

Shekinah Lodge, No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Brethren:

Most Worshipful Thomas R. Dougherty, Past Grand Master of Masons of the State of New Jersey wrote a message in the New Jersey Freemason that I think is very appropriate during these trying times.

“When you read the critics report on Broadway play or a new book, sometimes you wonder if they are reviewing the same thing. Some praise, some criticize. It is most likely the critics are basing their opinions on different individuals. There are those who give good performances, others leave much to be desired. When reviewing a book, possibly the critics are impressed favorably by different chapters or incidents that take place throughout the volume.

Someone wrote:

*We are writing a book,
a chapter each day,
We are judged by the things that we do and we say*

Those of us who are members of the Masonic Fraternity have a special obligation to God, our Neighbor, our Country and Ourselves. The world has a right to expect more from a Master Mason. We have pledged ourselves to the service of God and our Fellowman. A mason's duty is to make the world about him a better place, having been a part of it. God expects you to go the “extra mile”.

This is all it takes to make our beloved fraternity successful and prosperous.

Brethren these are truly great words from a very great Mason. Let us all try to go the “EXTRA MILE.”

Fraternally,

WILLIAM H. STILES

Worshipful Master
