From the Master Steve Tollefson

Greetings brothers! As I begin to write this article I have begun to realize that it is the closing days of the month of July. Time sure does fly when your having fun! Which also reminds me to remind each and everyone of our upcoming Family Night. July 29th which is the 5th Thursday of this month. Dinner will begin at 6 with entertainment to follow around 7 or so. Also the following week, which is a regularly stated business meeting, August the 5th. We will be hosting the presentation of the Hawkins Bible. I am sure that this will be quite exciting, as well as informative. I know that it has been the talk of the town and that a lot of brothers are looking forward to it. Also something I would like to mention is in the month of September will be our lodge picnic on the 26th. As soon as I have all the details squared away I will let everyone know. I do know that it will be had at Cherokee Park. Then last but not least is Family night on the 30th. This evening will consist of our annual chili cook-off. Bet you thought I forgot! No I didn't, but the beginning of the year we were so busy with degree work and our trip to Keystone that it was just better for us as a lodge to hold off on it a bit. Besides no one ever gets tired of a good bowl of chili and most people say they could partake of it at any given time. I just hope everyone can take in all of the exciting things we have coming up! With all of the hard work that the officers and myself have put in thus far this year it's about time to have a little fun! Hope to see each and everyone real soon and those of you that can't you're in my thoughts and prayers, as well as everyone who misses you and is concerned about you and your families well beings.

Fraternally Thine,

Steve Tollefson
Master 2010

Masonic Funerals

Brothers,

I would like to address a subject that many of us don't much care to deal with and that's death. On June 30th 2010, I performed my 123rd Masonic Funeral that seems like a lot but I have attended over 400 in my Masonic career, and I only been in for 17 years.

In the past few months we have had 8 members pass away who requested Masonic Funerals.

Brother Tom Mercer has stepped up and has learned the funeral ritual, and I for one am very thankful he has. When I was asked to learn this I was Junior Warden and that was in 1996. I was told then by some of the Past Masters that it was expected of a good Master to be able to do the Masonic Funeral the year you are Master. Well it took me over a year to learn it well enough to be able to do it in front of others. At that time there was 4 of us that could do it, but like it or not some of them have given up due to age and death, and I became the only one for a few years until now.

In the 12 years that I have been doing them there was one I could not do and we had to get a brother from another lodge to do it, and that's the night my mother passed away. I have done these on Brother's who have meant a lot to me, and those were the hardest, I done them on Brothers I never knew, and I have done them on Brothers when I was sick, and last year I had to leave a family event and go do one, but I was instructed by Brother John Rupley when I first started doing Masonic Funerals; he explained to me whether you want to do it or not, it is the last thing we can do for our Brother so we are obligated to do this for him—even if he's not an active member or if he's not a member of Suburban as long as he a Mason in good standing.

It is nice to see that the attendance is starting to get better; here a while back there was a time that only a few showed up. I understand that things come up and you not able to attend all of them but an effort should be made to attend as many as you can. Just stop and consider who is going to be there when you drop those working tools of your busy life and entered that Lodge above, who is going to call the brothers to assembly for your final farewell , who is going to say those words over you, and who is going to accompany your remains to your final resting place.

We know it won't be you...and it may not be me. I didn't know I had the choice: I have been under the impression that I was a Mason and he was my Brother.

Brother Joe Marshall,
Secretary.

History From the South

Greetings,

Brothers and friends of Suburban Lodge, my name is Danny Davis and I have been a member of Suburban Lodge for just a little over two years.

I have bet a great group of fine people here and would like to share some small bits of history with you. I am also a member of The Sons of Confederate Veterans, and hope you understand my Southern sympathy whenever I speak on or about the Southern cause.

The lodge of Masons in which George Washington was "initiated, passed and raised," Fredericksburg, Virginia No. 4 was pillaged in 1862 by Federal troops. The lodge safe was blown open and the records, regalia, jewels, etc were carried off. Among the articles taken was an old cherished jewel of solid silver in the form of a level highly prized by the lodge for its antiquity. The relic was discovered some twenty years later after the war in the safe of Integrity Lodge No. 158, A.F. & A.M of Philadelphia. It had been placed in the safe by a former member of the lodge who had recovered it from the soldier who originally pilfered it from the Fredericksburg lodge.

A note was tacked to the jewel with the instructions that the jewel be returned to the Fredericksburg lodge when the state of Virginia should cease to be in open rebellion against the Government of the United States. The jewel has since been returned to the Fredericksburg Lodge. I hope this little part of history makes you appreciate our brotherhood a little bit more.

