entered the lodge, you found all the brethren waiting to see you take your first degree. Each one shaking your hand and congratulating you on becoming a MASON. Wasn't it wonderful that they all took the time to see you start on your path to seek more light? It is no different today, except for the fact that now there are very few brothers there, to greet the new candidate. Brethren, what has MASONRY done, to keep you away from helping the new candidate along the path to betterment? Can we not accept one another for what we are and not what we want each other to be? When we stay away, because of what we consider to be an offence of ones thinking, are we acting in accordance with the obligations that we have taken? Can we sit in lodge for a few hours and accept each others ways? It would be for the betterment of the initiate, as well as for the Lodge and MASONRY, if we tolerate one another and keep our Lodge strong and healthy.

Fraternally,
Milton Moroz, Worshipful Master

"We must strenghten, defend, preserve and comfort each other. We must love one another. We must bear one another's burdens. We must not look only on our things, but also on the things of our brethren. We must rejoice together, mourn together, labor and suffer together."

— John Winthrop
