PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Supreme Forest, Tall Cedars of Lebanon of the United States, and the specific authority bestowed by Blanket Authority granted by the Senior Deputy Supreme Tall Cedar, under date of 17 December, 1949, I hereby Call a meeting of Montgomery Forest No. 134, to be held in the Masonic Temple, Kensington, Maryland, on 22nd April, 1950, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of transacting such business as may come before the Forest, and exemplifying the Prolog and Royal Court on a class of candidates.

Given under my Hand and Seal this Fourth day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty.

ATTEST:

Don A. Smith,
Scribe

Wm. Homer Carroll, Sr.
Grand Tall Cedar

Royal Court and Prolog

Oh Yes, Indeed! We're all dressed up for Easter, but you all will have to wait until April 22nd, the date of our next meeting to see what we mean, to see us in full regalia. The Royal Court and Prolog costumes are the finest produced anywhere to date. So if you doubt us or you want to see something beautiful, come out on the 22nd and witness your Forest, Montgomery Forest No. 134 put on their first ceremonial for 1950. The famous name that follows our portrayal of the Royal Court and Prolog will not be lowered but assisted with the advent of our own wondrous costumes. Remember we do our best to a large audience and a packed house.

John Alcorn, Preceptor.

NOTICE

There will be a rehearsal of the Royal Court and Prolog after the Executive Meeting on April 21st at 8:30 p. m. in Kensington Auditorium in the Masonic Temple.

Friendship

I will not think that I have failed,
Or lived my life in vain,
If to my credit I shall find
One friend to be my gain,
And tho' the Road of Life is rough,
With Mountains hard to climb;
I find there's joy along the way,
And the journey, it is fine.

If there's a friend beside me:
To cheer me with his song,
To smile his understanding,
When everything goes wrong;
It gives me strength and courage,
The Mountains to ascend,
And I find that Life's worth living,
As long as there's a friend.

Then be not hasty when I'm gone,
To say I lived in vain,
Tho' ghosts of many failures,
Like monuments remain,
But when Life's sun is sinking,
And I reach the journey's end;
Then count my earthly riches
In the number of my friends.

GRAND TALL'S MESSAGE

Hi Ya Si:

Meeting at Bethesda, March 22nd, a successful, harmonious and entertaining one. Thirty-four Cedars braved the deluge to be present and were rewarded by being present at one of the finest meetings ever held.

On the 14th of March we visited Kensington Lodge and were warmly welcomed by our esteemed Trustee, Worshipful Brother Orville J. Montgomery. After witnessing the conferring of the Fellowcraft Degree we indulged in some marvelous eats in the Banquet Hall.

The Ladies Nite at the Kennedy-Warren was par excellence, the best yet. All hands had a wonderful time and asked that we hold more round dances there. One is scheduled for November 25th.

The costumes, with exception of turbans are complete and, from where I sit—they are tops in every respect. Come out on the 22nd of April and you will see them, for on that date the Prolog and Royal Court will be exemplified. Try and bring a Sap. We would like to have a nice class to initiate our new robes.

The Square Dance on April 1st was excellent and the Promenaders played to a packed house. Was you there Charlie? If not, you missed much.

Due to illness, business, etc., some officers have had to relinquish their posts and the following appointments are hereby made:

Chief Frolicer—John A. Harrison.

Guide—Albert O. Kroll.

Chairman of Membership Committee—Richard A. Harries, Sr.

Custodian—Arthur R. Hart.

Lieutenant (Stage settings)—Mathew J. Hindman.

Chairman Fellowship and Entertainment—John A. Harrison.

Chairman, Awards and Paraphernalia—Arthur R. Hart.

Other appointments are to be made in the near future. Am most desirous of securing the name of some Cedar who will handle our publicity.

