From the Secretary's Desk

Brethren,

When was the last time you came to Lodge? Do you remember what it was like to sit in a Lodge meeting with your Brethren? Are you afraid that you "can't get in" because you haven't attended in so long?

Why not give a Lodge meeting a try? Come and join us at a Stated Meeting and get to know the Brethren of Ivy Lodge No. 397.

Do you remember the ritual? I'll bet you do. It comes back and you will find yourself sitting there and going through the words of the familiar ritual of the Stated Meeting right along with a lot of the other Brethren in the room.

The Lodge room is pretty much the same. A lot of the faces are changed, but everyone there is still your Brother. That will never change.

Recently Ivy Lodge No 397 voted to stay in residence at the Masonic Temple at 360 Market Street. Two of the Lodges are considering a move to other quarters, but Ivy Lodge along with Lodge 106 consider this their home – as it has been for over a century now – and both of those Lodges are not going to be moving anywhere.

So Brethren ... you know where we are. We have been meeting on the first Tuesday of each month for decades. The food is good. The fellowship is great. If you need a ride you can call one of the officers and you can get a ride. There's nothing stopping you. We'll be looking for you. We miss seeing you.

Come join us, Brother.

Fraternally,

Jeffrey W. Dugan, PM
Secretary
