GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

No message being received from the Grand Tall Cedar and my dislike for an empty page, I will give you information for your knowledge from the official minutes of the September Exec Meeting

“ The Grand Tall Cedar discussed having an event for the committed workers of the Forest Members (to include the Cedarettes) to be partially funded by the Forest. After much discussion which included the Forest paying for half the cost for the members (including Cedarettes), a motion was made by Chuck Ware “to authorize the GTC to schedule an event to acknowledge the committed workers of the Forest funded by the Miscellaneous Sundry Account”. The motion was seconded by Norm Clark and approved unanimously by the Board.”

The Scribe's Corner

I hope that everyone had a wonderful Summer. GTC Doug Stadler has a lot of fun, frolic and fellowship planned for the remainder of his term, starting with the Shrimp Feast on 20 September (no meeting) which is chaired by PGTC Marshall Gevinson. The rest of the schedule can be found in this Echo or on the Forest web page (see the front of the Echo for the e-mail address.

Those members and Cedarettes that attended the Convention at Wildwood appeared to have a good time. The new Convention Center is really great. The Convention next year will be held in Charleston, West Virginia on 2-6 June 2004.

Congratulations to PGTC John Huff, editor of the Echo, for winning second place in the Forest Publication contest.

Cedarly, Norm
