As a officer of Montgomery Forest for the past three years, I have experienced a lot of fun, frolic, and fellowship. The "End of Term Celebration" held last meeting was better than I expected. Many individuals expressed their appreciation for this type of meeting. I wish to express my deep appreciation for all the support I received from Montgomery Forest members (both Cedars and Cedarettes)

Congratulations to the newly elected officers. A special thanks to Ralph "Mike" Tolley for accepting JDGTC. Mike has been a member of the Forest for years and is welcomed back with open arms.

PGTC Bob Allen received the first Montgomery Forest TALL CEDAR OF THE YEAR AWARD. This award was approved by all elected officers who were not eligible for consideration. For those not present, Bob was presented with a medal attached to a Green and White ribbon and a certificate of appreciation. Bob worked hard for the Forest during 1993 even thou he is the President of the Northwest Shrine Club. Congratulations Bob for a job well done during 1993. GRAND TALL Con't. pg. 12

Tall Cedar, he has exemplified what Cedarism is all about. During his three year term, Norm and Janet travelled many miles visiting and supporting other forests, worked with the Ways and Means Chairman for many successful projects, held an Anniversary Dinner in honor of Myron Jones and the list could go on. Norm took the ball and got it rolling, and I, with my elected officers and supporters, plan to keep it rolling. In the future, if I need support, I know I can call and rely on him.

Norman had an open meeting on Sat. Nov. 20, in which he invited the Cedarettes to attend. At that time he gave out certificates and gifts to his elected officers and committee chairmans for supporting him this year. He also thanked the Cedarettes for their continuous support throughout the year.

Before the meeting was open to the ladies, an election was held. The slate is: Al Spadin, Grand Tall Cedar, Uwe Reiber, Senior Deputy, Ralph Tolley, Junior Deputy, G. Lee Ferguson, Scribe, P.G.T.C. & D.D.S.T.C. District 20, Emile Joseph, Treasurer, Paul Carroll, Wayne Blackburn and Lloyd Mcintire, Trustees. Thank you, gentlemen, for volunteering your support for the ensuing year. I know that ^{if} we all work together, we will have a great or even greater year than we did in 1933.

Don't forget installation on December 18, 1993. I hope to see you all there.

Cedarly,

From The Junior Deputy

Brothers,

Well another year has gone by and now we look forward towards the coming year. We had a great year, lets make next year just as good.

December 18th -Installation 8 p.m. at the Cedar Club. Refreshments after the Installation. Hope to have a great turn-out.

We shall miss Bob Garland, who recently passed away.

Lets have a greater Booster donation for 1994. Also don't forget the 365 Club for Muscular Dystrophy research for 1994.

Also thanks to the Cedarettes for the delicious dinner on Nov. 20th. We had a fantastic turn-out.

Cedarly,

BROTHER CEDARS:

LAST CHANCE to make your arrangements for MID-WINTER CONFERENCE! In a dramatic switch, the location has been moved to MARYLAND at Baltimore's Hyatt Regency Inner Harbor Hotel, just across the street from the harbor restaurant and shopping pavilions. The 2 night room/meal package rates range from $279 for one person to $418 for two. 1 night rates are available. To attend ONLY the Installation Banquet (without staying) is $35 per person. The Ladies Brunch is $15. We need to show our support for the location change with great attendance. Call me TODAY to get your reservation ball rolling. A $50 room deposit is required. DEADLINE is DECEMBER 10th!

It is with sorrow that I must report the passing of two Tall Cedars of Montgomery Forest: Billy Wolfe, a longtime member of the Drum & Bugle Corps, and Bob Garland, Past Grand Tall Cedar and Past Scribe. Bob was both my successor (Grand Tall Cedar) and predecessor (Scribe) and, as such, was a great source of counsel and support for me as I know he was for so many others. Bob and Billy will be greatly missed.

DON'T FORGET your MIDWINTER CONFERENCE reservation!

My thoughts tonight are about my children. These thoughts are probably the same all of us have even though our children are grown.

I think back, when I would go into my childrens room, as they slept. How much they were like sleeping angels. When I tucked them in at night, I never knew how old they would act when they awoke the next day.

One evening they would crawl on their Dad's lap and throw their arm around my neck; the next day they might be grown up too much for that sort of thing. They approached the awkward age; too young to drive a car and too old to be carried in the house asleep on their Dad's shoulder. They seemed to travel all the way from yesterday to today. It was a lightning trip of life. I know they had to travel light, leaving behind, batons, model cars, toys and me. I promise I won't feel too hurt when they discover that the world is more important than their Dad's lap.

Tomorrow they will view the world from a loftier perch. Yesterday Mom and Dad could heal a hurt finger with a kiss. Tomorrow, they may break a young lady's or mans heart with a hug or kiss. Yesterday they could get lost on the way home from school or in a super market only one aisle away. Now I have the worry that I have lost them down another aisle. You see just at the point when their growing pains stop, my pains just begin.

Yesterday somethings they did were a pain in the neck. Today they are an ache in my heart when they are not with me. The clock is counting the minutes for them and the sky is saving its brightest stars and the sun is waiting with its shiniest day to give to them.

I can't expect them to stay in a childs world forever. Sooner or later the smallest bird must leave the nest to try its wings, but now my children are grown. I'll still remember how they used to scatter model cars, blocks and toys and dust through every room in the house, but they spread sunshine too. The dust has settled, their mom has picked up the toys, but the sunshine will always fill the corners of our hearts.

So here I am writing and they are not here and I guess thats good, because if they could see the look on my face, they'd laugh and if I tried to speak with this lump in my throat, I'd cry.