Until further notice we will meet regularly at the Masonic Temple, Kensington on the 4th Saturday in each month. Ample storage space has been provided at the Temple so your Grand Tall may have the use of his garage. In addition, it will not be necessary to haul altars and scenery etc. about as heretofore. The stage at the Temple is of ample size for the portrayal of the Prolog and Royal Court.

My profound thanks to those Cedars who are working so hard and faithfully for our Forest.

Cedarly,
Willie Homer,
Grand Tall.

From The Scribe

If you are among those few who have not paid their 1950 dues, please send the Scribe your check for $5.00 at once so that you may be eligible to participate in the Convention which is being held in Washington this year.

—X—

Make use of the petitions that have been given out. Get some Saps for April 22nd.

This is old news to some but for those that have not heard—Ernie Riddle was stricken with acute appendicitis and was rushed to the hospital. With the modern age of Science, we are glad to report that he mastered the situation and we understand that he returned home to thoroughly recuperate.

Sign up the petitions for Saps.

Know Your Scribe

By

J. Dwight Cook, J. D. G. T. C.

At the institution of our Forest, Don A. Smith was approved by The Supreme Forest and installed as our Scribe. He has served in that capacity ever since. He also secured 24 Charter Petitions at that time. Don was born, December 21, 1909 in Williamsport, Pa. He and his wife, Thelma, were of the same class and were graduated from the high school of that city.

Don has been with The Metropolitan Police Department since 1939. He was detailed to the White House during the war years as guard to the President and his family. We don't think he has done any work since that time except to sit at a desk, push a pencil and play the drums in the Police Department Band.

Don, however, has the Forest very much at heart and at our square dances he is very galliard. Thelma being an excellent dancer has moulded the old flatfoot to such heights one would think him a member of some Russian Ballet performing “The Afternoon of a Faun.”

The Smiths reside at 10016 Brunett Ave., Silver Spring, Md. Daughter Doris is a Sophomore in the Montgomery Blair High School. Don is a member of Silver Spring Lodge No. 215 and is a member of St. Luke Lutheran Church. A likable Chap, look him up.

NEW FOREST

“Tom Havell in his little talk at our last meeting informed us of the advances made in Cedarism. The latest development is the development of a new Forest to be located at Norfolk, Virginia. Slowly and steadily, Cedarism is spreading in the eastern part of the country and if it continues to grow and grow, it will cover the Nation.

NEW MEMBERS

Short form initiation was given to three new Saps. They are hailed by the names of Brothers A. O. Kroll, R. B. Scott, and M. D. Russell. Welcome to the Cedars. We are ever trying to make our Forest grow, so let us get those petitions signed, and bring them in.

Echoes of Montgomery Forest

Spring is here !!! Doesn't that make you feel good? Doesn't it make you want to do things? Doesn't it give you an extra amount of Pep! Well Brother, your Forest can use it.

(Cedrus Libani)

First, the Rangers have depleted ranks, if you want to use your legs; the Band if you have excess wind; the Stunt Team, if you feel childish; in fact you can name all the groups and committees as everyone of them can use your talents if you let them know you are available. The Grand Tall does not know what each member's talents are and does not wish to appoint a misfit. Call him and tell him in what capacity you will help the Forest.

Leopard skins, gold and blue silks and velvets, embroidery of the finest—Gosh! you can't express the beauty of our new robes to be used in the Royal Court and Prolog in words. All I can say is come out April 22nd and see them. Grand Tall Carroll, Aide Thompson, and Preceptor Alcorn, the models can't help but rave about them.

Next month, Washington will be the scene of the National Convention of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon. Let us all put our best foot forward and bring honors to Montgomery Forest.

Your Editor.

Another Forest in Florida

Our energetic Supreme Tall Cedar took time out during his recent vacation in Florida, and applied some waters from the Fountain of Youth in reviving one of our former Forests at Palm Beach, Florida. This Forest takes the title:

PALM BEACH FOREST, No. 113,
T. C. L.

