

Brethren,

Autumn is here and to some it, like spring, is the best time of the year, because of the cooler temperatures. It makes for better working conditions and leisure activities. The trustees informed me that the Lodge building still requires some work to be completed and if any of the Brethren could call me or the treasurer to get a work party together for a Saturday to paint the banquet room and parking stops, as well as, dry cleaning the draperies and glaze the windows, please contact us.

Here are a few quotes from a well known brother mason.

“A life of leisure and a life of laziness are two things. There will be sleeping enough in the grave.”

“All mankind is divided into three classes: those that are immovable, those that are movable, and those that move.”

“An investment in knowledge pays the best interest.”

“Any society that would give up a little liberty to gain a little security will deserve neither and lose both.”

“God helps those who help themselves.”

-- Benjamin Franklin
