GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

GRAND TALL CEDAR
Scott A. Sharpless

I wish to apologize for not being able to attend last months meeting. I understand there was a birthday party for me. I'm sorry I missed it and I'd like to thank you for remembering. I'd also like to thank Harry for filling in for me.

For all of the Cedars and Cedarettes who attended the Rock-A-Thon a note of thanks for a job well done. Also, a special thank you to the Cedarettes who made cookies. Of course, the ones who deserve the greatest thanks of all are to Jobies who went out and got donations for Muscular Dystrophy. Hopefully someday there will be no need to have a Rock-A-Thon because, Through all our efforts, we helped find a cure for M.D.

What a wonderful day we had a Mount Vernon. The Wreath Laying Ceremony was as impressive as ever. Afterwards we got a chance to tour the house and grounds for free. If you ever get a chance and haven't seen the ceremony honoring our first President, you should take the time one year and see it.

Grand Tall Con't pg 18

From the SENIOR DEPUTY

SENIOR DEPUTY

Harry G. Annis, Jr.

Brothers:

Your forest is very active in April. We will have a full form ceremony at our meeting on April 20. Don't forget the dinner at 6 P.M. by the Cedarettes. Come out enjoy a dinner and then the full form.

The Anniversary Dinner Dance is on April 27. Get your tickets early. Last date to purchase is the 20 of April.

Our units will be prepared for the convention on May 30 to June 2. We are staying at the same place Ala Moana, that we stayed the last time we visited Wild wood

The May meeting will be Master Mason Night and open, so invite your mason friends to be a part of this meeting. It is not too early to ask them.

Don't forget the dinner at 6 P.M. before the meeting

Help keep your forest moving ahead.

Cedarly, Nancy

JUNIOR DEPUTY
Norman L. Clark

I wish to thank Brother Mike Miller for the home made spaghetti with meatballs. brothers Russ Spitzer and Nick Kendros for assisting in serving the food and the Cedarettes for the delicious desert at our 16 March meeting. Also, like to thank Brother Carl Sharpless for all his help.

At our Saturday 20 April meeting a full ceremonial service will be held for new members. A Ham dinner will be held before the meeting starting at 6 PM. The dinner will be prepared by the Cedarettes and served by the Cedars. Please attend to welcome the new members into our Forest.

Saturday 27 April is our BIG Anniversary dinner dance with a eight piece "BIG BAND SOUND". The menu will be Steamship round and Cordon bleu with all the trimmings. Members requiring transportation to this great event should contact me and arrangements will be made. Also, those members who are unable to personally purchase tickets from one of the officers or the Anniversary Chairman, Carl Sharpless, can send a check to me and tickets can be picked up at the door on the 27th. The tickets are only $18.00 each.

Brother Cedars.

Are you aware of the fact that Montgomery Forest is one of only a few Forests in the Cedar Kingdom, that has its own meeting place? If you do not maybe I can tell you. About Twenty or so years ago, a group of the members all gathered together and by giving freely of many hours of their own time were able to build the Cedar Club we now enjoy. There is now just one small problem, Most of those Men are now well advanced in age and some have even passed to the Eternal Forest so are therefore no longer able to keep the building in the state of repair that needs to be done. Since they are no longer able to do this, no one else has even thought to ask if they can help out, so nothing is being done and we all complain and sit back and do nothing but complain. maybe it is time for some of the rest of us to get the spirit that used be a part of the Fun, Frolic and Fellowship that every one coming forward to offer to be a part of the new generation of Montgomery Forest Tall Cedars.

I am sure that there are still quite a few of you who have enjoyed endless hours of good times and dances at our Club, NOW is the time that we should get together and support the coming Anniversary Dinner Dance to be held at the Club on Sat April 27th. Lets make it the start of a new era of the Good Tall Cedar FUN, FROLIC AND FELLOWSHIP THAT WE CAN BE TOGETHER AT OUR OWN CLUB.