The reorganization meeting was very largely attended by former members and a class of 77 candidates, with applications for membership still coming in. From the enthusiasm displayed, and the calibre of influential men identified with the organization, much is expected from plans immediately laid to make this Forest outstanding and to bring in other new Forests along the East Coast. That Cedarism will fill a great need in this area, was the theme of the meeting.

The Supreme Tall Cedar installed the officers, including Walter E. Sansbury, P. O. Box 1461, West Palm Beach, Florida, as Grand Tall Cedar, and Paul E. Stephan, Scribe, 715 Dobbins Street, West Palm Beach, Florida. Special credit is due Brother Sansbury, as well as Brother L. J. Shellburg, P. G. T. C.

The Forest was reorganized as of February 23, 1950, and will be placed in District No. 17.

Edmund H. Reeves
Supreme Scribe

Come out to our Regular Meeting on the 22nd and see the new robes for the Royal Court and the Prolog.

Wear Your Pyramid!

REGISTRATION

All Tall Cedars will register themselves and their guests at the general Registration Desk. The registration fee of $1.00 will be charged for each Tall Cedar regardless of rank and each of his guests. Each registrant is entitled to all privileges, including the entertainment at Constitution Hall on Friday evening and the Reception and Dance at the Mayflower Hotel on Saturday evening. Men in uniform of Tall Cedar units will also be admitted on Saturday evening.

ENTERTAINMENT AT CONSTITUTION HALL

Due to the large number of registrants, and the seating capacity of Constitution Hall, whose rules permit no standees, it will be necessary to have two performances of the identical program. Early registrants will be admitted to the first performance until the capacity is reached, those failing to find seats will be admitted for the second show.

PARADE FEATURES

Many prizes will be offered for Floats, Bands, Bugle Corps, Rangers, and Comical Groups. It will be a parade of parades.

First Cedars, let your name get on this list and then have the number after your name increase each month. To get your name on this list, all you have to do is procure one (1) SAP. Let's go and see who will top the list at the end of this year.

Can you imagine an officer, that is an elective officer of the Cedars appearing at a meeting without his Tux. Well, it cost a certain person a dollar last meeting and although we do not wish to mention a name, we suggest that you contact George Heilman for details. (Editor's note:—He had the floor more than the Grand Tall, once he got started, he couldn't be stopped. Why?)

Brother Elmer Nelson is slowly improving and from the last reports is slowly getting up and around again. We miss seeing you Elmer, so hurry up and get well.

Square Dance a Success

Saturday evening, April 1st, 240 souls stomped 480 soles on the floor of the Silver Spring Intermediate School Gymnasium and the boys really swung their gals. It was a hilarious and gala crowd and every one came to have a good time. In fact they didn't let up at all but kept Eb'n Ely and their Serenaders fiddlin' strummin', pickin' and slappin' all evening.

We did alright financially too, and we now seem to have an excellent following for our square dances. It's mighty pretty, folks, to see about 25 sets doing their stuff at the same time. If you missed it, you missed a lot. Try to get out to the next one, we are sure you will like to square once you have tried it. Plenty of people will be glad to help you.

John Dillenbeck and his boys sold all of our soft drinks, so we hope no one went home thirsty.

Have you secured your quota of SAPS?

Round Dance

The Kennedy-Warren Apartments was the scene of the first formal dance of Montgomery Forest No. 134 for 1950. Approximately 250 Cedars, their ladies, and their friends took over the ballroom on the night of March 24th. Table were conveniently provided around the dance floor, ladies appeared in their finery, setups were available, and Petranek's find, the orchestra supplied the music to the dancers. The soft lights and the evening gowns presented an inviting sight.

Dancing started at 10 o'clock and at 1 o'clock when the last strains of the goodnite waltz was sounded, the floor was still full and the dance ended too soon.

The dance was Montgomery Forest's way of showing its appreciation for your support. Every Cedar should retaliate now and support his Forest. Another night, similar to this night, is planned for November 25th.

Did you have a good time?
