From the Master
Bill Harvey

Dear brothers, it is now September and it's that time of year when the hot summer season is soon a memory and the fall one is upon us. Our lives are like the seasons: we have good and bad times in our lives, times when one is born with no hair, and a time when you have lots of it and then back to thin hair again. God in His wisdom tells us that there is a time to plant, and a time to harvest. Hopefully we have planted the seeds of friendship and brotherly love. The richest man (or woman) in the world will be miserable without friendship and love of their friends and family. I didn't really know very many of the regulars here at Suburban until I started in line as an officer of the Lodge. As I have interviewed several members for the "Have you met?" column in our newsletter, I've found out a lot about my brothers and have grown to know them as I never would have just sitting on the sidelines. Each of you are unique individuals and as I have grown to know you, I have grown to love you as my brother and appreciate who you are for what you give to our Fraternity. If we could all "walk in someone's moccasins for a mile", then we would understand better where someone is coming from and why they act the way they do.

As eight months have passed so far as you're Master, I am looking back and asking myself: what have I accomplished and what could I have done better. I have tried to do things that I thought you would enjoy and also to try and throw in a little Masonic education along the way. Please let me know what you would like to happen at Lodge so our meetings can be more enjoyable to everyone.

Since my last letter to you, we have had our annual picnic and we had about 125 in attendance. My thanks to Senior Warden Wayne Carby and everyone else who helped set up everything, serve the food and stayed to clean up. This is a large undertaking and needs all the help we can get to make it a fun time for all.

In August, we initiated 4 new Master Masons in the famous Suburban style. The house was packed and everyone enjoyed the meal that was served by Lorraine Assembly, Rainbow for Girls. Thank you, Aunt Rose Flamm for your volunteering the young ladies to prepare and serve our meal. This is very special to me that they did this for our Lodge.

On July 31st, 21 members of Suburban traveled to DePaw Lodge in New Albany, Indiana to watch 2 candidates receive the Entered Apprentice, Indiana style. I think the Master was quite appreciative that so many from one Lodge showed up. I hope that we can do more of this so we can make friends in other jurisdictions.

Our Family night in August was a great success. With over 100 in attendance, good food and entertainment by the "Bodacious Band" everyone seemed to have a good time. The family nights are a lot of work but quite well worth the energy expended as this is what Masonry is all about: Friendship, Morality and Brotherly Love! I do hope each of you enjoyed yourself and I'm looking forward to our last one of this year in November.

They say how time flies when you are having fun, and I have had fun serving my brothers from the East. As I look forward to my retirement from DuPont next year, I hope to be able to be more involved in the inner workings of my Lodge and get out more and visit some. It is a blessing to be able to meet with many of my brothers each Thursday, and other days also, and share words and thoughts together. I hope that you have a wonderful fall season and I will talk to you in the December newsletter.

God bless you and yours, stay safe and stay happy. Come to Lodge sometime. We miss you!

Fraternally,
Bill Harvey, Sr.
Master

THE REAL SECRET OF FREEMASONRY
MAKING GOOD MEN BETTER

Have you met?

Glen Wells

This month's "Have you met.....? Mason is Brother Elvin Glen Wells, a 31 year member here at Suburban Lodge.

Elvin, or as he is better known, Glen, was born in Munfordsville, KY on Jan 6, 1941. He didn't stay there long, as he moved to Louisville when he was 1 year old.

He attended Johnson Elementary, Ahrens Trade School and Watterson College, all here in Louisville, and obtained an Associates Degree from Watterson.

When Glen was about 21, he joined the United States Air Force in 1962 and served until 1966. He served as a Flight Line Technician.

After his time serving Uncle Sam, he worked for 7 years at Tube Turns Co, 7 years at Roller Die and Forming Co, and 20 years at Naval Ordinance (his military time allowed him to get a total of 20 years at Naval Ordinance). Glen retired from Ordinance in 1995 and has pretty much devoted lots of time to our Fish Stand.

Glen met his wife, Jo Ann, who is from Grayson County, KY, here in Louisville and they were married in 1964. They have two daughters, Paula and Carolyn, who are past Rainbow Girls. They have 4 grand daughters, 3 of whom are in Rainbow. The youngest is still a little young for Pledge.

1976 is the year that Glen joined Suburban Lodge and he served 2 years as Tyler so Bro. Ken Elbert could sit in Lodge when his son Jon was Master. Glen is our man who orders fish and supplies and comes over early to check them in when they are delivered.

He and his wife Jo Ann are both long time members of Southern Star Chapter 154, Order of Eastern Star, which meets here at our Lodge.

Glen wanted everyone to know that he really enjoys working with them at the Fish Stand, which seems to be his main hobby. Thanks Glen, for your dedication to our Fish Stand and in helping to make it run smoother. Just as one person can spoil an operation, one person such as Glen helps to make it all work better. Thank you for your hard work.