I hope to see you on the 27th.

THE DAWNING OF SPRINGTIME

The trees and flowers will come to life
With dawning of the spring,
And birds who long had southward flown
Return and gayly sing.

The fields will lose their barren look
And turn so bright and green.
The earth will seem to be reborn
And smell so fresh and clean.

Such is the wondrous hand of God
In His majestic way,
When winter gives way to the spring
And brightens up our day.

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

Our March meeting is history and "hats (Easter Bonnets!?) off" to First Vice President Gin Masenheimer for a terrific job in presiding over the meeting in President Nancy's absence. (Nancy was off "clowning around.")

We welcomed Ann Edwards, Past President, Prince Georges Cedarettes, and Marge Catherman and Esther Dodson, Past Presidents, Annapolis Cedarettes. It is always a joy to have the ladies of other Cedarette/Auxiliary groups with us.

The petition of Doris Statler was read and accepted. Doris, who is a member of Prince Georges Cedarettes, will become a Montgomery Cedarette at our April meeting. She will then hold a dual membership in both organizations.

The only word we heard concerning the Ladies Clown Competition was that the Traveling Trophy is still in good hands! We look forward to hearing about the Competition at the April meeting.

If the weather held, President Nancy held a rummage sale at her home on March 23. Thanks to all who helped out.

The Sunshine Report mentioned that Marilyn Brenner will undergo neck surgery; that Evelyn and Nelson Stalker's son was at Johns Hopkins and also that Evelyn and Nelson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently. It was good to see Frances Geiser and Lorraine Blalock at our meeting.

Cedarettes Con't.

The Precision Drill Team reported they are practicing on Monday evenings, 7:30-9:30 p.m., at Rockville High. You are invited to watch them practice any time.

Congratulations to Martha Seibert who won the door prize.

Norine Spitzer discussed the Second Annual Sexy Nightie Contest which will be held at 10:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 1, in the Montgomery Forest Hospitality Room at Convention. Exotic Dancer Alberta Fleishette will make an appearance, so you won't want to miss this exciting event! Norine needs wigs, makeup, and nighties (the large, flowing kind) and you can contact Norine at 703/425-5160 for more information.

First V.P. Gin mentioned that the Burn Brae Dinner Theatre OKLAHOMA! event was a huge success and also shared that although Henrietta Wigner was unable to attend, she sent in a contribution. Thanks for your generosity, Henry!! We look forward to seeing you at a meeting real soon!

Following our meeting, an "Easter Bonnet Parade" was held for the men. Judges picked Diane Huff, Nettie McIntire, and Beryl Moyer as winners in each of three designated categories. Congratulations, Ladies!

Don't forget the ham dinner that will precede our April meeting. More details will appear in our letter.

Cedarettely,

Barbara Ware

Goodness is a special kind of truth and beauty. It is truth and beauty in human behavior.

As everyone knows convention time is coming soon. We are staying at the Ala Moana Hotel, the same hotel as we did in 1989. If you are planning on attending, contact PGTC David Holley for reservations.

Also coming up this month is our 43rd Anniversary Dinner Dance on the 27th. This year it's being held at the Cedar Hall. The cost is $18.00 per person. It will feature a live 2 piece dance band and many surprises. See the ad in the Echo for more details.

For those who missed last months meeting, you missed a good one. Our Grand Tall for the night was PGTC Don Bartel who gathered up a full line of other past officers. Thanks to Don and his officers for making my Past Officer's Night a great one.

Cedarly, Scott

Please purchase tickets as soon as possible in order for us to get a head count of persons who will be attending. Final cut-off date for purchasing tickets is 20 April 1991.

Saturday 18 May will be an open meeting for Master Mason night with dinner served before the meeting. This time the Cedars will prepare the dinner and the Cedarettes will serve it. All members are requested to invite members of their lodge to attend this evening of fellowship and to share dinner with us.