Cherokee DeMolay just returned from a great annual Conclave! We had a great weekend of fun, fellowship and brotherhood. We returned to Nancy, Kentucky for the first time since 2006.

We had several distinguished guests including: Dad Robert K. Tutt, Executive Officer Emeritus, Kentucky DeMolay, Terry Bowman, Grand Senior Warden, Joe Conway, 33rd PGM Grand Secretary, John Moyers, 33rd PGM S.G.I.G. Emeritus, Roger Barnett, 33rd PGM Deputy Supreme Council of Kentucky, Keith Klein, Active Member of DeMolay International and Past Grand Master of DeMolay International. Bob Taylor, Executive Officer of West Virginia, Worthy Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star, Sherry Whitt, Worthy Grand Patron of the Order of Eastern Star, Cole Younger. We also had representation from the York Rite, Rainbow, Jobs and Amaranth in attendance.

The Order of Eastern Star presented Kentucky DeMolay with a very sizeable donation. Brother Cole Younger and Sister Sherry Whitt made this presentation at the banquet on Saturday night of Conclave. We are very grateful to the Order of Eastern Star in Kentucky for their generosity!

Both degrees were conferred on nine young men from Nancy, Kentucky. We will be going back to Nancy on August 8th to institute the first new chapter in Kentucky in many years. All the DeMolay from Cherokee are very excited.

Cherokee participated in various ritual and sports competitions. The Cherokee Chapter team won the Chapter Proficiency trophy. This is the ritual competition for opening and closing the Chapter. Rafael Gonzalez won the Senior Deacon and Marshal Competition. Mason Foster and Michael Lile both won preceptor competitions. Team Cherokee also won the volleyball competition.

The degree of Chevalier was conferred on Dad John Crisp and Cody Stevens. This is the highest honor that can be conferred on an active DeMolay. We are very proud of both these honorees.

Cherokee's own Cody Stevens, State Master Councilor, presided over Conclave. Cody has had a great year as State Master Councilor. Cody was on the Installing team Sunday morning of Conclave to install Brother James Bowling as the new State Master Councilor. Cody is looking forward to petitioning Suburban.

Cherokee extends its gratitude to the whole Suburban lodge family for your continued moral and financial support. We could not do it without your support. Come out and visit us the first or third Mondays at 7:00 p.m.

Brittney Horn won the award for having the best Grand Representative Board with no correspondence and the assembly came in 2nd place for the Grand Assembly Project for selling program ads and boosters.

And of course, the highlight of the weekend for the girls is getting the new State Appointments for the year. Our Assembly was honored to receive the following appointments for 2010-2011: Amanda Druin – Grand Service, Michaela Reams – Grand Goodwill Ambassador, Miranda Klingsmith – Grand Christian Flag Bearer, Miranda Elbert – Grand Representative to Florida, Brittney Horn – Grand Representative to Oklahoma, Faith Klingsmith – Grand Representative to West Virginia, and Lauryn Reams and Mandy

We are planning our Installation on July 26th at 7:30pm with Miranda Elbert going in as Worthy Advisor-elect. By the time you receive this, it will probably be over and thank you to all in attendance and congratulations to Miranda for completing her last term and also thank her for taking on being Worthy Advisor for a 2nd term.

At the end of July, we will be heading to Supreme Assembly in Omaha, Nebraska. Michaela Reams, Brittney Horn, Rebecca Bartlett, Greg Bartlett and Aaden Bartlett will be leaving on July 30th for a wonderful trip. I look forward to updating you on our trip in the next newsletter.

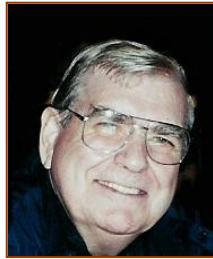

I also want to devote a small portion of my update to say good-bye to a few of our girls. As of Grand Assembly, we lost two members that reached 20 years of age – Lauryn and Lindsey Reams. They are both Past Worthy Advisors of Lorraine and Past Grand Officers. At our last meeting, we also said "good-bye" to two of girls – Miranda and Faith Klingsmith as they have moved to Hardinsburg and are in the process of demitting to the assembly down there. They both started Rainbow in our Pledge Group and are third generation Rainbow Girls. All will be missed!

We meet every 2nd and 4th Monday at 7:30 PM and we invite all of you to attend. If you know any young women between the ages of 11 and 20, why don't you introduce them to Rainbow? We are also looking for girls between the ages of 6 and 10 to join our Pledge Class. The Pledge Class meets at our first meeting of the month on the 2nd Monday. I can be reached at (502) 409-4337 or mrbartlett@insightbb.com.

