CHARLES F. MARLOWE
Grand Master
2009-2010

Dear Worshipful Master,

I trust your year as Worshipful Master is going well. As you know, your Grand Lodge is constantly looking for ways to help Lodges and Lodge leadership be the best it can be. Freemasonry has always prided itself on being the front-runner in education and training, so your Grand Lodge feels it is only natural to offer you this exciting opportunity that is so fitting to the premise we are founded on.

Theodore Roosevelt wrote:

“The best executive is the one who has sense enough to pick good men to do what he wants done, and the self-restraint to keep from meddling with them while they do it.”

You are never too old or inexperienced to continue developing “Leadership Skills”. Your Grand Lodge has endorsed and collaborated with the “Leadership Team” at the Orak Shrine Temple in Michigan City, Indiana to bring you what I consider one of the best leadership training programs to be offered in recent years.

The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership by John Maxwell may well be one of the best programs currently available for leadership training. This program will teach you how to be a great leader by understanding the 21 key areas that hold people back from being the best they can be. This program is easy to understand and practice. It will leave you with a sense of “I can do this” by following and practicing these laws of leadership. Let me warn you that this program is not Lodge specific but Life specific. You will come out of the program with better life skills, which will resonate throughout everything you do in your Lodge, home, and work environments.

The “Leadership Team” presenters have combined service as leaders of well over 50 various Masonic, public, and private organizations. Their insight, experience, and leadership will enhance your leadership abilities.

This is my personal invitation to you, Worshipful Master, your officers, and your Lodge members to improve yourself in Masonry by attending one of the “Leadership Training” workshops scheduled around the state. Please take the time to improve yourself in Masonry by filling out the enclosed form and mailing it back to the Grand Lodge Office. The cost is $30.00 per person attending and is a small investment when compared to the rewards you can receive in the future.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Charles F. Marlowe
