Laying of Cornerstone of Shawnee Temple, April 17, 1915

a special dispensation was granted to Shawnee Lodge 830 to open the Entered Apprentice Degree and appear in public for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of Shawnee Temple on Saturday, April 17 1915.

The lodge was called for 2;30 pm and promptly at 2;55 the march from our old home at 38th and Broadway to the new Temple was begun. The parade was led by Deputy Grand Master, TJ Adams, who was acting for Grand Master George B Winslow.

Brother. Alfred C Kreiger. the first Master of Shawnee Lodge, had the honor of bearing the trowel; Brother Fronmiller the corn; Brother Victor Dupree the wine. and Brother Gus A. Knapp the relics and tokens that were to be placed in the corner-stone. 188 members were in line many having gone to the Temple direct.

BANANA PUDDING

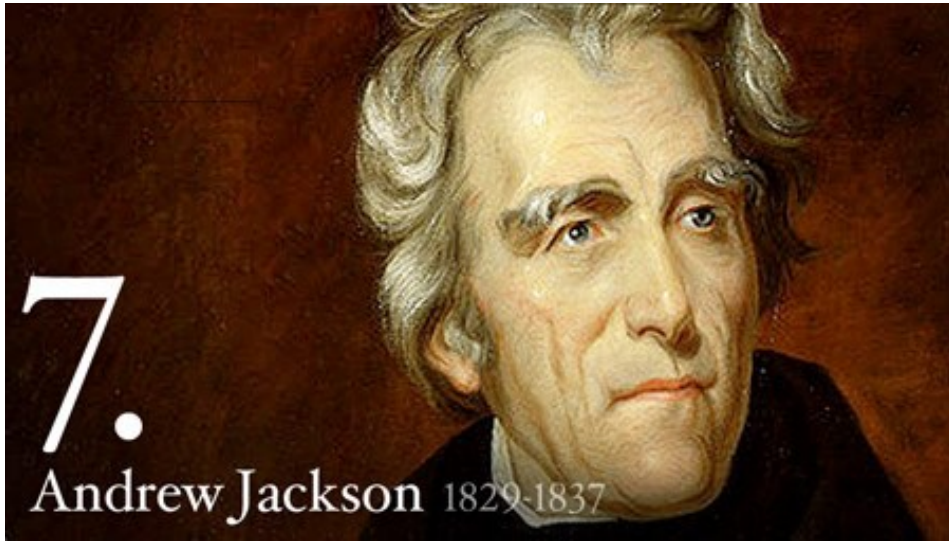

1 box yellow cake mix (& ingredients to make cake)
2 box (small) instant banana pudding...
4 c milk
8 oz whipped topping
20 vanilla wafers, crushed
sliced bananas - use your own judgment

Directions

1 Follow the direction on the cake mix box to prepare the actual cake. Prepare it in a 9 x 13" pan. When golden, remove from oven and let cool for a few minutes.
2 When just slightly cooled, use the end of a wooden spoon (the handle end) to poke holes into the baked cake. Don't be shy; make the holes big enough for the pudding to seep into and go deep enough with the spoon that you hit the bottom of the pan.
3 Next, prepare your pudding mixture. Combine your 4 cups of milk and the instant pudding mix; whisk until fully combined and there are no lumps.
4 Now it's time to fill those holes! Pour the pudding mixture over the entire cake, taking care to get it into all your holes. Use the spoon to help really get it into the cake and spread evenly.
5 Refrigerate for about two hours... or until set. Top with whipped topping, crushed vanilla wafers and sliced banana! Serve and enjoy. (Refrigerate any leftovers.)

Andrew Jackson's Early Life

Andrew Jackson was born on March 15, 1767, in the Waxhaws region on the border of North Carolina. The son of Irish immigrants Jackson started life becoming a lawyer and later married his wife Rachel. Andrew Jackson, who served as a major general in the War of 1812, commanded U.S. forces in a five-month campaign against the Creek Indians, allies of the British. After that campaign ended in a decisive American victory in the Battle of Tohopeka Jackson was the nation's first frontier president, and his election marked a turning point in American politics, as the center of political power shifted from East to West. He earned the name Old Hickory after leaving office Jackson retired to the Hermitage where he lived til his death on June 1845

From the East

Brothers, what a pleasure it is to serve as your Master for the year 2015. Inside this issue of the Shawnee Light you will find a tentative calendar for the ensuing year. Pay close attention to the Shawnee Light this year, each quarterly issue a will have a calendar for the next three months. I will be adding events to the calendar as the year goes on and by the end of the year it is my hope we will be able to have two events each month.

President John F. Kennedy once said "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country." If we change this quote so it pertains to Shawnee Lodge I believe we can accomplish so much together. Ask not what your Lodge can do for you; ask what you can do for Shawnee Lodge.

Someone reading this issue may not have attended a meeting for Lodge in Years. It is my hope that this year we can get you back to attending Lodge regularly. If someone needs a ride to Lodge and that is what is keeping them from attending I will arrange it. Feel free to call me anytime at 502-741-7859, and if I can't personally pick you up I will find somebody who can. We have several Father/Son/Friend Nights planned for this year and I encourage you to bring someone who has shown interest in the Fraternity. New ideas are always welcome and with them we can better ourselves.

Brothers, I have many goals this year as Master, but I am not naive enough to believe I can accomplish any of them without the help of the officers of the Lodge and the Craft. It is my hope that 2015 will bring many new and old faces through the doors of or Lodge and we will look back on it as a great year for Shawnee Lodge. I wish you all well.

Richard Laird

it has been my pleasure to serve you as Senior Deacon this last year. if elected, i will be honored to serve you as Junior Warden. the fun and challange of masonry is to go thru the chairs. it is certainly fasinating to me how much i can remember. i promise to do the best i can. GOD BLESS US ALL YOUR SENIOR DEACON
