

SHEKINAH LODGE No. 58

Free and Accepted Masons

Millville, New Jersey

Instituted - May 21, 1861

Brethren :

The first lesson we are taught in Masonry is to ask the blessing of Diety upon entering into any great or important undertaking. I consider entering into a new masonic year a very important undertaking, and would therefore ask the Grand Artificer of the Universe to bless, help, aid, and assist us in the new year.

I am greatful for having such a fine line of officers and want to compliment the Past Masters immediately preceding me for appointing these men in their respective years. Shekinah's reputation on that score is well known.

Last year, Worshipful Brother Goshen named a fact finding committee to investigate whether or not we should try to build a new lodge building, remodel our old one, or whatever. The committee's recommendation was to up date our present building. Therefore, I am continuing with that committee to implemnet their suggestions.

If the Masonic fraternity is to continue as a strong and influential fraternity, we must, as in building a structure, lay a good foundation. This foundation should be in the newly raised Master Masons. They should be taught that Masonry seeks to elevate the meek and lowly, and to reduce the powerful and influential to one common plane, and upon that level of equality, it teaches the prince and the peasant that the only rivalry worthy of approbation is that of who best can work, and best agree.

Fraternally, yours,

RUSSELL A. ROBERTS

Worshipful Master