TEXAS STUFFED GRILLED BURGERS

"A great change to the usual grilled burgers. These burgers are stuffed with ham, cheese, mushrooms, and onions then slow grilled. Grill over hickory or mesquite wood if possible for better flavor! A sure family pleaser!"

INGREDIENTS

- 5 pounds lean ground beef
- 6 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 teaspoons hickory seasoning (optional)
- salt and pepper to taste
- 2 cups chopped onion
- 2 cups chopped fresh mushrooms
- 2 cups chopped cooked ham
- 3 cups shredded Cheddar cheese

DIRECTIONS

Preheat a grill for high heat. When the grill is hot, lightly oil the grate.

In a large bowl, mix together the ground beef, Worcestershire sauce, hickory seasoning, salt and pepper until well blended. Make 20 balls, and flatten into patties. On one half of the patties, distribute the onions, mushrooms, ham and cheese. Carefully cover the piles with the remaining patties, making sure to seal all of the edges of the patties together tightly and enclose the filling.

Grill the patties for 8 to 10 minutes per side, or until meat is well done, and cheese in the center is melted.

October — November 2007

This has been an exciting time for our girls, as they have now attended Kentucky's Grand Assembly, which was held June 29th, 30th, and July 1st. It was very different this year as we stayed at the Holiday Inn - Downtown at 2nd and Broadway, and held our Grand Sessions at the Scottish Rite Temple. It helped so much that Jon Elbert drove a school bus, which he had arranged for Grand Assembly, to take us to and from these locations, and Ken Elbert helped at the bus stops.

The girls participated in the competitions for scrapbook, aprons, dance team, door decoration, Grand Representative costume, ritual work, and Miss Service. Six of our girls, Jana Givens, Miranda Klingsmith, Jessica Galloway, Michaela Reams, Tara Paris, and Rachel Forseth, competed in the individual ritual work, and I am happy to say that each earned her Certificate of Proficiency.

Our Assembly received the following appointments for this year: Lindsey Reams - Grand Recorder; Jana Givens - Grand Messenger; Lauryn Reams and Mandy Caffee - Jr. Grand Executive Board; Michaela Reams - Grand Representative to Mississippi & The Philippines; Jessica Galloway - Grand Representative to Texas; Danella Galloway - Grand Representative to Georgia & North Carolina.

This year we will be helping with the Grand Worthy Advisor's Project, Camp BraveHeart, to raise funds to send children to this Camp, which is for children with heart problems. by selling purses, tote bags, and back packs in various materials with frog designs (or a material of the customer's choice) made by Ann Elbert. If you are interested in ordering an item, please contact Aunt Rose or Ann Elbert. In addition, we are still continuing to save Coke tabs for the Ronald McDonald House.

I want to thank each of our Advisory Board Members who helped me so much and chaperoned our girls at Grand Assembly: Paula Wells, Carolyn Reams, Ann Elbert, Sarah Klingsmith, Amanda Elbert, and Rebecca Bartlett. In addition, I want to thank Ken Elbert and Jon Cherokee DeMolay is growing at a very rapid pace. Thirteen new members have joined the Chapter this year. Last year, we took in eight new members for the entire year. As you can see, we hope to double our number of new members from last year.

Congratulations to Aaron Bott and Patrick Foster. Both of these young men have earned their "Founders Award". This means that they both have brought five members in to DeMolay. Tim Wemes is one member away from the "Blue Honor Key." This means Tim has brought nine members into DeMolay.

On the evening of September 11, 2007, Cherokee presented Suburban Social Club a plaque to thank Suburban for their continued support. Matthew Wemes made the presentation at the Social Club's regular stated meeting.

On September 17th at our regular stated meeting, Cherokee conferred both degrees on two new members. We welcome Jonathon Klapheke and Franklin Austin. Brother Tim Wemes brought both of these young men to Cherokee. We hope to have four more new members at our October 15th meeting.

On October 13th Cherokee will host a Halloween dance. The dance will be held at the FOP lodge on Price Lane. We have invited Rainbow, Jobs and DeMolay from all over the state. Thanks to Brother Stan Robinson for helping Cherokee reserve the lodge!!!!

Some of our upcoming activities include: lock-ins, ritual practices, Debbie Ballinger's Installation, shopping for the Salvation Army Angel tree and bowling. We also have one more bake sale on October 6th. This will be the last one for the year.

Thanks to all of the Suburban lodge family, for your continued support of Cherokee Chapter.

Elbert for staying at the Hotel and assisting with our security.

Michaela Reams was installed as Worthy Advisor on July 22nd, and has had a busy term since then. On August 23rd we prepared and served dinner to Suburban Lodge. On September 12th we served our annual "9/11" dinner for the firemen, police personnel, and EMS in our area. In addition, we continue to work every other Saturday at the fish fry. On September 22nd and 23rd we attended the Kentucky Rainbow Leadership Conference in Elizabethtown. We look forward to all the other activities included in Michaela's term.

