A lot of members expressed a desire to join the officers in attending other Forests meetings. We regularly visit PG on the 1st Saturday, Capitol, the 2nd Sat, NOR-VA, the 3rd and Temple on the 4th Friday of each month. A travel gavel for District 20 Forests is being given to the Forest having the most members. We got it at PG last month and expect to regain it at Capitol's meeting on April 10th. Also, put 17 June on your calendars for traveling to Baltimore for JDGTC night. They are having open meeting, dinner, and a 50 piece concert band.

For those members who have not sent in a booster and 365 Club donations, please send them in as soon as possible. For those members having paid and are not listed in the Echo, please call Bob Garland and he will insert your names. Jan & I have paid and hopefully our names will be in this Echo.

For those members who do not belong to a unit, please consider joining the clowns, color guard or Greeters. Being in a unit is a lot of fun. I have joined the Clowns and look forward to my first competition in April.1

Cedarly,

From The Senior Deputy

Albert R. Spadin Senior Deputy

I hope all of you safely survived the "Blizzard of 1993!" Fortunately enough snow had melted that we could hold our March 20, 1993, meeting. Following the meeting, we were entertained by The Young Americans of Washington Upbeat Unlimited. Their performance was wonderful and of a professional caliber. Three of the main performers, ages 8 & 9, were Jennifer Clem, Ashleigh Hunt, and Melody Fogel. Ashleigh is the granddaughter of Pearl Hunt and Jennifer Clem is the granddaughter of Art and Midge Frietag. The girl's talent and maturity were a pleasure to observe. I would like to thank Norm and Janet Clark for arranging this entertainment.

On Sunday, March 21, 1993, a wreath laying ceremony took place at George Washington's gravesite at Mount Vernon. It was a beautiful day for the ceremony which was attended by numerous members including the Supreme Tall Cedar, The Senior Deputy, and the Grand Masters of Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. It is always moving to participate in ceremonies which recognize historical masons in the past.

Please be reminded that we are holding a yard sale at my house. Please contribute some of your old treasures, dust them off, and bring them to my house a day or two before the sale. I hope this letter finds you all in good health. Now that spring is here, it would be great to see more of you at our executive and regular meetings. Cedarly,

From The Junior Deputy

Uwe Reiber
Junior Deputy

Executive meeting on May 3rd at Bob Allen's house at 8 p.m. Try to attend.

On May 15th regular meeting, Past Officers, sport shirt night.

On May 19 - 23 Convention time. Deadline for reservations April 10th. Questions or concerns contact Harry Annis, Jr. 301-949-7294.

I want to express my thanks to all who helped on Saturday March 20th, to set-up the refreshments.

NOTES FROM THE SCRIBE

The
CEDAR SPIRIT continues to GROW
in

MONTGOMERY FOREST!

SCRIBE

G. Lee Ferguson, PGTC

BROTHER CEDARS:

That's right! There IS a growing spirit and enthusiasm in YOUR Forest today. Even our Supreme Director, Brother Jim Dodson, has noticed. In his remarks at our February Forest meeting, SD Jim congratulated Grand Tall Cedar Norm and the Forest for the renewed sense of spirit and enthusiasm in Montgomery Forest. Are YOU missing out on it?!!!

MISSING or MISSPELLED BOOSTER and 365 NAMES:

Have you paid to be a BOOSTER and/or 365 supporter and found you name missing or misspelled in the last ECHO? Lynch your new Scribe. He is having to phase in the many functions of Scribe as he phases out some of his other obligations. As a result, certain chores have had to be placed down on the priority list during the first few months of the year. He PROMISES that all names will be in the MAY ECHO and properly spelled, and he thanks everyone for their understanding during this period of transition.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- DEADLINE for CONVENTION ROOM RESERVATIONS is APRIL 10!
- Our APRIL FOREST MEETING, on April 17th, is MASTER MASON NIGHT. Bring your non-Cedar Masonic friends and family to enjoy an evening of wholesome FUN, FROLIC and FELLOWSHIP! There will be a DINNER before the APRIL MEETING beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Cedarly,

Chips from the Chaplain

Harry G. Annis, Jr., PGTC
Chaplain

I want to tell you about a man I visited not long ago. He was up in years. I don't know his age for sure, he could have been in his late seventies. He was hungry for someone to talk to. He would think back and tell me of his friends and his family as tears came to his eyes. His wife died about ten years ago.

