Grand Tall Cedar
Charles Ware

I want to start off by saying thanks to all who contributed to making the Crab Feast, the Fair, and the Rose Sales the successes they were. Especially our young people in the Jobs Daughters and Rainbow.

Your Forest is going to be busy again this month. The degree teams will be preparing for the Full Form Ceremony. If you want to be on a degree team, let your name be known to the Preceptor or any officer of the Forest.

Congratulations to the National Champion Sidonian Team on a fine performance to bring the championship to Montgomery Forest.

A Nominating Committee has been appointed to present candidates for office at the October meeting. Contact PGTC Al Fleisher, Chairman, PGTC Bob Ross, or JDGTC Bob Alexander with your recommendations and suggestions. Now is the time to step forward and take a leadership role in your Forest.

The Forest held a special meeting on September 13. It was an enlightening experience for me and I hope productive for those who attended. If you missed it, you lost out on learning some of the history and character of Montgomery Forest. Let's learn from it and proceed to new objectives and goals, using our past as a strong foundation.

Don't forget the Halloween Party on October 29. See you there!

Chuck

FROM THE SENIOR DEPUTY

Senior Deputy
Walter C. Mullican

Our September meeting went along as well as it could, considering the number of brethren present.

I think those who were there enjoyed the presentation the Drum and Bugle Corps gave us. Keep it up, fellas! It was enjoyable and I hope you keep up the same spirit next year.

Everyone be with us next meeting for the Full Form Ceremony and nominations of officers for the coming year.

Mark it down and be there for the Halloween Party on Saturday, October 29! There will be live music and door prizes. There will also be a prize for the best outfit. This will be hosted by the Color Guard. Price is $15 a couple, time 9:00 p.m. 'til midnight. So come on out and show that the Forest hasn't lost its trend for Fun, Frolic, and Fellowship!

Cedarly,

CHIPS FROM THE CHAPLAIN

MARK 10:13-14. Some people brought children to Jesus for him to touch them, but the Disciples scolded those people. When Jesus noticed it, he was angry and said to his disciples, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Harry G. Annis, Jr
Chaplain

I want to share some of my personal life with you. I think anyone who has been close to young children can identify with this.

Little Grandson:

Grandma and I were sitting for you tonight. I softly came in your room and looked down at you. I saw you smiling in your sleep. I thought I should write this down. Someday you will know how very hard it is for a dad or granddad to tell a boy how much he loves him.

You looked so precious as I looked at you in your sleep, my heart nearly broke. I thought, how near to God we were and only He knows our future. You are growing up so fast. I never seem to realize how you change. One day you let me hold you in my lap and look at a book together; the next time you may be grown up too much for that. Soon you will approach that strange age: too young to drive the car but too grown up to fall asleep in granddad's arms. I know the future holds great things for you. With God's blessing you will receive them.

You will go from today to a tomorrow when you will find you have grown up. It is so very fast and I hate to see you go; but I know it's the only way. You will leave behind your toy cars and playthings, childhood aches and pains, and, of course, me.

I promise not to show how hurt I am when you find the world of grown up more exciting than your granddad's lap.

Yesterday you were shoes off, shirttail out, and the happiest of kids. Tomorrow you'll be grey slacks, shirt and tie, and you'll see the world from a higher level. Yesterday you could fix a broken toy with a rubber band. Tomorrow you'll break a young lady's heart with a kiss. Yesterday you could get lost an aisle away in a store. Tomorrow I'll see you go down another aisle with a young lady and I'll feel I'm losing more of the little boy I knew.

Yesterday, at times, you were a pain in the neck. Soon you'll be an ache in my heart, because I know you'll no longer be the little boy I saw tonight.

The clock in the hall is ticking away the minutes for you and we know God is saving the brightest days for you. I can't expect you to stay a baby forever. The little birds leave their nests and the butterfly leaves its cocoon. You, too, will have to go on your own.

I'll always remember how you used to scatter toys all over the house and leave your hand prints around. But you scattered a lot of love and happiness also. Grandma has picked up your toys and the hand prints have been cleaned. You'll always leave a lot of love in our hearts.

Well, here I am thinking about you and you are sleeping so soundly. It's best because if you saw the tears of joy in my eyes you would wonder why; and if I tried to talk with this lump in my throat I'd cry. Someday you may see this note and wonder what the spots are on it. They are tear drops, and I'm proud.

So I bent over and kissed you goodnight. You looked like a prince and I felt like a king.

You see I have had a similar experience, when your mom and your uncle were your age. I'm so proud of them today. The strange thing is, if it weren't

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

Congratulations to Pearl Hunt for a well-run Vice President's meeting on September 17. If "practice makes perfect," I don't think Pearl needs much--she's all ready for next year. Good job!

Our Soup and Salad Dinner, before the meeting, was served to very few people--the usual faithful--but we did make a profit (every little bit helps.) Thank you to George Moyer for homemade Minestrone, Carolyn Terry for delicious Chicken Corn Chowder, and Ginny Mullican for fantastic Vegetable Beef Soup. Edie Spadin made her famous "Trifle," Judy Alexander made a "punch bowl" cake, and Pearl Hunt made home-made apple pie. These beautiful foods were a delicious feast. Sorry for those of you who didn't come along.

Our Fashion Show will be held at Claude's Restaurant in Gaithersburg on October 23, 12-3 p.m. Tickets are $12.50. Dress Barn at Wintergreen Plaza will provide lovely clothes for our lovely models. This is an important Ways & Means project. Edie Spadin is in charge of this special event and you will be hearing from her regarding tickets, etc. Please respond to her letter and plan to join us for lots of fun on October 23.

Our pride and thoughtful support go with our Lady Clowns as they go to the National Clown Competition in Pennsville, NJ, on September 24. These ladies have "clowned around" and brought many honors to our Forest and more than a few dollars to our treasury. MAKE-UP.....!!!! We will be honoring our Lady Clowns at our October meeting.

We have had several discussions at Executive Meetings about our Birthday Dinner in November. We have, for the past few years, served a catered dinner to our Cedarettes, charging only a small sum for a guest/spouse. The event, as it stands, has become cost prohibitive; and, as a result, this year we will ask for a donation from both Cedarettes and their guest. I hope this will not diminish your interest in this special occasion. This year we will be 10 years old.

We must come to terms with the financial attitudes of the real world outside of Cedar functions. Everything costs more: heat, paper goods, flowers, etc.

A proposal to raise our dues from $5 to $10 was defeated this year. It must be pointed out that dues income is the foundation upon which we sustain ourselves. Ways & Means projects add to our resources; but you can't run an organization, financially or any other way, on maybe's or unknowns. It is a fact well known to all of us that some projects, however well planned, do not work well. We have a need to support ourselves; and, updating our dues commitment is an important issue that must be realistically addressed. Please give this matter serious consideration and let your thoughts be known. Drop me a line or call if you are not able to come to regular meetings. I'm very interested in your feelings about this important issue.

It's the time of year to consider officers for next year. If the Nominating Committee calls you-- won't you think "maybe?" instead of "NO!" It's hard work and a challenge, but lots of fun, too. I wouldn't have missed it. Come on, get in line.

Love,
