“Welcome Back!!”

Welcome back my brothers. I hope everyone has had an awesome summer. It is hard to believe it went by so fast. We are going to be pretty busy this fall, so I would like to see as many faces in Lodge as possible. If you know of someone that hasn't been around in a while give them a call and encourage them to come see what's going on. Also I would like to remind the officers that if you are unable to attend a meeting please give me a call (764-1377) or leave a message, that way we can try and cover for you.

Secrecy:

Within proper bounds, Masons may and should welcome publicity. A secret society is one which seeks to conceal its existence and its objects. Freemasonry is not such a society and is secret only as to the obligations, means of recognition, ballots upon candidates and forms and ceremonies observed in conferring degrees. With the exception of those particulars, Masonry has no reservations from the public. As to everything else - - its design, its moral and religious tenets and the doctrines taught by it, the time and place of its meetings, the names of the officers of a Lodge and those belonging to it - - are all in no way secret and may be known by anyone.