Rowland's Ramblings

The Next Chapter

By Lynn E. Rowland

One of the many gifts I inherited from my father was a talent for writing. I have been published in many periodicals over the years, and asked for advice from dear old dad on more than one occasion concerning my grammar, or lack thereof. I even recall him allowing me to write one of the Rowland's Ramblings columns for him a few years ago. As a matter of fact, many Rowland's are ramblers. Writing is in our blood.

Several years ago, I asked my father a very serious question. I said, Dad, some day you will be gone and I would like your permission to carry on the name Rowland's Ramblings for whatever periodical I may be writing for at the time. He gladly agreed, which made me feel very special. Unfortunately, that day is now here.

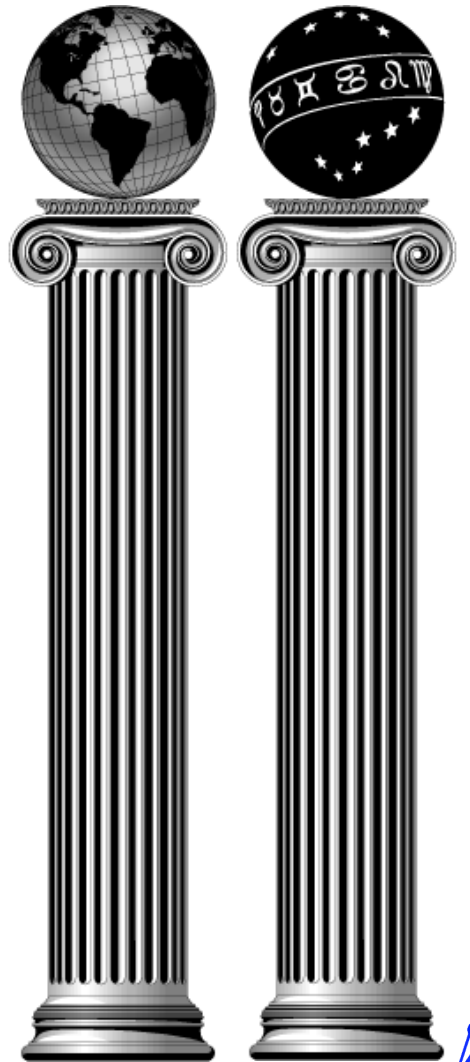

My father passed away early on Sunday, July 11th very peacefully. He didn't want anyone to know his body was riddled with cancer and knew his time on earth was nearing an end, and didn't want visitation or funeral services. He requested a very simple graveside service for immediate family members only. It was difficult to honor his wishes, but out of respect, my mother, 2 brothers and I agreed.

A few weeks before his death, I asked permission to write the final Rowland's Ramblings for this publication. He thought it was a splendid idea. I was never sure exactly what I would write, and tried several times before his death to at least come up with a rough draft to share with him and get his final approval. Sadly, that never happened. I just couldn't bring myself to do it.

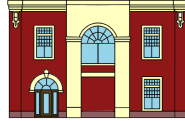

But there was one thing he was emphatic about. He wanted people to remember the good times and laughs he shared with them. No tears or sad stories, simple jocularity was to be the theme. And speaking of theme, another one of his requests was for a Celebration of Life ceremony to take place some time after his death. He gave no specific time. It could be weeks. It could be months. But rest assured, everyone will be notified and invited to share in this joyous occasion.

While I will miss my father, I have the assurance of knowing I will see him again someday in heaven. Carol Burnette ended her final television show in the 1970's with these words: Goodbye is forever, so instead I leave you by saying "so long"... which means until we meet again. So long dad.

From the Worthy Matron

I am so very proud of Southern Star Chapter! My work schedule has been absolutely insane this year. I have had to be away from chapter several months; many of them very special nights. I have missed Line Officer and Friendship night, Myra's party and many more. Words can't express my gratitude for what the chapter has done. Gail (Associate Matron) has really stepped up to help. When she was elected Associate Conductress, I think she may have had concerns about being Worthy Matron. With all of my absences this year, she has fulfilled her obligation and has done an extraordinary job! But no one person can do it alone. I would like to also thank the members who have always been willing to help wherever it was needed. .

For those members who might be interested in attending Grand Chapter this year, please remember that it will be held in September this year. This is a major change from previous years. Our secretary has all of the necessary information if you are interested. The Rob Morris Pilgrimage will be in Lagrange on the third Sunday of August. If possible, we would love to see you there. I look forward to being in Chapter more often in the next few months. You don't realize how much you miss the people and the friendships until you have been away for a while. There is always a smiling face and a warm hug to welcome you at Southern Star. Please join us if you can.

Star Love,
Jo
Worthy Matron