He has a grown son and daughter. He was telling me how great they were. He rarely sees them, but he does get a Christmas card, and then they tell him their news (mostly bragging). He said "No one seems to care anymore, I just can't understand. I try so hard to be nice. I can't help it if I look old. My hair is almost gone, I've got wrinkles and I don't walk so fast. Kids call me names, even some adults. They think I'm a bum or a dirty old man. I don't understand. My children are adults now but they don't come by. I have enough money, I don't need charity. I think the world has passed me by".

His great treat is going to the mall. He takes a bus as he doesn't drive anymore. He said he does like to walk, but he knows its not safe.

He was walking home from the mall this night and he was held up. When the police found him he was shot and his wallet was gone. They never did find the culprit who shot him.

Maybe you think this is just another case, but you better think again. If you are not already old, you will be someday. Will your children be scarce around you? Will young adults look at you as a burden to the community? Think my friends, think!

Oh, forgive and forget: for life is too fleeting
To waste it on brooding o'er wrongs we have met.
It is better, far better, to smother our anger,
To teach the proud heart to forgive and forget.

Cedarly,
Harry

Montgomery Cedarettes

Dear Cedarettes,

If you missed the March meeting, you missed something special.

We welcomed several ladies from Prince Georges Cedarettes and we were happy to see Grace Armstrong and Mary Thomson whom we had not seen for quite a while.

During our meeting, President Janet asked the ladies who had received Secret Pal gifts to stand and show them off so everyone could see what great fun it is to have a Secret Pal!

Pearl Hunt reported on several people who have been ill or in the hospital. Gini Mullican is in Washington Hospital Center after suffering a slight stroke during the "Big Snow Storm." She is coming along very well. Marilyn Brenner had a kidney stone but has passed it and suffers from lower disc problems. Doug Louia (husband of Cedarette Brenda) had extensive valve repair and triple by-pass surgery and is now at home recuperating. Bob Alexander (husband of Cedarette Judy) was in the hospital for several tests.

Lloyal McIntire's son-in-law died very suddenly recently after suffering a heart attack while shoveling snow.

And we were all happy to see Bob Garland and Bill Seibert at the meeting for the first time in a long time.

HEART OF LOVE

There is beauty in the forest,
When the trees are grown and fair;
There is beauty in the meadow,
When wild flowers scent the air;
There is beauty in the sunlight
And the soft blue beams above;
Oh, the world is full of beauty,
When the heart is full of love!

THE OBJECTS OF TALL CEDARISM

1. To provide social entertainment and clean, wholesome recreation; promote a wider acquaintance and a more sincere friendship among Master Masons; perpetuate itself as a fraternal, charitable and social organization.
2. To bind Master Masons more closely together and cooperate fully with all Masonic bodies in upholding the Ancient Landmarks of Freemasonry, and by precept and example to hold aloft and further the tenets of the Craft.
3. To create and maintain cooperation, peace and harmony among Master Masons and to discountenance jealousy, rivalry and ill feeling among Master Masons and Masonic bodies.
4. To emphasize that a Master Mason is not only a member of the Blue Lodge to which he belongs, but an integral part of the Masonic fraternity as a whole.
5. To teach that a Master Mason should not be judged by his worldly wealth or honors, his social status, or the manner in which he earns his livelihood, but from the viewpoint of true equality.
6. To urge all Tall Cedars to meet upon a Common Level at all times, to practice true peace and harmony, and to be ever mindful of a Brother's welfare.
7. To remind all Tall Cedars that they were first Master Masons and should refrain from saying or doing anything which would bring discredit upon the White Lambskin, which is the badge of a Mason; or upon the Pyramid, which is the badge of a Tall Cedar.
8. To teach that Tall Cedars, as Master Masons, are brothers upon the street as well as in the Lodge Room or the meeting place of the Forest, and thus should practice true brotherly love and affection towards one another.
9. To scatter sunshine, afford surcease from the cares and labors of the day, provide entertainment and refreshment without excess; and adhere to the cardinal principles of Cedarism: HOSPITALITY, SOCIABILITY and GOOD FELLOWSHIP.
10. To establish and maintain Research Laboratories in assisting in the combatting of the "Killer Disease"—MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY, which activity has been adopted as the National Objective of Cedarism.
