Montgomery Forest No. 134

The Grand Tall Scribe

Dear Cedars of Montgomery Forest:

This is the season of the year when there is discussion among us on the election of officers at which time the Forest assumes a great responsibility. They must elect a Grand Tall Cedar, Sr. Depty., Jr. Depty, Scribe, Treasurer and one trustee. These are the Officers who carry the responsibility for the successful and efficient operation of the Forest's business. They should be elected because of their ability, enthusiasm and their experience in the Forest's affairs.

When a Cedar has been installed as Grand Tall, he is immediately conscious of the responsibility that goes with that honor; he wants his year to be outstanding; he wants to leave a record of accomplishments. Officers are to be appointed and the Grand Tall canvasses the Forest to select those who will work and who have time to devote to the Forest.

As your Grand Tall, I feel very strongly the responsibility of helping to select appointed officers who have the best qualifications to some day be intitled to wear the Red Pyramid.

Each advance in the progress of the appointed officers should be through effort and not the law of succession.

I urge every member to be present on Nov. 21 and cast his vote for the men you your choice.

Bring a candidate for the sidonian degree which will follow immediately after the election.

Sincerely yours in cedarism, Myron

THE INDISPENSABLE MAN

Sometime when you're feeling important
Sometime when you're ego's in bloom,
Sometime when you take it for granted.
You're the best qualified in the room,
Sometime when you feel that your going
Would leave an unfillable hole,
Just follow this simple instruction
And see how it humbles your soul.
Take a bucket and fill it with water,
Put your hands in it up to your wrists,
Pull them out and the hole that remains
Is the measure of how you'll be missed.
You may splash all you please when you enter,
You may stir up the water galore,
But stop and you'll find in a minute
That it looks just the same as before

OCTOBER

MEETING

Anyone who missed the last meeting sure missed a good one. We were honored by the visit of the following Supreme Forest Officers: Supreme Tall Cedar, Bayard Saler; Sr. Depty., John Hollinger,; Jr. Depty., Jack Smith; Supreme Scribe, Ed Reeves; and Past Supreme Tall Cedars, John H. McFaul and Tom Havell. Of course our Dist. Rep., Newman Smoot Lee was there. Among our visitors were our old friends Willard Thomas and Louis Schmidt and many Grand Talls and members from other Forests. Capitol Forest's Band was there and helped much in making the evening a success. Our thanks to the leader, Bra. Harper, and all his men.

If you're looking for your Dues Card — you won't find it until you fork over $6.00 to the Scribe. There are still a few left in the Scribe's office. Check yours and see if it is a 1953 card.

A GRANDPA

Our Brother Youngblood, who is responsible for all the good eats we get at the meetings, is the proud Grandfather of a 6lb 7 oz. boy. Greg Michael is the name but we know he will be "Mike". Congrats!

From Out Of Town Brothers

Had a letter from Jewell Carroll in Thorsby, Ala. the other day and he's doing well on his farm down there. From the sound of all the things he put down in his deep freeze — he must be getting fat. Any of you brothers get hungry — just go see him.

Be sure to go to the Thanksgiving Dance Nov. 28.