Yes as I think of them tonight I am very proud. I'm sure they don't realize how fast they have grown up, but you may notice a change in me. I look a lot older, a little sadder and a little wiser, but a whole lot richer for God has given me two wonderful children and tonight I feel like a KING.

Cedarly,
Harry

Montgomery Cedarettess

Dear Cedarettess:

Wow! Where did the year go? As the saying goes, "Time flies when your having fun". This past year has been a fantastic experience for me, as well as a very busy and successful one. Thanks to all the hard work of our dedicated Cedarettess.

The Cedarettess celebrated their 15th Birthday Saturday night by honoring the past presidents with a free candlelight dinner. Each past president was greeted and seated at a special table. A wooden teddy bear (napkin holder) with their name and year as president determined the seating order. A delicious chicken cordon bleu dinner with all the trimmings was served, and after the meeting we had our special birthday cake. Since I requested that no past presidents work that evening, Barbara Ware was in complete charge of handling the dinner. Thanks Barbara and all who helped her cook and serve the dinner. A GREAT JOB - WELL DONE.

I want to thank our Cedars, Cedarettess and most of all - our friends and guests from the other Forests and Cedarette groups for helping to make this dinner and evening such a great success.

We had a lot of projects this year, both fun and profitable - 2 Dinner Theaters (the latest November 21st "Meet me in St. Louis", with Pearls granddaughter being one of the stars), a combined yard sale with the Cedars, 2 candy sales, 4 rummage sales, steak dinner, jewelry party, craft table, fashion show and our 15th birthday dinner.

Cedarettess Con't pg. 9

Cedarettes Con't.

Also, our units participated in parades, competitions, and the clowns performed their skit for various organizations, all of which required hard work, cooperation and support. But above all, the self satisfaction, fun, frolic, and fellowship one obtains makes it all worthwhile. THANKS A MILLION FOR ALL YOUR SUPPORT.

Past President Pearl Hunt gave her Sunshine report. We were sadden by Bob Garland and Billy Wolfe passing on. Winston and Lorraine Blalock have both been ill. Unfortunately, we just learned of Lorraine having been in the hospital with a heart condition and pneumonia just a few days before our meeting. Lorraine is now home and feeling better, however, still very weak. Ginny Mullican is once again home from the hospital. Myron Jones has a serious eye problem. Bill Seibert attended Bob Garland's viewing and looked good.

Election of officers was held Saturday night. The newly elected officers are as follows: President - Barbara Ware, 1st Vice President - Lisa Allen, 2nd Vice President - Linda Gevinson, Secretary - Edie Spadin, Treasurer - Barbara Hayden, 2-Year Trustee - Virginia Mullican. Emily Annis will be completing her 2nd year as Trustee and I will automatically go on the board as 1-year Trustee. Congratulations ladies and I know you'll do a fine job.

Following our meeting and elections, we joined the Cedars in their "Open Meeting" for the Grand Tall's "End of Term Celebration. The Grand Tall gave gifts to his elected and appointed officers and aides. Certificates were given to each individual who contributed to the "Pyramid Fund". A certificate was awarded to Yvonne Jerman as the "Chef of the Year", along with a small brass pot, for coordinatinng all their dinners. I was

MAY THEY REST IN ETERNAL PEACE!

A silent and special prayer was offered for Brothers Billy Wolfe and PGTC Robert Garland who passed away in November.

Due to our members becoming older, moving away, or deaths, we have fewer workers for our ways and means projects. Therefore, the expenses had to be reduced. In order to reduce expenses, the dues have been raised to $25.00 (partially due to a increase in the Supreme fees) and the Echo will be published 5 times a year (January, March, May, September and November) instead of 10 times.

A special thanks to Janet and the Cedarettes for all their support during the year. Their charter loosely states that they will support the Cedars to the best of their ability. Well, they out did themselves this year. Just a few highlights of their support is their contribution to the Cedar MD Fund of $1,560 from the Bridge Walk, supporting the Ways & Means Projects, working the Crab Feast, providing entertainment for the Senior Deputy Night and a large contribution to Cedars at the last meeting. The Cedarettes always answered my call for help during the year.

Once again, I wish to express my deep appreciation for the support received from the elected, and appointed Officers, Aides, Committee chairman, and members. The Anniversary Dinner Dance, Crab Feast, Convention, and MD activities were a high success thanks to Carl Sharpless, PGTC Bob Allen, and PGTC Chuck Ware and their assistants.

I will continue to support the Forest next year and know that Al Spadin will provide good leadership and ensure that the high degree of fun, frolic, and fellowship experienced in 1993 will continue.

presented a Teddy Bear plaque which included a picture of myself and all my elected officers. The Grand Tall presented a Certificate of Appreciation to the Montgomery Cedarettes in recognition for all their support in 1993.

The "Cedar of the Year Award" went to Bob Allen, who was asked to come forth to help with the award, and much to his surprise learned that he was the "Cedar of the year for 1993. On behalf of the Cedarettes, a $500. check was presented as a contribution to the Cedars. On my behalf, I presented the Grand Tall with a wagon drawn by horses which moves forward and backward while playing music. This is in keeping with his theme "Ride along with me in 93".

Grand Tall Norm, you truly have had both Cedars and Cedarettes ride along with you. You can be very proud of your accomplishments.

Installation of officers will be held on 18 December 1993, 8 PM at the Cedar Club. Please attend and support Barbara and her officers.

I wish each and every member a happy Hanukkah, Merry Christmas and a prosperous, healthy New Year.

Cedarettly,

Janet