Ripley's Believe It or Not!

EDITOR'S NOTE

by Jan Wilt

Time is slipping away, Bill Harvey has only a few months left as Master of Suburban Lodge, and in my opinion he has done one of the best jobs as Master. We are getting close to the end of the season for the Fish Fry. Thanksgiving is just around the corner. I cannot believe that this year has went so fast. I hope you enjoy this version of the newsletter and I do wish more people would have decided to get the newsletter on line and down load it in full color from our website. We are really trying to reduce the cost of mailing the newsletter and so far we have only had a little over 25 people agree to not have the newsletter mailed to them. We were really hoping for about 100 or more which would have reduced our cost drastically. If you have a computer you can easily download the newsletter from our website and you can just read it, save it to your hard drive and print it out in full color. Believe me the newsletter looks a lot better in color.

ROWLAND'S RAMBLINGS

VOLUME XVI I Number 3

by JOE ROWLAND P.M.

When I was a teenager, like all teenagers, then and now, I was car crazy. I knew the name and the year of every vehicle on the road. Of course, there were only a few automobile manufacturers in those days, Ford, Chevrolet and Chrysler being the biggies. Like most kids, I could tell the make and the year of an automobile from half a mile away. Also like all kids in the late 1930s and early 1940s, I didn't own one. But that didn't keep me from wanting one. I just had to figure some way to get my own wheels.

But my plans were interrupted when World War II came along, and I went into the Marine Corps right after graduation from high school. When I came out after the war was over I was still car crazy, and now I did something about it. I bought a 1930 Model A Ford, for the huge sum of twenty-five dollars. It had been wrecked, and looked terrible. The fenders and body were all banged up, and most of the window glass was broken or missing, but it ran good, and that was all I needed.

I took the entire body off: -- doors, fenders, running boards, hood, and windshield. I even took the seats out. All I had left was the motor and running gear, the frame, and the wheels. It had 19 inch wheels on the front and 21 inch wheels on the back. I cut a 55-gallon metal barrel in half, cut the side out of each half, bolted them to the frame, and put a cushion in each half barrel. Bingo! I had two seats to sit on.

I attached a piece of plywood to the frame in front of each seat to put my feet on, and I had the coolest vehicle in all creation. It was noisy, the exhaust fumes were smelly, it got you dirty, and it was great fun. Bugs coming at you at fifty miles per hour without a windshield taught me to keep my mouth shut when I drove. The roar of the uncovered, engine made it almost impossible to talk while driving. But all those were minor details. That was a fabulous car --- one of a kind --- a real eye popper. I sometimes even drove it in the rain, just so people would stare and shake their heads in disbelief at the idiot roaring by in a monstrosity that slung mud everywhere. All my friends wanted to ride in the barrel seats, but. I couldn't get many girls to ride in it, especially after a rain. I learned how to make it backfire, and it sounded just like a gunshot. That was a real attention getter. And in a small town in Harlan County, Kentucky the police didn't bother me.

The A Model had a starter, but batteries were six volt and primitive, and sometimes didn't hold a charge very long, so the car also had a crank to turn the motor over if it became necessary. I sometimes made it necessary, even if it wasn't necessary. It had a crank that stuck in a hole under the radiator that was connected to the motor. All you had to do was give it a strong twist, and the motor would usually start. Sometimes it took three or four tries to get it started. I took great pleasure in stalling the engine right in the middle of town, grabbing the crank, hopping out, and cranking the engine to get it started again. I liked to have people stop and watch to see if I got it started. Sometimes this would hold up a car or two behind me, but that just made it more fun. After it started I would hop in, wave to everybody, and go rattling off.

You just couldn't have more fun for nineteen cents a gallon for gasoline. Of course, I used the cheapest grade, because it made the car backfire better. It didn't have gauges, so I had to stick a stick down into the gas tank to see how much gas was in it. I always liked to do this in public too. And I loved to make a show of shifting the gear shift lever with my foot. Not everybody could do that.

There was no speedometer, but I told everybody it had two gears ---- high and fly, and offered to take them for a ride to prove it. The only takers were my friends who didn't care about mud or bugs, or people looking at them like they were crazy. I wanted to paint it purple, and call it "The Purple People Eater," but there was nothing to paint. I wanted to put a sign on it saying, AFree Taxi for Girls,@ but there was no place to hang the sign. Of course, there was no way to lock it, but nobody would have been stupid enough to steal the AMonster@ anyway.

But I didn't care what they called it. It was beautiful to me, and I had created it all by myself. But I couldn't drive it at night; because it didn't have headlights or taillights. And when I parked it at night I had to take the cushions in the house in case it rained. You got a sore bottom bouncing around on the rough roads without cushions in the barrels. But I wouldn't have traded it for a Cadillac.

I created that monster for about thirty dollars. Today that's enough to buy about half a tank of gas. The good old days are gone forever. How sad!
