GRAND TALL CEDAR'S MESSAGE

.Brethren:

We recently lost a Brother to the Celestial Lodge, Roy Trimmer, who was a Mason of Masons. If you asked him to perform any job, and if he could, it was done. Farewell Shipmate.

At our May meeting on the 16th, Montgomery Forest Will honor the Montgomery Cedarettes. We will honor the ladies by giving each one a corsage...

Once again Brethren, any meeting can only be as good as can be with your attendance, so if its at all possible, please plan to attend your Forest meetings as they are not only important to your officers, but all of you. Remember the officers are not the Forest, each and every one of you are the Forest, so take due notice and act accordingly.

Cedarly,
Sol Zeidman, GTC

The Scribe's Corner

My new computer is working fine, but someone entered our home and stole my new 22 inch Monitor. Talking about bad luck. I replaced it with a 23 inch and it is working great.

The Gevinsons, Clarks, and Vicky Krause attended the MDA Stride and Ride on 25 April representing Montgomery Forest and Montgomery Cedarettes. Montgomery Forest presented MDA with a check for 3,200 to send 4 young people to summer camp. Montgomery Cedarettes presented MDA with a check for 1,148 for ALS research. We will all get a chance to see the fruits of our labors at summer camp on 28 June.

I lost a friend, brother and shipmate with the passing of Roy Trimmer. He will be sorely missed. Once again, the members of Montgomery Forest and Cedarettes give our condolences to his wife, Helen.

GTC Sol will host a picnic at the Gevinsons after the Rockville Parade on Manorial Day. All Cedars and Cedarettes are invited.

Cedarly, Norm

MESSAGE FROM THE CEDARETTE PRESIDENT;

We had a great President and Past Presidents meeting in April. In May we are having our silent auction. Bring things if you have them. In May we go to convention at Wildwood, NJ and the clowns will compete in competition. We wish them well. June meeting will be Master Mason night and we will have an open meeting, so that our visitors can bring their wives with them. We wish all our sick that they get well and come back to visit us.
