GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

GRAND TALL CEDAR

Harry G. Annis, Jr.

We now know Montgomery Forest can move ahead. We had a great turnout at the February dinner. The meeting was well attended. The cake walk after was a lot of fun and proved to be profitable. If you were not there you missed a lot of what we are all about.

March holds even more enjoyment. The Executive meeting is wednesday March 11. All members are welcome to attend. We need your input. This is where the future of your forest is decided. Put the date on your pad now.

March meeting will be preceded by a roast beef dinner at 6:30 Mike Miller and Norm Clark will take charge. The meeting will be open. Invite all your friends. We will have a Montgomery County K9 dog and handler tell us some facts, at about 9:00

The Anniversary Gala is headed by Al Spadin. The catered dinner, Singing Cedars, Dance to their BIG band all for a break even price of only $25.00 is a real bargain

From the SENIOR DEPUTY

SENIOR DEPUTY

Nerman L. Clark

The dinner, meeting, and cakewalk at the February meeting appeared to be enjoyed by all who attended. Thanks to the GTC Harry, and his bride for cooking the delicious dinner. The dinner was served by William Scott, Norm Clark, Russ Spitzer, and of course, Harry. Thanks to the Cedarettes for preparing and serving the coffee after the meeting.

21 March meeting - Mason Nights. A dinner will be served at 6:30. (See the notice in this Echo). Mike Miller will prepare the dinner and serve with help from the Senior Deputy, Junior Deputy, and the Grand Tall Cedars aides. Please contact your Mason friends, who are not Cedars, and invite them to break bread with us at 6:30PM and attend the meeting at 8PM. Entertainment will be provided after the meeting.

Harry has a lot of activities planned for this year. In order to make this year a successful one for Montgomery Forest, we must show our support by attending meetings and activities and assisting in the planing and implementation of these activities. Since I have bad knees, I can appreciate that a lot of members cannot perform some physical labors, but there are a lot of tasks they can perform within their physical limitations.

Cedarly,

From the JUNIOR DEPUTY

JUNIOR DEPUTY

Russ L. Spitzer

By the time you read this article, many of our scheduled events have come and gone. I hope you did your share to make these projects a success for your Forest. Many more events are planned in the near future. Join us in the fun, frolic and fellowship of all these activities. Most of all I urge you to attend our Annual Anniversary Gala on March 28th. This will be a most enjoyable evening for all those who participate.

I look forward to many new and different projects during my term in line. I hope you enjoyed the refreshments at our February meeting, and congratulations to the winner of the door prize. Remember to give me any ideas you may have that can make our meetings fun and enjoyable to attend.

Speaking about fun, looking ahead at our convention, Montgomery Forest will again be holding its now famous SEXY NIGHTEY CONTEST. What fun this has been the past 2 years. This year we are planning to raise monies for M.D. through pledges for our participants. Many more awards are planned for this years contestants. Maybe you will be a winner, that is, if you join the fun.

Cedarly

THE CHILD'S APPEAL

I am the Child.
All the world waits for my coming
All the earth watches with interest to see what I shall become.
Civilization hangs in the balance,
For what I am, the world of tomorrow will be.

I am the Child.
I have come into your world, about which I know nothing.
Why I came I know not;
How I came I know not.
I am curious; I am interested.

I am the Child.
You hold in your hand my destiny.
You determine, largely, whether I shall succeed or fail.
Give me, I pray you, those things
that make for happiness.
Train me, I beg you, that I may be a blessing to the world.

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

What a great meeting we had! The room was filled with Montgomery Cedarettes and guests from Capitol, Prince Georges, Annapolis, and HarCe. Quite a crowd to welcome our newest Cedarette, Jane Liverman. Jane was given her Obligation by Acting Chaplain Edna Speich and was presented her pin by P.P. Beryl Moyer.

The appearance of our meeting room was greatly enhanced with our BRAND NEW PODIUM, designed and built by Mark Moyer (son of Beryl and George). Come out to our next meeting and see this beautiful piece of work.

Montgomery Forest's liaison to the Cedarettes, George Moyer, visited with us and shared upcoming Forest events. These will be listed in detail in the March newsletter.

Norine Spitzer described this year's Sexy Nightie Contest which will be held on the Saturday night of Convention. It sounds like a very exciting event is planned. More details will appear in our March letter.

President Gin was presented an angel doll from Doris Stadler. The outfit was handmade by Doris' daughter and was presented as a thank you for all the Montgomery Cedarettes did for their family following the devastating house fire they suffered recently.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Nancy Louia and Brenda Louia on the recent death of their father-in-law (Ronnie's and Doug's father). Just prior to Mr. Louia's death, Mrs. Louia was hospitalized with a stroke.

Cedarettes Con't.

Congratulations are in order for the following Cedarettes: Heide Petrie who gave birth to a baby girl recently (Pat Chalk is a proud grandmother and Jeanette Mortimer is a proud great-grandmother!); Frances Geiser (new grandmother); Evelyn Stalker (new grandmother).

Get Well/Thinking of You thoughts go out to Jean Ellett, Karen Lumpkin, and Al Spadin. Elva Horsman (who attended our meeting for the first time in quite a while [yea!!]) will undergo eye surgery in the near future.

The highlight of our evening was Secret Pal Night! Many ladies received wonderful gifts and learned who the Secret Pal was. Then P.P. Jean Sharpless distributed new forms and the fun begins all over again. Thank you, Jean, for a job well done these past few years.

One of the perks of being President of Montgomery Cedarettes is receiving a gift when least expected. Not only did President Gin receive one gift during our meeting (the doll mentioned earlier), she received two! First V.P. Janet Clark gave Gin -- you guessed it -- an angel. Yes, being President is a lot of work, but there are quite a few good times, too.

Following our meeting, the ladies joined the men and participated in a cake walk. Then everyone enjoyed a wonderful bag snack prepared by JDGTC Russ Spitzer.

The ham dinner prior to our meeting was delicious and I, for one, was grateful I didn't have to prepare supper that night.

See what you're missing by staying home! Plan to join us in March for more Fun, Frolic, and Fellowship!

Cedarettely,

Barbara J. Ware
