My Brother:

It is indeed an honor and a privilege for me to accept the position of Worshipful Master of Shekinah Lodge. I thank you for this great honor, which you so graciously conferred upon me, and I promise you that I will do my very best to uphold the tradition and reputation of this office, to which you have elected me.

We have, what I believe to be an interesting and rewarding year planned. I sincerely hope that you will take the time to support some, if not all of these activities. A lodge is only as strong as its members, so please "Support Your Lodge".

We also have some unfinished business which I would like very much to see disposed of this year. I am speaking of the mortgage on this beautiful temple. I feel confident that with your continued support I will have the pleasure of greeting you at our mortgage burning ceremony this year.

Last but not least, let us not forget the great duties we owe to our neighbors; Let us all support our Masonic Blood Bank Program and give "A Pint of Life". It is indeed, Great to be "ALIVE".

I am looking forward to greeting you at our next meeting.

May our Supreme Grand Master watch over you.

Fraternally,

ROBERT W. ESTELL
Worshipful Master
