From The Secretary's Desk

You will notice that our program for April is "Move Up Night". Our Worshipful Master, Brother Glen E. Paulhamus, will be having surgery at the Hershey Medical Center on Monday, April 6, 2009 and will not be at the April Meeting. Our Senior Warden, Brother Michael J. Osborn, will be filling in at the East.

Thank you to all the Brethren who helped with this year's Daffodil Days sale for the American Cancer Society. Ivy Lodge has been selling daffodils for several years now for this worthwhile charity.

We are down to just a few Brethren who still owe 2009 dues. As per Masonic law we must suspend anyone who is in arrears for non-payment of dues at the April meeting. Unfortunately that will probably be the case, but the Brethren who owe dues may pay them up until the start of the Stated Meeting on April 7.

Again, we can use help at the Temple on any Saturday morning. Stop by – the coffee pot is always on – and visit for awhile. You will like what you see!

Remember that reservations are absolutely required for the Stated Meeting dinner. Call either the Master or myself by the Friday before the Stated Meeting to make your reservation.

See you at the April meetings.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Jeffrey W. Dugan, PM
