GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

GRAND TALL CEDAR

Harry G. Annis, Jr.

Our Forest is moving ahead. We have a lot of enthusiasm. Next year G.T.C. Norman has great plans and I know we will all help him as much as possible.

We have had a great year. We have seen some older members return and we have some younger brothers active. Our meetings have much to offer. We have made them interesting. Lets all keep Montgomery alive and well.

I will continue to serve the Cedars and will do all I can to see Montgomery grow. May God bless all of you.

Emily and wish each one a happy and prosperous holiday.

As Ever,

Cedarly,

FROM THE SENIOR DEPUTY

SENIOR DEPUTY Norman L. Clark

I have had a wonderful year as the SDGTC and made a lot of new friends. Many thanks to the brothers who have helped me during the year. I am looking forward to the coming year as the GTC and the many events that are planned and will do my best to ensure that the Forest will prosper in 1993. To the inactive members, come out to the meetings and join in the fun, frolic, and friendship.

Congratulations to the newly elected officers: brothers Al Spaden, SDGTC, Uwe Reiber, JDGTC, Emile Joseph, Treasurer, and Wayne Blackburn, Trustee. I am looking forward to serving with the elected and appointed officers, committee chairman, unit officers and all Forest members. The continued support of the Cedarettes is most welcomed and appreciated.

Many activities have been scheduled for the new year, specifically, mid-winter conference (15-17 January), Anniversary Dinner Dance honoring P.G.T.C. Myron Jones (27 March), Convention (19-23 May), Memorial Day picnic (31 May), Crab Feast at Wheaton Moose (29 August) and a Halloween Dance (30 October) and bus trip in planning stages now. Entertainment will be provided at most meetings. I have received a lot of help in planning the upcoming year and have selected OUTSTANDING CEDARS FOR CHAIRING THE SPECIAL ACTIVITIES.

A lot of members stated that they are going to travel to other Forests in 1993. Join us in these visitations and you will be rewarded by receiving fun, frolic and friendship. The meeting nights for District 20 are listed in the ECHO. We also attend Baltimore, HAR-RC, and Annapolis Forests as much as possible. Anyone needing a ride should give me or one of the other line officers a call.

I am looking forward to the installation on 19 December and hope that all members will attend. Refreshments will be served after the installation.

Cedarly,
Norm

Spiritual maturity begins when we are God's guests in this world. We are not householders, but pilgrims; not landlords, but tenants; not owners, but guests.

C. Willard Fetter

Grace of God

We have need of patience with ourselves and with others; with those below and those above us, and with our own equals; with those who love and those who love us not; for the greatest things and for the least; against sudden inroads of trouble, and under our daily burdens; for disappointments as to the weather, or the breaking of the heart; in the weariness of the body, or the wearing of the soul; in our own failure of duty, or others' failure toward us; in everyday wants, or in the aching of sickness or the decay of age; in disappointment, bereavement, losses, injuries, reproaches; in heaviness of the heart or in sickness amid delayed hopes. In all these things, from childhood's little troubles to the martyr's sufferings, patience is the grace of God, whereby we endure evil for the love of God.

Edward B. Pusey

Montgomery Cedarettess

Dear Cedarettess,

How swiftly the sands of time flow and so did this year. It seems only yesterday I was installed as your President. There have been so many meetings and activities to remember.

In January we had our first joint memorial service, a time to remember our members whom God has called to his Heavenly Kingdom. This year Montgomery Forest #134 was host for the Rock-A-Thon at the Cedar Club. The Cedarettess helped by making cookies and serving them at the first round of eats. And we enjoyed the Singing Cedars at the Annual Anniversary Dinner Dance of the Forest.

Once again it is my pleasure to welcome our new members of 1992: Jane Liverman, DeAnna Knight, and Heather Mullican. Please, ladies, get active and enjoy our Fun, Frolic, and Fellowship.

Our Lady Clowns once again made a fantastic showing at the Supreme Forest Clown Competition in Newark, DE. They came home with many trophies as well as the Traveling Trophy for the eighth year!

At the April meeting our Past Presidents were honored. I was glad to see so many present. In May we had another successful Annual Bay Bridge Walk for M.D. With Pledges made to ten Cedarettess, two Cedars, two guests, our own M.D. young man, Matthew Haley, and Mom Alice, we were able to present the Forest $1,267 for M.D. Again we enjoyed a picnic at the Moyers following the Walk. Also in May our Parade Drill Team participated in the Olney Parade and brought home a first-place prize!

THE MONTGOMERY CEDARETTES

I was very proud of our Units' participation at the Convention in Wildwood, NJ. The Precision Drill Team performed Friday night, looked real sharp; and, according to most present, should have won second place--but not in the judges' eyes. The Street Team won first place in their category in the parade.

In June we had our Annual Steak Dinner and also welcomed the Presidents from NorVa and HarCe Cedarettes. We also helped to serve dinner to the M.D. patients as they came to camp in Port Deposit, MD. The Cedars from District 20 did a great job cooking chicken. June was a sad month for Montgomery Cedarettes as we lost one of our faithful members, Frances Geiser. We shall miss her.

Many Cedarettes helped with and attended the Annual Crab Feast of Montgomery Forest No. 134.

First Vice President Janet Clark conducted our September meeting after we enjoyed a delicious Pot Luck Dinner. It was a job well done, Janet, and I am looking forward to your leadership in '93.

Again this year we had yard sales at Edie Spadin's and two rummage sales at Nancy Smith's. We also had two pizza kit sales. Thank you, Pearl Hunt and Nancy Smith, for picking up the kits in Baltimore and delivering them. And thank you, Cedarettes, for all your orders.

On October 30 we left for a great trip to Nashville, Tennessee. Highlights of the trip included staying at Oprey Land Hotel, brunch in the General Jackson, spending time at Oprey Land Park, attending the Grand Old Oprey, and just enjoying lots more sightseeing, shopping, and eating. Thanks to Les Graham, our bus driver, we had a safe and enjoyable trip.

A new venture this year was the selling of Wolfgang Candy. Thanks to all your orders, we were able to make a good sum for our Ways and Means along with the heart is made glad.*

our other ventures. Beryl Moyer and I traveled to York, PA, to pick up Easter and Christmas candy; and after getting back in town, we sorted and delivered it.

At our November meeting, the following ladies were elected to serve Montgomery Cedarettes in 1993: Janet Clark, President; Barbara Ware, First Vice President; Heather Mullican, Second Vice President; Edie Spadin, Secretary; and Liesellote Allen, Treasurer. Trustees are Birna Lenahan, Emily Annis, and Yours Truly (Gin Masenheimer). I am looking forward to a great 1993! Let's all support these ladies.

We celebrated our 14th birthday by sharing a cake with all who were in attendance.

Along with all this looking back and remembering, I would be very remiss if I didn't say a special THANK YOU to Pearl Hunt, our Sunshine Chairman. Pearl spent much time sending out cards and flowers, coordinating food following funerals, and visiting Cedaettes at home or in the hospital. I'm very grateful for all your help this year, Pearl!

Don't forget Installation of 1993 Officers Grand Tall Cedar Clark and President Clark on Saturday, December 19 at 8:00 p.m. Come out and give them your support.

All things must come to an end and I must say I have truly enjoyed being your President. To all my elected and appointed officers, I say "a job well done." I could not have done it without you. Thank you for a year I will long remember.

May you all have a healthy, happy, and prosperous year in '93!

*God Bless
Henry*
